No One Need Remain A Dyspeptic.

"I have been suffering for over two years with Dyspepsia. For the last year I could not take a drink of cold water nor eat any meat without vomiting it up. My life was a misery. I had had recommended Simmons Liver Regulator, of which I am now taking the second bottle, and the fact is that words cannot express the relief I feel. My appetite is very good, and I digest everything thoroughly. I sleep well now, and I used to be very restless. I am fleshing up fast; good strong food and Simmons Liver Regulator have done it all. I write this in hopes of benefiting some one who has suffered as I did, and would take oath to these statements if desired." E. S. BALLEW, Secretary No. 4.

Old maids find themselves treated by the world much like ordinary second-hand books. They are not old enough to be rare, and not new enough to be dear.—Puck.

Some controversy has arisen lately as to whether a clergyman can marry himself or not. We beg to suggest that the question is whether the verdict would be felo de se or temporary insanity.—Fun.

"And what do you expect to make of your son when he comes of age, Mr. Smith?" "Oh, I don't know," replied Mr. Smith, despondently. "I think he'd make a good husband for a rich girl."—Life.

Groom (in suburban village)—We are looking for a small house; one about big enough for a young couple. Agent—Yes, sir. Would you like a twin cottage? Bride—Horror! No.—Philadelphia Record.

Restaurant waiter (to departing customer who has failed to give him the accustomed tip)—You'll not forget me, will you? Miserly party—No, indeed. I'll write you a letter when I get home.—Texas Siftings.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Mistress (to new girl)—What under the sun do you mean by sitting idly all day in the kitchen when I am paying you $4 a week? New girl (recent importation)—Sure, mum, the immigration commissioners at Castle Garden told us if we contracted to work we'd be sint back.—Philadelphia Record.
