

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, APRIL 2, 1930.

ISSUED EVERY MORNING. (Monday excepted.) J. F. HALLORAN & COMPANY, Publishers and Proprietors.

ASTORIAN BUILDING, - - CASS STREET. Terms of Subscription. Sent by Carrier, per week 15 cts. Sent by Mail, per month 50 cts. One year, $5.00. Free of postage to subscribers.

The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river. If you don't see what you want, ask for it.

The British bark Gartmore will load lumber at the Clatsop mill for South America. E. C. Jeffers has sold his interest in the firm of W. E. Larson & Co., to O. Peterson.

L. E. Selig is now an attaché of THE ASTORIAN. Any favors extended to him will be duly appreciated. The Senator from San Francisco to Liverpool, arriving last Tuesday, had among her cargo 51,615 cases of salmon.

The salmon cannery at The Dalles has contracted with fish wheel men to take all they furnish at four cents a pound. C. J. Trenchard and J. W. Hume yesterday saw the best April fool joke of the day. Ask one of them about it.

The Y. W. C. T. U. entertainment, which was postponed last Friday, will be given Friday evening at the Rescue club hall. The fishing season opened stormy, yesterday being rainy and gusty; heavy weather is reported toward the bar and along the coast.

A. H. Fricke, employed at the Clatsop Mill, was struck in the face last Saturday, by a cant hook, inflicting a severe and painful wound. The American Bark C. Southard Heart is at Sand Island with a pilot on board waiting for a tug boat to tow her out over the bar.

The tug Belshaw is expected shortly from San Francisco. She will be a tender for Geo. W. Hume's cannery, and Capt. Jas. Tatton will be in command. Uncle Sam is getting generous in his old age, and has sent signal service officer Griffin an oak desk and a patent swivel revolving chair that are articles of use and vertu.

A Portland newspaper man who bought a house and grounds about two years ago for $20,000, sold it last week for $30,000. Newspaper men do these things every little while. The A. O. U. W., Reporter hears that Seaside Lodge No. 12 will be honored by the next Grand Lodge. Our banner lodge deserves all the honor that can be bestowed upon it.

Messrs. H. D. Thing and C. E. Miller of the city express and transfer company have purchased a new horse of the Astoria Street Railway company, and will soon be ready for biz. Jas. W. Welch has made a good job of the repair to the pipe of the Columbia Water Co., and succeeded in having the break repaired with very little inconvenience to the patrons of the company.

The piling for the extension of the Astoria street railway company is extended as far as the gridiron; work is being pushed ahead and by the first of next month, the superstructure will be finished. D. R. Thompson, W. M. Ladd, and R. Koehler, last Saturday sold to Carl Spuhn, the wharves, boats, nets, steam tug and fish oil plant of the Northwest Trading Co., at Killisnoo, Alaska, for $25,000.

Geo. Noland and C. R. Thomson yesterday recorded the official plat of the delightful suburban villa known and hailed as Long Branch. It is on the banks of the placid Ohanua, opposite Cloutrie's. Surprenant & Ferguson have a contract for building a $1,900 residence for E. C. Jeffers on his place on Lewis and Clark. They are drafting plans for a $10,000 hotel, the Pacific House, for Abe Wing, of Oysterville.

Through the courtesy of the San Francisco Daily Commercial News THE ASTORIAN is supplied with several copies of the book recently compiled of vessels owned on the Pacific coast. Call if you need one. They are inestimable for reference. The rainfall for March, as reported by Mr. Jno. Griffin, was 5.18 inches: an unusually light rainfall for that month. The 14th and 15, 1.08 inches each, and on the 30th and 31st, 1.08, being the only two rainfalls of any considerable duration in the month.

The Portland park commissioners want a seal; a real live seal to put in a tank of real water in the park there and eat fish and look cunning. Anyone having a likely young seal is asked to donate it for the purpose stated, and your petitioners will ever pray. Quite a number of boats went out Sunday night, and early yesterday morning. Several came in yesterday afternoon, there appearing to be more sounders than salmon. Later on some boats came in with from 9 to 35 to a boat.

The missing men from the schooner Geo. H. Chance, disabled at Yaquina last Friday, were picked up the next day. They had drifted to Nestucca, and were pretty badly used up when rescued. Capt. Steve Babage was the pilot on the volunteer vessel that found the castaways. There was a big spread of canvas on the river yesterday, and the old familiar sight was visible of myriads of sail beating and heaving before the wind. For the next hundred and odd days the lower Columbia will present a sight that for busy life and changing beauty is unequalled anywhere.

The Flery Cross has finished loading; the Gartmore came down yesterday morning; the Astoria at the Clatsop mill; the Aetolia is at the Company's dock with a large load of

AN ACCURATE TIDE GAUGE.

Interesting Reminiscence of a Mariner Disaster. The Margeret went out over a smooth bar last Sunday, bound for Afognak, Alaska. Messrs. Stokes and Gilstrap took a large number, among them being twelve boys, who will have a chance this summer to grow up with the country. News is expected of the Margeret about the 10th of May.

The Astoria Lawn Tennis club is the latest social organization. The members have elected Will A. Sherman, President; Eben G. Rogers, secretary and treasurer. The club has leased the lot of Mrs. Boelling in the rear of the opera house, and will meet again this evening to perfect the organization.

Net floats are reported scarce, something unusual, as they have been, for several years, a drug in the market. But few were furnished last season, and the demand both on the river and in Alaska this year has made them more called for. Wilson & Fisher and Morgan & Sherman have them for sale.

Since Thursday last there has been a constant arrival of nun buoys and can buoys and spar buoys and bell buoys and whistling buoys and the making of other kinds of buoys and it looks as if there was enough here now to fix, define, designate and locate every mile of channel in the river or the bay.

Arthur Brock has just finished a very fine model of a two masted schooner called the Maud Spedden; on looking into the cabin can be seen the red plush carpet and also three or four bunks for the crew. It is quite an ingenious piece of work and a credit to the builder. The model can be seen at Capt. J. G. Hustler's office.

Sunday evening about 9:30 a large meteor about the size of a full moon started from the heavens apparently over the region of Saddle mountain and travelled across the Columbia river falling in the hills back of the Knappton mills. During the course of the meteor it was as light as day. The time taken to travel the distance was a little over a minute.

According to reports, A. N. Hamilton, sheriff of Union county, has been appointed U. S. marshal of this state. All right; anyone but Foghorn Watts, who told the listening senate at Salem that any sea captain could tell his barometer when he had got to the mouth of the Columbia river. Such a blooming idiot should be given nothing but cold soap.

For a town possessing the facilities for furnishing salmon that Astoria does, there was a noticeable absence of that luxury in these here parts yesterday. The packers usually catch all they can, but from the looks of things it would seem they intend to catch all they can. Probably it is more profitable to can it or sell it to the cannery than to retail.

A good deal of valuable waterfront property has changed hands this season. The latest noted is the I. X. L. cannery property which was bought by the Clatsop Mill company last Saturday for $6,000. It is 100 feet front, and about 2,200 feet deep. Some day, and that before long, all this waterfront, now being picked up by real estate investors will be worth ten times the present figures at which it is going.

The Manzanita was coaling at the bankers yesterday, and as soon as she gets a good ready goes over to Esquimault, B. C., to go on the dry dock there. It looks singular to have to go to British dominions for the accommodation. About every six months THE ASTORIAN publishes a few facts and figures calling attention to the necessity and financial benefit and profitable result of having a dry dock here.

Judge Page yesterday received about as ornamental and useful piece of office furniture as has come under the reporter's observation for some time. It is of massive oak, and has the usual rolling top, which on being turned back shows a neat writing desk. But on turning this over a large fine type writer comes up, ready for business. The whole thing is complete and upon learning that it costs only $20, the reporter concluded he would have a couple of 'em forthwith.

The following order has been issued by the postmaster general, and is no harm to know: Any postal card, or envelope, or any outside cover, or any other matter upon which appears anything which reflects injuriously upon the person addressed or upon his conduct, or is plainly calculated or intended to injure the feelings or reputation, or which threatens him is unmailable. It is allowable for a person to send a bill or a request to call and settle, but anything further is liable to result in heavy fine.

At a meeting last Sunday of the teachers of the Presbyterian Sabbath school the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, C. A. Hansen; assistant superintendent, J. T. Ross; secretary, C. C. Brower; treasurer and librarian, John Bryner; choirster, H. C. Thompson; organist, Mrs. Fannella. A resolution was passed expressive of the teachers' appreciation of the faithful and efficient services of Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Fannella in their respective positions during the year just closed.

There was a pretty picture on the river at 5:30 last evening. The wind was blowing fresh from the northwest, the water was an ashen gray, with broad stripes of green; beyond the Brookfield hills hung a heavy bank of somber cloud; a hundred boats were rounding Tongue Point as a broad beam of level sunlight lit up the Point and its craggy heights, shining brightly on the glancing sails of the fisher fleet, and the sparkling water that changed to blue and rippling gold as the sun and shadow raced along the waves.

A Live Institution. Messrs. Fry and Aldrich, representing the Interstate Building and Loan Association are in the city to organize a local board. This association refers to Bradstreet & Dun, has a working capital of $7,500,000, and offers extraordinary inducements to those contemplating investment in any building and loan association. An economical man who wants to own his home, be his own lord, and get the means to do it with, can, by paying $7.50 a month or an expenditure of $250, get stock that at maturity will net him $1,000, a clear gain of $450.

Weinhard's Beer. And Free Lunch at the Telephone Saloon, 5 cents. Go to Jeff's for Oysters.

PERSONAL MENTION.

E. A. Seeley was in the city yesterday. C. P. Upshur is in Portland on business. J. Q. A. Bowlby has returned from the sound. W. W. Ward of Ilwaco was in the city yesterday. S. Arndt left last evening for a short visit to Portland. S. B. Hegardt and wife, of Fort Stevens, are in the city. W. Hewetson, of the Ilwaco hotel, was in the city yesterday. Tom Linville went to Oregon City last night to file on a timber claim. Sergeant Brodie has resigned as government store keeper at Fort Stevens.

Geo. Harmon has returned from Knappa, and has taken up his abode in this city. John Bergman is going east to buy a steel hull for a steamer to run on the Siuslaw river. Capt. Henry Kindred is again on deck almost entirely recovered from his recent injuries. Mrs. J. E. Higgins and family left last evening on a visit to friends and relatives in Nova Scotia.

Joe Puschower, of the New York Novelty store, leaves to-day on a six weeks' visit to San Francisco. Mrs. F. H. Surprenant and Miss Jessie Jewett returned from a week's visit to Point Adams yesterday. Mr. H. A. Peeples, formerly superintendent of the Squemokawa mills, leaves this morning to take charge of Geo. W. Hume's mill on the Lewis and Clark.

C. B. Allen was brought up sick from Fort Canby yesterday, and taken to the residence of his brother A. G. Allen. The physician in attendance says it is scarlet fever. A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life. It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery Free at J. W. Conn's Drugstore.

Collection of County Taxes. Sheriff Smith gave every one fair warning and even extended the time from last Saturday, receiving taxes till four o'clock yesterday afternoon. Those who pay now will have to add 3 per cent. The amount of the tax roll was $54,243.79. To date Sheriff Smith has collected in county orders or warrants, $5,537.37, and in cash, $36,017.54, a total of $41,554.91, leaving delinquent $12,688.88. As the double assessment, and errors, will be about $2,500 or $3,000, it appears that the delinquent roll will be in the neighborhood of $10,000.

How Men Die. If we know all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are the better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when surrender becomes inevitable. In many instances the inherent strength of the body suffices to enable it to oppose the tendency toward death. Many however have lost these forces to such an extent that there is little or no help. In other cases a little aid to the weakened lungs will make all the difference between sudden death and many years of useful life. Upon the first symptoms of a Cough, Cold or any trouble of the Throat or Lungs, give that old and wellknown remedy—Boschee's German Syrup, a careful trial. It will prove what thousands say of it to be, the "benefactor of any home."

Strike at The Clatsop Mill. There was a strike of the employees of the Clatsop Mill yesterday morning; the men demanding that they be only required to work ten hours a day instead of eleven hours a day as heretofore. A paper conceding the reduction, was presented to Mr. W. S. Kinney, the proprietor, to sign; he did not say positively he would not sign it, but declined to sign it just then. The men in the box factory all struck, and it is thought will not return to work. Some of the others struck, but it is believed that enough will be on hand this morning to run one saw.

Those who desired were paid off yesterday. The difference of opinion is not as to wages, but the hours, and the proprietors decline to change the number of hours under compulsion. THE LADIES DELIGHTED. The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Fell off The Roadway. Last Saturday evening Wm. Scully was driving Parker & Hanson's delivery wagon on the ancient and honorable roadway and when about opposite site N. E. Weber's, horse, wagon and driver, left the roadway and tumbled to the river shore below. Scully struck first, and the wagon fell on top of him; the horse fell on his back with all four feet sticking up in the chill night air. Assistance was procured, and beyond having a severe cut on the back of his head, a bump on his forehead, a strain in his back, both knees hurt and a bad shaking up generally, Scully was uninjured. The wagon top was badly smashed. The horse was unhurt, but apparently surprised.
