Marriage Among the Uhiokasaws.

The Chickasaw maidens are fair to look upon. They are of the Castilian type of beauty. They are tall, graceful, with languishing black eyes and an abundance of black hair. They dress tastefully, and all or nearly all are fairly educated.

Chickasaw citizenship is worth at a moderate estimate $8,000. There are now about six thousand Chickasaws by blood and marriage. If the Chickasaw lands were divided up, each man, woman and child in the nation would be entitled to about seven hundred and fifty acres.

Formerly the marriage laws were loose and a smart fellow coming into the nation could get married in a week at an expense of $1.50 for a license fee. This law was so hadly abused that the legislature some years ago amended it, and now a citizen of the United States must reside in the nation two years, produce a good moral character, be vouched for by three Chickasaws in good standing and pay a license fee of $50 before he can marry in a manner to qualify him for citizenship.

The national party favors increasing the marriage license fee to $100 and putting greater restrictions on the applicant for matrimony. This is not advocated in any narrow spirit, but in the interest of good citizenship. It is a fact that the refuse of Texas, Missouri, Arkansas and Kansas is dumping itself in here. The national party is opposed to a cheap and rowdy citizenship or rowdy population. It believes that by ncreasing the fees and strictly enforcing the laws only good men would want to marry or do business in the nation .- St. Louis Republic.

Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consump-tion broken in a week we hereby guar-antee Acker's English Cough Remedy, and will refund the money to all who buy, take it as per directions, and do not find our statement correct.
