The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep.
There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted." - Robert Horton, Foreman Houghton, Morrilton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered." - Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me." - Mrs. E. Colburn, 19 Second St., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough." - Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

THE WESTERN WOMAN.

Some of the Qualities Which Make Her the Best Type of Womanhood.

The woman born in the west is a grand and goodly type of womanhood. She is strong and keen and comprehensive; she is full of life and grace and freedom; she is quick to feel an injury, and she is quite equal to being her own avenger. Her eye is keen and her tongue is sharp, but her heart is warm and her hand is open. She is always ready with her sympathy and prompt with her help. Her business ability and executive talent are of a very high order, as a proof of which is the fact that some of the fine cattle ranches and most extensive and most prosperous sheep runs are owned and managed by women. I have now in my mind the case of a woman, born in Ohio, who, ten years ago in the state of New York, was earning five or six dollars per week, with which sum she supported her mother and her father's brother, a semi-invalid old man.

At the time I speak of, when this woman was about 19 years of age, she obtained after much difficulty and delay a grant of a quarter section of government land to which her dead father had become entitled through his services in the rebellion. This land was located in Oregon. She sent her uncle out to take up the land, and she pinched and saved, and sent to him from time to time, almost dollar by dollar, money with which to hire help to clear a space in the timber and to put up a log house.

As soon as this poor shelter was provided for them she took her mother and went out and lived on the land. As she could from time to time, she bought stock, and so she crept on step by step until now she has a good home and barn, and last year she cleared from the sale of stock she had raised and from the sale of crops several thousand dollars. And what this woman has done hundreds of women are doing every year. And if many of these women have not got much education, their sons and daughters will have. And it is well with a land that breeds such women, and it is with the men of the land who have such mothers.
Belford's Magazine.

Disarming an Unseen Foe.
"This was something a paradox," as Hamlet says, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to pit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters against that unseen foe, malaria, it is no longer a pa-adox, but an easy possibility. Wherever malaria evolves its misty venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation impregnates the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasma, is the auxiliary poison to disarm the foe and assure efficient protection. Fever and ague, bilious reit-ment, dumb ague and ague cake, no matter how tenaciously they have fastened their clutch on the system, are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it altogether. But it is its preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons dwelling in malaria-cursed localities, for it is a certain buckler of defence against which the enemy is powerless. Cures, likewise, dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney and bilious ailments.

Settlers Must Vacate.
St. Cloud, Minn., March 20.— The officers here have received notice from Washington that all entries which have been made are annulled, and that settlers must vacate the Northern Pacific indemnity lands. Commission Stocks says the ruling under which the lands were opened has been overthrown.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A man wanted to whip the editor of the Lakeview Examiner for something that appeared in that paper. Fortunately he was at home in bed. A young man named Joe Lane, though, was pointed out as the editor, when the pugilist pulled off his coat and began the job. The result was that Land thrashed the ground with him, and now the Examiner has ordered Lane to draw on him at sight.

HOW DOCTORS CONQUER DEATH.
Doctor Walter K. Hammond says: "After a long experience I have come to the conclusion that two-thirds of all deaths from coughs, pneumonia and consumption, might be avoided if Acker's English Cough Remedy were carefully used in time." This wonderful Remedy is sold under a positive guarantee by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Chicago has a deaf and dumb lawyer, Joseph G. Parkison. He is a specialist in patent laws.

FLAMING FIRE IN THE VEINS.
We hold positive proof that Acker's English Blood Elixir cures all blood poisons where cheap sarsaparillas and so-called purifiers fail. Knowing this, we will sell it to all who call at our store on a positive guarantee.
J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Just From Tacoma.

"They will take you out three or four miles through the brush and trees until you begin to fear you will be scalped by the Indians, and then charge you $500 for a twenty-five foot lot and it would take several for a residence.
I have been in Omaha, Kansas City, Los Angeles and San Diego during the palmiest days of their booms and I never saw anything like it," said a fine looking gentleman in the Revere house bus this noon. Of course he was referring to Tacoma, and he expressed himself so well that we give his words.
Some day an avalanche will tumble on that overdone city that the Northern Pacific has been laboring so strenuously to boom, and then ye speculators, what a collapse there will be for the last men in the field. - Democrat.

A correspondent recommends tar smoke for a diphtheria cure. His treatment is to put a few drops of tar, like that used in ship yards, on a warm stove lid and to require the patient to inhale and swallow the smoke ten times a day for five minutes each time.
He has been invariably successful in his experiments.

BETTER THAN BLOODY BATTLES.
General Wheatcroft Nelson, says: "My experience in the English army as well as in America, convinces me that nothing so thoroughly purifies the blood or adds to health, vigor and life as Acker's English Blood Elixir." This great Remedy is sold under a positive guarantee by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Bowie-knives are being manufactured as plentifully as ever, but they are altogether for show; there is no record of one being used for years. The sight of one keeps the other fellow off.

CARELESS MOTHERS.
Many mothers have permitted their children to die before their eyes when they might have been saved. Any mother who keeps house without a bottle of Ack-er's English Baby Soother at hand, runs a risk which she may sometime regret. It has saved the lives of thousands of children, and is doing so every year. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

An offer of $500 was recently made for a madstone owned in Charleston, S. C. The stone has a record of having cured more than a hundred cases of mad dog and snake bites.

DYSPEPSIA, DESPAIR, DEATH.
These are the actual steps which follow indigestion. Ack-er's English Dyspepsia Tablets will both check and cure this most fearful of diseases. Guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The United States pays $900,- 000 a year for its wheat service.
Great Britain comes next with the second highest expenditure, but that is only $80,000.

believe in bunkum in business, such as resorting to any faking scheme as is often used by advertising a stock as bankrupt goods; an underwriter's sale; on account of removal or repairs, and selling off at cost to make room for new goods, etc., when it is merely done to force goods. The only true and honest way for merchants is to charge an honest and fair per cent. Mark his goods in plain figures, and give to
