The register of the land office has "I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weath-er, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by received a copy of the new act of congress, approved March 2, 1889, affecting settlers on public lands. It is as follows: Be it enacted, etc., SECTION 1. That from and after the passage of this act no public lands of the United States, except those in the state of Missouri, shall be difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Boune, La. public lands of the United states, except those in the state of Missouri, shall be subject to private entry.

Sec. 2. That any person who has not heretofore perfected title to the tract of land of which he has made entry under the homestead law may make a homestead entry of not exceeding one quarter section of public land subject to such entry, such previous filing or entry to the contrary notwithstanding; but this right shall not apply to persons who perfect title to lands under the pre-emption or homestead laws already initiated; provided, that all pre-emption settlers upon the public lands whose claims have been initiated prior to the passage of this act may change such entries to homestead entries and proceed to perfect their titles to their respective claims under the homestead law, notwithstanding they may have heretofore had the benefit of such law, but such settlers who perfect title to such claims under the homestead law shall not thereafter be entitled to enter other lends under the pre-emption. I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fall. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults." — Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa. "Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cover was effected. I helicar that Ayer's law shall not thereafter be entitled to enter other lands under the pre-emption or homestead laws of the United States. Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ili.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my hed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."

— Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill. Sec. 3. That whenever it shall b made to appear to the register and receiv-er of any public land office, under such regulations as the secretary of the interor may prescribe, that any settler upon the public domain under existing law is unable by reason of a total or partial destruction or failure of crops, sickness, or other unavoidable casualty, to secure a support for himself, herself, or those dependent upon him or her upon the lands settled upon, then such register and receiver may grant to such settler a leave of absence from the claim upon which he or she has filed for a period not exceeding one year at any one time, and such settler so granted leave of absence shall ferfail to gights by reason of such shall forfeit no rights by reason of such absence, provided that the time of such actual absence shall not be deducted rom the actual residence required by

COST OF CLEARING.

Figures Which Apply Also to Clatsop County.

Lands in this county can be cleared at figures which make them good values, when once prepared for the plow. A well known farmer near Chehalis, whose land was thickly covered with ash, alder, maple, cot tonwood and underbrush, says his clearing cost about $50 per acre, and that the profits made from the first and second years' crops paid the bills. Clearing fir or other heavy timber costs more, and in some cases would cost $75 or even $100 per acre if the work was all hired. 'The timber on such lands will often sell for more than the larger amount, so that in the end it is not a costly clearing. What is known as brush land and river bottom and swale lands are cleared for from $10 to $50 per acre. Of course prairie farms or land ready cleared can always be purchased, and now at reasonable figures. Larger farms are not needed here as in many colder and less productive countries The farmer is not obliged to labor six months in the year to raise feed for his stock the other six. Then the yield is so large and the prices so good that the products of a few acres make a larger income than a hundred in many of the prairie states. The farmer who has twenty acres cleared can make a good living for his family; he who has fifty acres has a source of revenue from which the store for the "rainy day" can be laid by (if it ever comes); while the hundred acre farmer has indeed a mine of wealth. A favorite way is to clear up an acre or two for garden, then slash and burn as rapidly as con-venient, seed down grass behind the fire, and then the rancher has pasture which will keep more head of stock to the acre than he ever dreamed of in other lands. In time the fallen stumps will decay and can be easily knocked down and larger
