THE ASTORIAN GUARANTEES TO ITS ADVERTISERS the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

To-night.
At Ross' opera house.
Fred'k Warde in "The Mountebank."

The city council meets to-night.
Over 1,000 men go to the Alaska salmon canneries this season.

A large delegation of Astorians start for Alaska on the Idaho tomorrow.

Sheriff Smith and deputy Boelling were busy yesterday handling out tax receipts.

Reserved seats at the New York Novelty Store for to-night's performance.

After next Monday anybody and everybody can have a piece of Chinook salmon.

The British bark Fiery Cross has on board just one breakfast for the people of London.

The Terpsichorean society will have a social dance at Liberty hall next Thursday evening.

The spring fairs and the summer games are starting in early this season. Two of them cleaned up about $350 last week.

On Friday the 12th prox., the children in the public schools in this state must turn out and plant trees: that was the law says.

The American ship Indiana gets $18,000 for one cargo of lumber from Port Discovery for Buenos Ayres—1,200,000 feet at $15 per M.

The Augusta finally got away yesterday morning: the Alliance arrived in the Oregon sails for San Francisco at six o'clock this morning.

A little girl stranger arrived at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grobaner yesterday and was tenderly cared for: she weighs nine pounds.

The A. B. Field arrived in yesterday afternoon. The M. E. Watson goes to sea this morning; the Rotus leaves Portland on her way down this A. M.

Geo. W. Hume yesterday sold to C. W. Fulton and J. E. Demont 100 feet square fronting on Third street, and on Olney street, with the buildings thereon, for $15,000.

The Oregon and Washington land officials are about as hardworked at present as any men outside of newspaper offices or steamboats of the state and territory.

Charles Pearson, second mate of the steamer City of Pueblo, fell down the hatchway of that vessel last Sunday at Seattle and sustained injuries from which he died several hours afterwards.

What a constant change goes on in the newspaper world! It is said of the editorial management of the papers in Seattle and Tacoma, that not one is now employed on them that was there one year ago.

The Rev. G. L. Cole, corresponding secretary of the Y. P. M. A. for the Pacific coast, will give an address at the M. E. church this evening at 8 P. M. on the workings of the organization. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

G. B. Marre, of San Francisco, ate some alleged mushrooms last Tuesday to show that they were safe enough mushrooms. The fact that he died on Thursday, however, leads his friends to believe that the facts did not justify his faith.

Portland and Omaha capitalists are making arrangements to build a standard-gauge railroad from Umanilla, at the junction of the Oregon Short Line and the Oregon Railway and Navigation systems, northward through Yakima valley to Prosser.

When it comes to killing rats, Messrs. McCormick & Warren of the Astor House have claims to the championship. Last Saturday they made a raid on an outhouse near that hostelry and killed twenty rodents out of a possible 24. Their rule is to kill rats wherever they find 'em.

A large number of Chehalis county people are taking up timber claims in Tillamook county. There appear to be a good many mill hands among the number. Of course they are getting this land for themselves, and have no intention of transferring their certificates or receipts to any one else.

The people living at Sidney and Dye's Inlet, near Port Orchard, W. T., have bonded 3,500 acres of land to the U. S., the contract between them and the naval commissioners on behalf of the government having been signed; the presumption being that that site will be recommended for the proposed navy yard of the future.

Last Friday at Hoquiam, on Gray's harbor, the Tacoma, Olympia & Gray's Harbor Railroad company bought 21,000 acres of land, the intention of the company being to establish the terminus there. The land was bought of Geo. H. Emerson, and work upon the necessary improvements and terminal facilities will begin at once.

Seid Back, the Portland Chinese contractor, is in trouble. Several of his countrymen contracted with him to go to Alaska to engage in the canning of salmon, and after getting an advance on their salaries they skipped to the hills, preferring to grab stumps rather than remove the Worcester's dictionary is authority for the following spellings, among others: Ake, for ache; agast, for aghast; anoy, for annoy; couid, for could; delit, for delight; iiland, for island; rime, for rhyme; program, for programme. Those who are bound to "go" according to the dictionary will do well to take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

All hands agree that "there is no accounting for taste." People sometimes are found who appear to relish all sorts of disagreeable or unusual things, eating chalk, slate pencils, coal, etc., but one of the most singular phases recently noted is that of an instance where ashes is spread on bread and eaten with as much relish as folks usually exhibit over orthodox bread and butter.

A new postal card is soon to be put into circulation. It is very much like a double card. The back fold is split diagonally and opened like a four-pointed star. The four corners are folded and joined in the center with a piece of gummed paper. It will contain no more writing space than the present card. It weighs less than half an ounce. The only advantage will be a greater privacy.

A Young's river chicken raiser says he has devised a way of preventing chickens from scratching up his garden. He crosses the long-legged Brahmas with the short-legged bantams, and the result is a new breed of fowls with one long leg and one short leg. When they raise either leg to scratch they lose their balance and come to grief. After a few demoralizing attempts they desist.

A contemporary thinks that the photograph will supersede the newspaper. Not much! Words live when lips are silent, and nothing will ever supersede the immortality accorded by type and the press. These words here hastily written and hurriedly put in type and quickly printed will live and breathe when all now living shall have melted like streaks of morning cloud into the illimitable azure of eternity.

Last Sunday was a red-letter day for the Astoria St. Railway company. Their new "summer cars" were on the track for the first time, and were well patronized by Astorians who always believe in helping substantially anything that has any get-up-and-go to it. The cars are both useful and ornamental and present a very handsome appearance. The road is going right ahead, and will push on to Alderbrook and Tongue point and westward to Smith's point as soon as practicable.

By a decision of the supreme court of California rendered last Saturday, the principle of law is laid down that husbands and wives, in the privacy of their apartments, may say of each other, or of anybody else, anything they may choose. The judges of the court aver that the relationship of husband and wife is of such a character that in the seclusion of their own home, whatever each may say to the other, shall be regarded as having been said each to himself or herself. The husband and wife are one person, even with his ear to the key-hole, and so hearing something said disparaging of himself, can have any cause of action, and don't you forget it.

Liverpool correspondence London Gossip says: "The demand for salmon has slackened considerably, and later arrivals are being stored. The Waddale has commenced to discharge, and the condition is satisfactory. When the cold weather has passed we may expect a much better inquiry, as grocers have only replenished exhausted stocks, and have not generally bought for the spring requirements. The red Alaska fish appear to be preferred just now; but no doubt the superior flavor of the Columbia river salmon will again soon assert itself, as it is well worth the higher prices. Quotations are—Columbia river flat tins 35s tall tins 30s to 31s; Alaska tall tins 26s 6d to 28s.

Miss Lizzie Kilne Again.
Some time ago a damsel was brought before Justice May charged with larceny of $60 from friends she was visiting in this city. The evidence was straight; no defense was offered, and she was held to await the action of the grand jury. That body indicted her, but she was allowed to go free.

There was some comment at the time, but nothing published. Last Sunday a Portland detective came down and arrested her where she was stopping at the Pioneer restaurant, and took her up to Portland Sunday night. This time she is charged with stealing some jewelry, a watch and chain, a locket, and a ring. All the property was recovered except the ring. The ASTORIAN is in receipt of a letter from her mother, which is, for the present, withheld. Justice should always be tempered with mercy, but should not be wholly lost sight of.

A Singular Occurrence.
On Monday the 11th inst., two men named Clansin and Cuskie were drowned from their boat in John Day's river. Cuskie's body was recovered next day. Yesterday J. C. Adams was rowing by the spot, when the body of the defunct Clansin at that moment suddenly emerged from the watery depths where it had lain. It was a startling episode, but Adams coolly tied a rope around the body, towed it ashore and promptly notified the coroner.

J. A. Deeds and wife, Mr. Cronin and wife and two other men are going down the Nehalem in a canoe to its mouth, an exciting and adventurous trip.

O. W. Dunbar, late foreman in the Pioneer office is now associated with G. W. Snyder in the publication of the Transcript. Both are practical printers of ability and are experienced newspaper men.

A. V. R. Snyder has resigned his position as chief engineer of the Astoria fire department, and goes to The Dalles, where he will be associate editor of the Times-Mountain.

Mr. Snyder has conducted the Transcript in this city over two years with ability and success.

Fred'k Warde in "Virginia."

The mantle of McCullough seems to have fallen on Fred'k Warde, who at Ross' opera house last night gave a rendition of "Virginius" that was thrillingly realistic.

In criticizing a theatrical performance, three things must be kept in view: the actor, the public, and just remark.

All actors and actresses prefer honest expression of opinion, unbiased and intelligent, and while a performance may affect different persons in as many different ways, whatever genius or histrionic talent the actor or actress may evince is entitled to due recognition.

In the case of Fred'k Warde and his company, there is deserved just and generous praise.

The play itself is a sombre one and appeals to some of the deeper sensibilities of our nature. It is one in which a little rant spoils all: where a tendency to overdo is fatal to harmony, and any trifle of the throat or Lung, give that old and well-known remedy—Boschee's German Syrup, a careful trial. It will prove what thousands say of it to be, the "benefactor of any home."

Objects To Be Chased By Bulldozers.
If we hate one thing more than another it is to be chased around town when returning from our place of business after dark, by half a dozen of half starved bull-dogs. It seems every farmer in the county sent his dog to town during the week. For God's sake, build a bridge over the Little Nestucca so the people can come in themselves.—Tillamook Headlight, 22.

Their Business Booming.
Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at J. W. Conn's Drug Store as his giving away to his customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

How Men Die.
If we know all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are the better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when surrender becomes inevitable. In many instances the inherent strength of the body suffices to enable it to oppose the tendency toward death. Many however have lost these forces to such an extent that there is little or no help. In other cases a little aid to the weakened Lungs will make all the difference between sudden death and many years of useful life.

Upon the first symptoms of a Cough, Cold or any trouble of the Throat or Lung, give that old and well-known remedy—Boschee's German Syrup, a careful trial. It will prove what thousands say of it to be, the "benefactor of any home."
