

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY NOVEMBER 11, 1888. THE BEST WAY TO LOOK AT IT.

It is doubtful if there has been an election in the history of this country which has been so free from personal abuse and vilification, or one in which the result depended so much on the intelligence of the voting citizens of this country.

DINING WITH MRS. LANGTRY. Bill Nye Has a Perfectly Delightful Time.

Mrs. Langtry, on the day I speak of, wore a new dress of lavender beuge, trimmed with a different color round the bottom.

Quite a number of notable people were present, and several of them said that Mrs. Langtry and I looked first-rate together.
