The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrillton, Ark.

Cough Medicine

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me." Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

CATCHING SEALS AND SEALIONS.

Captain Paul Boyton has returned from where he has been for the past week in quest of seals and sea lions for Lincoln park in Chicago. In reply to an Oregonian reporter's question as to his success, the captain said:

"I found the sea lions and seals very wild, the former being simply ferocious. While I was at the mouth of the Columbia the weather was very rough. I spent a day at Tillamook head and captured four sea lions, as fine specimens of the animal as I have ever seen. They were, as I have said, very wild, but with my method I found no trouble in taking them.

"The trail over the mountain that I traversed to reach the head is one of the roughest I think on the face of the earth. It took me eight hours to travel seven miles, but the sight that met my eyes on reaching the rock well repaid me for my trouble. The rock was fairly alive with sea lions, both large and small. The four I took were captured with very little trouble, but I found on starting for home that I would have to abandon them. The storm that was raging had blown so many trees across the trail that it was impassable for pack horses. The afternoon I spent on the rock I could have caught all the sea lions I wanted, but I had no use for more than four.

"I also spent a day on Sand island in quest of a few specimens of the seal, I found an abundance of them and took two, all I wanted, with very little trouble, although they were very wild, having been shot at so many times by passing fishermen. I have been advised by the fishermen to wait until the canning season begins, when any number of seals will be caught in the fish nets which I can purchase at a comparatively low figure.

My intention is to wait for a few weeks to let the angry Pacific quiet down a little, when I will be able to get what I want. In a couple of days I will have two coaguars ready to ship. After shipping my animals east and giving my exhibition at Seattle I will depart for the east, where I have dates to give exhibitions."

As the reporter was taking his leave the captain called him back and said: "While on my way to Tillamook rock I stopped at a ranch at the mouth of Elk creek, at which place my host showed me two life preservers that had drifted ashore. On one was painted Earl Graville, St. Johns, New Brunswick, and on the other Benj. Sewall, 2,921, J. O. K. T. It is a mystery to me and to others to whom I spoke, where the life preservers came from, unless it be that the two ships have been wrecked and their crews have gone in a body to Davy Jones's locker."

Catarth Cured.
A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Catarth, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren St., New York City, will receive the recipe free of charge.

Private Jas. K. Belton, an inmate of the confederate soldiers' home, at Richmond, Va., tells a startling story. He says that when employed as a diver in getting copper out of the wrecked confederate ram Merrimac in 1873, he dived into the forecabin and found the skeletons of two men, manacled to the floor. He supposed they were members of the crew incarcerated for violation of some rule, and when the craft was sunk were forgotten.

Impaired Circulation.

DR. FLINTS REMEDY, by exercising a regulative influence over the action of the heart and the general circulation, will check at once bleeding from the lungs, and will cure dropsy of those organs. Descriptive treatise with each bottle; or, address Mack Drug Co. N. Y.

More than twenty million acres of land in Washington territory, or nearly one-half the whole area, remain unsurveyed.

DYSPEPSIA, DESPAIR, DEATH.
These are the actual steps which follow indigestion. Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets will both check and cure this most fearful of diseases. Guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The Fish Commission.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19—Livingstone Stone, superintendent of the United States fish commission of the Pacific coast, who has just returned from McCloud river, reports success in the distribution and collection of eggs in the different rivers of the coast.

During the past year one million and a half of salmon eggs were taken from the McCloud river hatchery. Nearly all of the eggs were hatched and placed back in the stream.

He states that from the Willamette river near Oregon City, 5,000,000 salmon eggs were obtained during the fall. Of the 5,000,000, between 80 and 90 per cent were hatched, and the fish put into the Clackamas river.

The commission has just received a car load of whitefish eggs from the great lakes, which will be distributed in the Columbia river and its tributaries, and the Coeur d'Alene lakes.

The commission expects soon to receive a car load each of whitefish, lobsters, eels and striped bass. Other car loads of fish eggs, of which the coast rivers lack sufficient quantities, are also expected to arrive.

Seven new stations have been established throughout the coast, and $140,000 has been expended in the construction of hatcheries, and in the collection of eggs and their hatching.

BETTER THAN BLOODY BATTLES.
General Wheatcroft Nelson, says: "My experience in the English army as well as in America, convinces me that nothing so thoroughly purifies the blood or adds to health, vigor and life as Acker's English Blood Elixir." This great Remedy is sold under a positive guarantee by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The laws of Oregon now provide that if any person shall commit the crime of larceny by stealing a dog, such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment of from one to ten years in the penitentiary, or from three months to one year in the county jail, or a fine of from $50 to $1,000.

CARELESS MOTHERS.
Many mothers have permitted their children to die before their eyes when they might have been saved. Any mother who keeps house without a bottle of Acker's English Baby Soother at hand, runs a risk which she may sometime regret. It has saved the lives of thousands of children, and is doing so every year. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A small piece of Limburger cheese carried about one's person will drive away the disagreeable odor of tobacco smoke, so offensive to delicate nostrils.—Time.

FLAMING FIRE IN THE VEINS.
We hold positive proof that Acker's English Blood Elixir cures all blood poisons where cheap sarsaparillas and so-called purifiers fail. Knowing this, we will sell it to all who call at our store on a positive guarantee.
J. W. Conn, Druggist.

It has been calculated that not less than twenty millions of meteors, each large enough to be visible as a "shooting star," enter our atmosphere daily.

Near East St. Louis is a place called French Village. It has 800 people, all French, including 300 farmers, and every one is well fed.

HOW DOCTORS CONQUER DEATH.

Doctor Walter K. Hammond says: "After a long experience I have come to the conclusion that two-thirds of all deaths from coughs, pneumonia and consumption, might be avoided if Acker's English Cough Remedy were only carefully used in time." This wonderful Remedy is sold under a positive guarantee by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

FOR SPRING AND SUMMER

I am receiving direct from the factories the best values and most handsome designs in Men's imported, all wool Scotch Cheviot Suits; also in Navy Blue Flannels and Yacht Cloths, besides BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, MEN'S FINE PANTS and light weight OVERCOATS. In Soft, Felt and Stiff HATS, direct from the best manufacturers, I have obtained the latest styles and shapes, which I sell at as close a margin as can be sold, as well as any line of goods that I carry, for I do not believe in bunkum in business, such as resorting to any faking scheme as is often used by advertising a stock as bankrupt goods; an underwriter's sale; on account of removal or repairs, and selling off at cost to make room for new goods, etc., when it is merely done to force goods. The only true and honest way for merchants is to charge an honest and fair per cent. Mark his goods in plain figures, and give to each and every customer alike the same goods for the same amount of money. "One person's money is as good as another's."
