Blood Purifiers are cured by the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—
"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.
Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more wonderful results.

"Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.
"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Ayer, (of Ferrisburgh, N. Y.) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. B. Wiley, 143 Chambers st., New York City.
"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furush, Haverhill, Mass.

DISCUSSING THE SITUATION.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—Relative to the proclamation of the president, prohibiting the placing of nets, weirs or traps in any river or stream of Alaska, the following opinion of one of the United States deputy fish commissioners, now in this city, may be interesting: "The law in itself is a good one," said he, "but although the proclamation has been issued, it will not be observed by any of those interested in canneries. Congress ordered that the rules should be advertised in the leading Pacific coast newspapers immediately after the bill was passed, but up to this date there has been no such notice, beyond an order written on a half sheet of letter paper, signed by J. S. Hager, collector of the port, and posted on the custom house door. The fishermen and cannery men, with but two exceptions, left for Alaska, and can well plead they had no cognizance of the law. They can put up traps with impunity, as no one will interfere with them.

"At Washington it is not known upon which department the duty falls of enforcing the act, although the United States fish commissioner and Professor Brown Goode, of the Smithsonian institute, have been energetic in their persuasions to have inspectors of fisheries appointed by the president to carry out the provisions of the act. The fact that every river and stream in Alaska teems with salmon, has been published throughout the country. This statement is somewhat erroneous. There are certainly salmon in nearly every body of water, from Sitka to the Yukon river, but in most streams the varieties of fish known as the humpback and dog salmon are the sole frequenters. These are not canned or salted. The rivers and lakes where red, silver and king fish spawn are few, and it is at these points that the cannerymen operate. Oregon, Washington and California have state fish inspectors for enforcing laws relative to weirs and traps, and it is an absolute necessity for the preservation and propagation of the salmon tribe in Alaskan streams, where canneries exist, that inspectors should be stationed there."

PARENTS CRIMINALLY LIABLE.
More than half of all deaths occur before six years of age. An array of innocent, lovely children are swept needlessly away each year. Parents are criminally responsible for this. The death rate of children in England is less than half this. Ayer's English Baby Soreter has done more to bring this about than all other causes combined. You cannot afford to be without it.
J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Chile is about to expend $2,000,000 in the erection of light-houses along the coast, and the sum of $500,000 is to be used in promoting immigration. Great numbers of the Chileans have immigrated to the Argentine Republic, where they engage chiefly in cattle raising. It is estimated that 5,000 have departed during the last three years.

BETTER THAN SUICIDE.

During the fourteenth century Edward III of England signed a law which forbade laborers to leave their own towns. Another law declared that persons worth less than 40 shillings must not wear cloth, but blanket and russet of 12 pence the yard, and girdles of linen according to their estate. During the reign of Richard II people who refused to work were branded on the breast or forehead with "V" for vagrant. George I sent to jail those who demanded increased wages. He allowed employers to pay tailors not more than 2 shillings per day during the spring and 1 shilling 8 pence per day for the remaining nine months. They were to work from 6 o'clock in the morning till 8 at night.

Some Denmark railway companies employ a man and his wife together. The women signal the train and the husbands do the track-walking. In case of the death of either husband or wife the other half of the family must marry again in six months or get out of the company's employ.

A very busy young man, had been decided upon, wrote to his fiancée, on a postal card, "What day? Tues.?" The answer came back promptly, also on a postal card: "No Wed."—Burlington Free Press.

When God's given a man a wife with six or eight, or ten children, the Lord's done a big thing for him, but when He gives a man a wife and a canary bird—well, He just throws off on him, that's all.

A mysterious wreck has been discovered on a rock known as the "Equets," a mile from the Casquet group, near Alderney, in the English channel. The vessel lies in eighteen fathoms of water. It is supposed that all on board have perished, as nothing has been heard of their rescue.

Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consumption broken in a week we hereby guarantee Ayer's English Cough Remedy, and will refund the money to all who buy, take it as per directions, and do not find our statement correct.

Mormons of the conservative type complain that converts are being made too fast, and that the character of the women, in particular is not up to the mark. Some of them even show temper toward their liege lords, a thing strictly forbidden by Mormon rules.

TERRIBLE FOREWARNINGS.
Cough in the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, rising phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweats at night, all or any of these things are the stages of consumption. Ayer's English Cough Remedy will cure these fearful symptoms, and is sold under a positive guarantee by J. W. Conn, Druggist.
