The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that bodily health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and am greatly benefited."—Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.

"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health."—Miss Thirza L. Crerar, Palmyra, Md.

"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved."—Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.

"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies."—F. A. Pinkham, South Moluncus, Me.

"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect."—Rev. S. J. Graham, United Brethren Church, Buckhannon, W. Va.

"I suffered from

Nervous Prostration,

with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 80 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Lucy Moffitt, Killingly, Conn.

Mrs. Ann H. Farnsworth, a lady 79 years old, So. Woodstock, Vt., writes: "After several weeks' suffering from nervous prostration, I procured a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken half of it my usual health returned."

W. E. DEMENT,

THE LEGISLATURE.

Proceedings of The House and Senate.

SALEM, Jan. 16.—The principal feature of to-day's session of the legislature was the assembling in joint convention in the hall of the house of representatives and listening to the reading of the governor's message. It was not long, as such documents go, but its reading was deliberate and with marked emphasis on several portions which it was evident the author deemed of grave importance to the people of the state, and therefore should be also to their constituted representatives. Particularly did he call attention, by his slow and pointed enunciation, to his views regarding the railroad commission, created by the legislature at its last regular session.

But few of the members of either house were aware that the governor had that very morning removed the railroad commissioners from office, "for cause," and looks of astonishment were exchanged. During the noon recess this action of the governor was one of the principal topics of conversation. Commissioner Waggoner, who was present, seemed to think the governor had no right to remove himself and his brother commissioner from their offices, and intimated that they should continue to discharge the duties required of them by the act creating the commissioners. Representatives who were lawyers thought the governor had a right to remove the commissioners and thus render inoperative a law which he seemed to think useless. The sentiment of the legislature did not appear to be with his excellency in this matter, however. Although the supreme court had decided that the commission had no power to regulate the charges of railroads, yet it is thought that in investigating cases of unjust charges and reporting the same to the public and to the legislature, the commission is doing good work.

One member said: Many wrongs have been righted by this commission, and we all know that the railroads have acceded many times to suggestions made by the commissioners.

The suggestion of the governor regarding the punishment of bribery was acted upon in the house in the afternoon, Waldo introducing a bill repealing that section of the law which punishes the taker of a bribe. It should be an easy matter now to punish the bribe-giver.

Representative Hahn's bill to regulate salmon fishing on the Columbia river and its tributaries, prohibits the fishing for, catching or taking of salmon in the waters by means of river nets, pound nets or fish traps, but exempts traps made of wood. For constructing such prohibited nets or traps, for catching fish by means thereof, or for having in possession any fish so caught, the following penalties are provided: For the first offense, a fine of not less than $250, nor more than $500, to which may be added, in the discretion of the court, imprisonment in the county jail for not less than a month, nor more than six months; for each and every subsequent offense, a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, to which in the discretion of the court, may be added imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than one year. The close season is also fixed by this bill during the month of March, and up to the 10th of April, and after the 10th of August, and from 6 P. M. of each and every Saturday during April, May, June, July, and up to the 10th of August until 6 P. M., of the following Sunday. One half of the fine is to be paid to the informer, and the other half into the school fund of the county where such offender is convicted.

Two or three bills have been introduced authorizing the construction and maintenance of booms on the Umpqua and Rogue rivers. These bills are not likely to be come laws, but if they should, it is claimed by members well versed in the law that they would be unconstitutional. It is declared that the question of right to maintain a boom on any stream has already been denied by the supreme court, in the case of some parties on the Rickreall river in Polk county.

There was a sharp discussion this afternoon in the senate, arising from Dimick's joint memorial petitioning congress to pay Union veterans the difference between the value of the greenbacks received for their services and the actual value of their services.

Cogswell, Dem., of Lake, intimated that he would not be able to support the memorial and moved its reference to the committee on military affairs. His motion was voted down, 19 to 11.

Barin supported the resolution in a short but pointed speech.

Chandler, of Baker, on being recognized by the chairman, inquired if the senate would listen to what an ex-rebel had to say. He then said he would support the resolution, because he believed the government should make good its promises to the soldiers.

Cogswell, who is an ex-Union soldier, said he had received every cent the government had promised him, and he had no claim on it.

After further discussion by Barin, Wager, Sinclair and Cogswell, a vote was taken, resulting as follows: Ayes 26, nays 3, Cogswell, Stanley, Veatch and Cauthorn not voting.

In the senate this morning Gray of Clatsop, introduced a bill which substantially conforms to Governor Penoyer's recommendation for the building of portage railways by levying a tax. The bill constitutes the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer a board of portage commissioners and empowers them to levy the necessary tax.

The Republican members of the legislature held a caucus for over an hour to night, in pursuance of a notice given at the close of the session in both houses this afternoon. Senator Barin of Clackamas, president, and Representative Earhart of Portland, acted as secretary. Sixty-six members were present. Two ballots were taken. The first, which was an informal one, resulted as follows: Dolph 46, Hon. George H. Williams 11, and one each for ex-governor Moody, congressman Hermann, state senator Fullerton, speaker Smith and others. Second ballot: Dolph 57, George H. Williams 6, district attorney Ellis of the seventh judicial district 1, Judge Boise 1. Senator Dolph was then unanimously chosen as the caucus nominee of the party, and will be voted for next Tuesday.

Cyrus A. Dolph of Portland, tonight telegraphed the result of the caucus to his brother at Washington.

It was agreed that both houses adjourn to-morrow noon until Monday.

Doctors' Bills.

Nearly all diseases originate from inaction of the liver, and this especially the case with chills and fever, intermittent fevers, and malarial diseases. To save doctors' bills and ward off disease take Simmons' Liver Regulator, a medicine that increases in popularity each year, and has become the most popular and best endorsed medicine in the market for the cure of liver or bowel diseases.—TELEGRAPH, Dubuque, Iowa.

Parties in Nephi, Idaho, have been writing to the Northwestern railroad officials to get rates on fifteen carloads of jack rabbit carcasses.

A Dig In The Ribs.

If on the right side and lower part of the diaphragm, though playfully meant and delivered, is calculated to evoke profanity from a chaffy whose liver is out of order. When that region is sore and congested, pikes seem benedict. Look at a man's countenance ere you prod him under the ribs. If his skin and eyeballs have a sallow tinge, you may infer also that his tongue is turned, his breath is to be sour, that he has pains not only in his ribs, but also under the right shoulder blade. Also, that his bowels are irregular and his digestion impaired. Instead of making a jocular demonstration on his ribs, recommend him to take, and steadily persist in taking, Host's Stomach Bitter, the finest and best of all dietetic medicines extant. Incomparable is it, also for dyspepsia, rheum, neuralgia, nervousness, kidney trouble, and fever and ague.

Real estate has declined materially at Shenandoah, Penn. Several acres have dropped about forty feet—into an abandoned mine.
