

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1888.

ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday excepted.)

J. F. HALLORAN & COMPANY, Publishers and Proprietors.

ASTORIAN BUILDING, - - CASS STREET. Terms of Subscription.

THE ASTORIAN guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Grouse and ducks. Bay city, Tillamook county, is booming.

The Falstaff sailed yesterday. The Idaho is off for Alaska.

The Salem Vidette claims to be the only Democratic daily in Salem. This is tough on the Journal.

The infant daughter of John T. Nassa, residing near Cathlamet, died of cholera infantum yesterday.

Quite a number of sport-loving Astorians go to Portland to-night to see to-morrow's match game of base ball.

The Oregon state fair begins the 17th. This will be the show window of the state. What does Clatsop county propose to put in it?

The lively little Umpqua Herald has quit favoring prohibition and has come out straight Democratic. That's right. Come out of the high grass.

The Democrat sapiently directs attention to the fact that "Albany is on a straight line from almost any place or country you can name." Betcher-life.

Rev. J. McCormac will officiate in the M. E. church at 11 a. m.; subject, "Brotherly Love." Service also at the same on board the W. H. Starbuck at 4 p. m.

The annual meeting of Alert Hook and Ladder Co. will be held at the company's rooms to-morrow evening for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

The Grismer-Davies company will be here on the 17th inst. L. E. Selig received a dispatch yesterday stating that the juvenile opera company would be here on October 2 and 3.

The cost of living is said to have increased of late years in Portland. It is the other way in Astoria, where the cost of living is considerably less than it used to be. It doesn't cost as much to die, either.

The Young Men's Christian association song and gospel meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock will be led by Mr. T. A. Harding of Washington, D. C. Music by Y. M. C. A. orchestra which will be led by Prof. Francis.

Wm. Smith, of Douglas county, 58 years old, unmarried, etc., wrote a letter to president Cleveland last week, congratulating him on his successful administration. The next day the Douglas county court sent him to the insane asylum at Salem.

Articles have been filed at Olympia incorporating the Tacoma, Olympia & Chehalis Valley railroad company. Capital, $1,000,000. The object of the company is to build a line of railroad, commencing at a point on Gray's harbor, to run easterly through the Chehalis and Hanford valleys to some point on the Columbia.

The Northern Pacific company has purchased the Coeur d'Alene Railway & Navigation company's entire system. This comprises several boats that ply upon Lake Coeur d'Alene and the Coeur d'Alene river, and twenty-eight miles of narrow gauge railroad, extending from Coeur d'Alene mission through the Coeur d'Alene mining regions.

From July 1st to the 1st inst., there were 99,063 sacks flour, and 258,888 cents wheat, delivered at San Francisco from the Columbia river. For the season, so far, 333,189 cents wheat have been carried to San Francisco from here. Under other and proper conditions these 33,318,900 pounds of wheat would have been loaded on vessels at the wharves in this city.

There was a Republican meeting at the old armory hall last evening. C. B. Watson president, Frank Patton secretary. Remarks were made by several present, and a general discussion of the "plan of campaign." It was on motion decided to have a large and enthusiastic beginning of the campaign about the first of next month, and the chairman appointed a committee to take charge of the matter.

An attachment suit has been brought by the National Bank of New York against Wm. T. Coleman, Frank S. Johnson and the California Chemical company to recover $9,500 on two bills of exchange for $4,750 each drawn by the defendant company last January. The Merchants' National bank of New York has sued the same defendants to recover $5,000 on a bill of exchange drawn by the same company January 13th last.

The Fire Insurance Association of London, which has over 500 sub-agencies throughout the country, will, it is reported, soon withdraw from business here altogether and transfer to London all its surplus growing out of risks placed here. This surplus amounts to $390,575.57 net, and is in the hands of three trustees. The reason for this action is said to be the heavy losses sustained by this company in Europe. Formerly there were nearly 1000 agencies of this concern in this country.

Yesterday a party of thirty-one young men left Indiana for Colville, W. T. where they will form a stock company for the purpose of carrying on a stock ranch. A peculiar feature of their agreement is that no member of the firm can draw his money out of the general fund during the first five years after the date of organization. Any one leaving the business will forfeit his investment of $500, which is the sum put in by each member. The young men will do their own herding, branding and dealing, and will thus be enabled to avoid the expense of cowboys.

Kong Wing, the Chinese pawn broker, whose palatial establishment is opposite the postoffice, is out and injured to the tune of $800. This amount, which is a fortune to a Chinaman, in China, was stolen from him by some brother Mongolian last Friday night. The thief deftly entered the front room, cut a hole underneath a bank in which two Chinamen were asleep, got into the back room and took $800 out of an unlocked safe, on top of which another Chinaman slept. Kong Wing has kept that safe locked ever since, and slept last night with one eye open, but so far has no clue to the clever rogue who stole his coin.

Every one has heard the joke about "fencing a town in." An old Nevada friend in the office yesterday, tells it as a fact that the town of Bullionville, Nevada, is "fenced in," literally. Some time ago the two principal mining companies put up $400,000 chlorination works that didn't work. Everything shut down, and neighboring bands of cattle came licking around the pans and settlers, and died from the effects of the chemicals on their innards. So the ranchers got together and hauling lumber, they just naturally "fenced the town in." Time was when Bullionville was a red hot little town with lots of coin and heaps of fun, but so goes the world.

The tug Donald and Escort towed the Falstaff to sea yesterday afternoon, and brought in a British bark, believed to be the Cambrian, from Maryport, England, with railroad iron aboard. When inside Clatsop spit, and about half way between buoy No. 6 and Fort Stevens, about 3 o'clock the vessel struck, her stern taking ground, the vessel swinging broadside on. There was a strong ebb tide at the time, and the vessel is reported to have grounded lightly. There was a pilot aboard. The Gen. Canby and Dolphin arrived subsequently from the Cape and it is the opinion of those aboard that the vessel would be got off at high water with little if any damage. This is the first accident in that vicinity since the stranding of the Queen of the Pacific September 5th, 1883.

LATER: The tug Donald came up at a quarter past eleven last night, towing the Escort which had a hawser foul in her propeller. The vessel was then where she grounded, about half way between No. 6 and No. 3 buoys, on the edge of the channel, resting easy, and there was little doubt but that she would come safely off at 3 o'clock this morning, having simply sheered in, the tide running strongly out at the time. Captain Howes returned with the Donald shortly after midnight.

A Fight With Cougars. William Lousignont, living 24 miles west of Forest Grove, in this county, but near its boundary line with Columbia county, on the upper Nehalem, had a thrilling mountain experience last week. Wednesday evening he went into the hills after his cows, and in returning found one of his sheep freshly torn open and a cougar near it. It was dark and he had no gun with him. Next morning (Thursday) he went back to the carcass with his dog. A cougar was treed, which he brought down with his Winchester. Saturday morning he passed near the carcass with his three fine dogs, and discovered three cougars feasting upon it. With a wild yell the dogs ran for the big game, and succeeded in stampeding them into trees. Lousignont is the crack shot of the mountains, and quickly dispatched two of the large, ferocious beasts. The third shot was less fortunate, and the beast sprang out of the tree onto his best dog. He hastily threw a cartridge into his gun, but it missed fire. Lousignont then ran to the rescue of the dogs, using his gun as a club. He overreached in striking and the wounded animal turned upon him. Quickly drawing a huge hunter's knife, he plunged it into the cougar's throat, using his left arm as a guard.—Hillsboro Independent.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

General News Notes From Various Points.

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., Sept. 8.—The authorities captured a gang of expert counterfeiters, a family named Russell, consisting of mother, two sons and three daughters. A full counterfeit outfit was captured, together with a bucketful of spurious $5 gold pieces, of which they made a specialty. They worked in connection with counterfeiters of paper money.

IN USUAL HEALTH. NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Judge Thurman slept nearly twelve hours last night, rose refreshed and in his usual good health this morning. He will speak at Newark to-night and return to Columbus.

A FLOODED DISTRICT. COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 8.—It has rained daily here for ten days. The Congaree, Broad and Salvador rivers are greatly swollen. Vast tracts of cotton fields are inundated; the loss will be over a million dollars.

GOOD FOR PORTLAND. PORTLAND, Sept. 8.—In the match game of base ball played here to-day the home club got away with the visitors. Willamettes, 7; Salt Lakes, 4. Will be over a million dollars.

FROM ST. LOUIS. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 8.—J. L. Palmer, chairman of the Arkansas prohibition state executive committee, says forty counties of Arkansas have gone against license. The returns are carried away from precincts which have large prohibition majorities.

TROUBLE AGAIN. The election troubles in the Indian territory have broken out afresh in the Chickasaw nation. The election resulted in the return of Gov. Guy by a majority of 14.

Corruption and manipulation of returns are charged on both sides, and the danger of a tribal war has become so great that Indian agent Owens has gone to Tishomongo where the council is in session.

BIZ. NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The statement of associated banks shows $11,646,625 in excess of the legal requirement. Bar silver, 92 1/2.

AGAINST THE GOVERNOR. GRAND FORKS, Dak., Sept. 8.—The committee by the Day faction of the two headed Democratic territorial convention has completed its work and will send formal charges against Governor Church to the president sometime this month. The governor is charged with caucus packing and illegal methods to secure control of the territorial convention, of the use of his veto power to intimidate the people, appointing persons unfit to hold office, of illegally appropriating notary fees to his own use, of violating the militia law, of squandering proceeds of stock indemnity funds; of bad management of publication of laws of the territory. The charges are supported by affidavits.

A HORRIBLE MURDER. LONDON, Sept. 8.—The horribly mutilated body of a lewd woman was found early this morning in a yard attached to a common lodging house in Spitalfields. Her throat was cut from ear to ear, her body ripped open, her bowels and heart lying on the ground, and a portion of her entrails around her neck.

This is the fourth murder of a similar character committed recently in this neighborhood; all the previous victims were women of the lowest character. The author of these atrocities remains undiscovered. The excitement in the vicinity borders upon a panic.

THE G. A. R. REUNION. COLUMBUS, Sept. 7.—Arizona posts of the Grand Army of the Republic arrived this morning in time to take part in the reunion. California posts will arrive this afternoon.

TROUBLE IN CHINA. WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—While the state department has received no official intelligence of the rumored attack by natives on the American consul at Canton, the assistant secretary of state, Rives, said to-day he saw no reason to doubt the truth of this statement. There has been a feud in Canton growing out of the treaty trouble. Nothing can be said as to the details of the affair, but such things have happened before and are likely to happen again.

RACE TROUBLES OVER. HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 7.—Race troubles in Fort Bend country are now over. A number of obnoxious politicians have been ordered to leave the country and have done so.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at J. C. Dement's Drug Store.

W. H. Whitcomb claims "high boat" on the salmon-trout catch so far this season.

A Model Woman.

Mr. Jones came home at an unseemly hour the other night and was surprised to see Mrs. Jones sitting up for him below stairs, with no other light than that of the electric tower on the corner to keep her company.

"M-m-marie," he said huskily, "you shouldn't sit up 'till late when I'm out on business."

As Mrs. Jones did not answer him he continued in an alarmed voice: "Shorry, m' dear, but it's lash time tell you I'm shorry—won't speak to me."

At this moment Mrs. Jones called from above stairs: "Mr. Jones who are you talking to at this hour of the night?"

"Thash what I like to know, m-m-marry-sell," stammered Jones.

Mrs. Jones hastened down stairs, lamp in hand. When she saw the situation she laughed, in spite of being very angry.

"It's the model," she said, "the model I bought to-day to fit my dress on."

"Yes, thash so," said Jones, tipsily, "model woman—don't talk back—make some fellow good wife." Detroit Free Press.

The Wife Wouldn't Allow It.

Five men, three of them pretty well known here, occupied a back room in a prominent saloon all last night, and judging from the cards strewn upon the floor in the morning many a deck must have been discarded during the nocturnal venture at poker. Two of the players were well-to-do business men and the rest were clerks receiving fair salaries, and who, by the way, had accumulated some money for the inevitable rainy day.

One of the clerks, very heavily, and besides giving checks for the aggregate sum of $1,300, he even went so far as to risk his little home-stead, valued at $1,900, which shelters his wife and two pretty children. Luck was against him, and he also lost that.

Yesterday morning the player who advanced him $1,100 on the property demanded a deed to it, but the desperate and senseless clerk could not deliver "the goods," because his wife declined to sign a conveyance. Angry words followed, and it is not at all unlikely that the clerk's creditor will bring the matter into court. —Portland Evening Telegram.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without your attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

Their Chances Like Sunbeams Passing By.

Something like 300,000,000 feet of lumber are required annually to keep up with the growth of population of Minneapolis and St. Paul. And still there are hundreds of Oregon youths who loiter away their time and see one hundred and sixty acre tracts of the finest timber out of doors grabbed up by eastern capitalists, when they could have it for the asking.—East Portland Vindicator.
