He Bagged the Ghost.
 Casey (Iowa) special: There is a little pond known as Silver lake four miles west of here, and near it a school house, in which the belles and the beaux of the neighborhood are wont to hold a lyceum. Recently a ghostlike apparition has caused nightly terror in the neighborhood. Several nights ago the apparition frightened a farmer's team which ran away, tipped over the buggy and nearly killed the farmer's wife.
 The husband procured a shotgun, loaded it with buckshot and then lay in wait for the ghost for four nights, getting frostbitten in the mean time. Last night he filled the ghost full of buckshot. It cried: "My God, don't shoot any more," and fell prostrate. The ghost was carried home by the shooter and cared for. No one but the attending physician has seen him, and he refused to give any name. He is suspected to be a land seeker who wished to scare owners and buy adjoining land cheap.
 Mamma (to Flossie, who had been lurching with a little friend) — I hope you were very polite, Flossie, at the table and said, "Yes, please," and "No, thank you," Flossie—Well, I didn't say "No, thank you," because, you see, I took everything.—Epoch.

A Perfect Laxative should be mild, prompt, and pleasant, with no gripping or purgative effects. It should also induce the liver to action, aid digestion, and relieve the kidneys, like nothing else.
Paine's Celery Compound is a perfect laxative, and cures constipation where all other remedies fail.
 "As a gentle laxative, Paine's Celery Compound is surely without a peer. I think I ought to know, since I have tried remedy after remedy for about five or six years and have found nothing that equals it in any case of constipation."
 J. B. JENKINS, Teacher, City's Creek, Tenn.

"Paine's Celery Compound is prompt and pleasant. As a laxative it leaves little to be desired. I have great confidence in its merits."
 ALBERT LEONARD, Associate Editor, Journal of Pedagogy, Athens, Ohio.
 "For two or three years I suffered intensely every night with severe pains in my bowels, which were habitually constipated. My bowels are now regular, and I have had no return of these pains since using one bottle of
