Best of All

Enough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or an expectorated inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy.

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Wauegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pain in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

POSTAGE STAMP SECRETS.

Love's Silent Signs That He Who Runs May Read.

A man from Payallup rushed up to a Times reporter to-day and said: "Say, what's the postoffice?"

The reporter obliged him.

"Say, my gal has pasted a stamp upside down."

The countryman's eyes dilated. He drew his five feet eight inches and nearly as he could to eight feet five. In a voice choked with bad Bourbon and emotion he continued:

"Suse has gone back on me."

The Times reporter took the Payallup man aside and asked him to give the world the full and complete story of his woes.

"Well, you see," he said, "me and Suse has been hangin' together for a long time. I know her nigh on to thirteen years. She wrote me a letter, sayin' she would never desert me, but the stamp was upside down. Have you any idea what that means, young man?"

The reporter confessed his ignorance.

"It means she hates me. You know, for certain, that any gal that thinks right of a man pastes on the envelope."

The reporter was rapidly becoming dazed by this startling manner of showing one's affection, but finally elicited the fact that the flirtation books had not been completed heretofore, and that the language of postage stamps formed an important factor in linking two tender hearts together.

First of all, the blue one cent stamp signifies affection. When a youth receives a letter with a half a dozen blue stamps on the envelope he can go to bed at night with no fear of palpitation of the heart, for his fair one is desperately in love with him. The two cent stamp is the emblem of hatred, and was to the swain who receives them on his mail.

A stamp passed straight up and down and exactly in the upper right hand corner means "I love you."

If stuck in the same place upside down means "I hate you."

If in the lower right hand corner, "Meet me to-night."

If upside down in the same place, "I cannot meet you to-night."

If in the upper left-hand corner, "Please call soon."

If inverted, "You need not call."

If in the lower left hand corner, "I will trust you."

If inverted, "I place no confidence in you."

If placed sideways on top of the letter, "I will be true to you."

If inverted, "I love someone else better."

The reporter talked to a letter carrier on this hitherto unexplained subject. The carrier, a handsome blond, said he was in danger of being hugged to death by the fair ones on his beat if he delivered stamps properly affixed. On the contrary, if the message was not to the liking of the young lady, he had "grip" to avoid a thunderstorm.—Seattle Times.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THE EDITOR'S TABLE.

There's a little box of pills, there's a heap of lengthy bills,
There's a caustic letter from a country reader,
There's a ticket for a call, there's another for a ball,
There's a circular about a patent feeder,
There's a proof of highly colored lithography;
There's a scenery ace, there's a photo of her face,
There are articles to start the angels laughing,
There's a pretty chiming clock, there's some wild cat mining stock,
There are stacks of verse in every sort of meter,
There's a cotton office hat, there's a badly ragged one,
There's a pipe-bowl than which nothing could be sweeter,
There's a gaily ribboned oork, there's a map of all New York,
There's a guide to Palestine and one to Russia,
There's the latest opera score, there's No. nalem iron ore,
There are relics of a Clatsop county trapper,
There are pots of ink and glue, there are letters old and new,
There are piles of old exchanges and of paper,
There's a narrow pair of shears, and a midnight lunch that cheers,
There's a double-backed-and-pointed paper scraper,
There's a partly smoked cigar, there's an ornamented jar,
There's the circulation sweaver's weekly fable,
O, the lot will tickle you, if you ever catch a view
Of the daily midnight racket on this table.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 N. 3rd St., N. Y.
D. W. CROWELEY & Co., Agents, Portland, Oregon.

FOR SPRING AND SUMMER

I am receiving direct from the factories the best values and most handsome designs in Men's imported, all wool Scotch Cheviot Suits; also in Navy Blue Flannels and Yacht Cloths, besides BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, MEN'S FINE PANTS and light weight OVERCOATS. In Soft, Felt and Stiff HATS, direct from the best manufacturers, I have obtained the latest styles and shapes, which I sell at close a margin as can be sold, as well as any line of goods that I carry, for I do not believe in bunkum in business, such as resorting to any faking scheme as is often used by advertising a stock as bankrupt goods; an underwriter's sale; or account of removal or repairs, and selling off at cost to make room for new goods, etc., when it is merely done to force goods. The only true and honest way for merchants is to charge an honest and fair per cent. Mark his goods in plain figures, and give to each and every customer alike the same goods for the same amount of money. "One person's money is as good as another's."

Trunks, Valises, Blankets, Quilts, and a full line of Furnishing Goods.

A child buys as cheaply as the most experienced buyer.
