

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY APRIL 21, 1899.

OUR PORTLAND LETTER.

Mrs. Ben Holladay's Will Probated.

Jan. Drenthard Pleads Not Guilty.

PORTLAND, April 20.—This morning at eight o'clock Gus Bentin, a longshoreman working on the steamer Michigan which was discharging her cargo at the dock between Oak and Pine streets was knocked down on an open hatchway by a bale of goods which was being hoisted up from the hold by steam power. He was picked up in a dazed condition and carried upon the deck where a physician was summoned. Dr. Keyes made a superficial examination of the man's injuries, which he found to consist of a very painful contusion over the right eye and a very severe sprain of the right shoulder. The man fell clear to the bottom of the vessel and struck squarely upon his head and shoulders. Except for the fact that he is a young giant in strength Bentin would most certainly have been killed by the force of the blow. By the physician's order the injured man was removed to the Good Samaritan hospital where his wounds were dressed and another examination made. It is thought that no bones are broken but it is feared that concussion of the brain may have been sustained.

THE HOLLADAY ESTATE. Late yesterday afternoon the will of Mrs. Ben Holladay was admitted to probate in the county court and at 4 o'clock this afternoon General Rufus Ingalls was to have qualified as executor. The hearing of petitions for the guardianship of Linda and Ben Holladay will come up before Judge Catlin Tuesday morning.

CHEE GONG'S CASE. This afternoon counsel for Chee Gong, the Chinese murderer sentenced to be strung up on the 17th of May, finished his bill of exceptions, after many delays, and it will be presented to Judge Stearns on Monday morning next. Chee Gong has twice been sentenced to death and it seems that an appeal to the supreme court will not bear much good fruit for the condemned man.

TO EQUALIZE MATTERS. At 12 o'clock to-night, twelve tellers who began their labors on Monday last, tallying traffic over the Morrison street bridge and Stark street ferry will have completed their task, and next week the county commissioners will figure on the rate of toll that shall be just between the corporations and the people of East Portland.

A PLEA OF NOT GUILTY. In the United States district court this morning John Ely and Co. are indicted for murdering Pedro Riberos, on the high seas on board the steamship Corona, was arraigned to plead. He entered a plea of not guilty, and was taken back to the murderers' cell in the county jail.

A RAY OF HOPE. As To The "Danmark's" Passengers. General Boulanger Will Leave Belgium.

BRUSSELS, April 20.—Boulanger has decided to leave for London on Wednesday.

A POSSIBLE CHANCE. NEW YORK, April 20.—A representative of T. H. Ely & Co., and this morning that the Minnesota had picked up one of the Danmark's boats and it is surmised that the passengers had been rescued. The boat, he said, where would the hosts be? It is a natural question. If they perished, the dead bodies would remain in the boat, for it is not probable that they would jump overboard as long as it contained afloat.

BROKEN CIGAR BOXES indicated that occupants had placed their valuables in them when leaving the ship and when they were being rescued had broken up the boxes in their hurry. If the passengers had been rescued and brought to the Azores we will hear from them by the end of the week.

A TOUGH EXPERIENCE. PURCELL, I. T., April 20.—Many Oklahoma settlers are particularly without money to buy tools and every day men, women and children are found begging in the streets. All they have left is their weapons. They have held on to those through all adversities. They believe that six-shooters will improve more Oklahoma soil than a plow for a month or two to come. A large majority of the men here belong to the original Payne boomers. Nine out of every ten of them have not only located their claims, but have poled and staked them off. They believe now these claims belong to them, and when the time comes they will fight for them.

THE MONKEY DIED. PARIS, April 19.—The princess of Sagan, a noted leader of fashion, was recently bitten by a pet monkey which has since died from hydrophobia. She is going under the care of Pasteur.

MERIT WINS. We desire to say to our citizens, that we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund their purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

One of the Drs. Darrin of Portland has Arrived in Astoria and has Opened Offices in Occident Hotel.

THEY MAKE A GENEROUS OFFER. Through the earnest solicitation and efforts of patients and others in this vicinity, Dr. Darrin has been prevailed upon to visit Astoria. One of the Doctors has now arrived and has opened offices at the Occident Hotel where he will remain until further notice. They come to us laden with testimonials, a few of which we will present to our readers. They make a generous offer of treating the poor, free of charge, from 9 to 10 daily until further notice. Consultation and Examination at all times free. Read the following testimonials to be convinced of their wonderful skill.

A PROMINENT LADY OF CORVALLIS RECITES HER EXPERIENCE WITH DR. DARRIN. Dr. Darrin—Dear Sir—I wish to express my gratitude to you for the wonderful results your electric system of cure has done in my case. Two years ago I was stricken down with apoplexy. Numbness and great pain in my head and neck followed for a long time. Other afflictions came thick and fast—head chills, fever and stomach derangements, causing vomiting for weeks. In short my whole system was thoroughly permeated with malarial poison, and continued so until last October, when I had a second stroke of paralysis. Hearing of you I put myself under your care, and now after three months treatment, I rejoice to tell you I am restored to health, and can be referred to at Corvallis, Oregon. If this will be of service to you, publish it. Mrs. N. P. BRIGGS.

A LOATHSOME CATARRH CURED. Dr. Darrin, Dear Sir—I came to you for treatment for a disagreeable case of catarrh of seven years standing. My head and throat was thoroughly diseased, and it had deranged my stomach and bronchial tubes to that degree that I was partially incapacitated to do my work. Many things in the way of patent medicines I had tried to no avail. You cured me in two months with home treatment, and I now so restored that I hear the watch tick and general conversation. Can be referred to at Salem, Or. E. ANDERSON.

CASE OF DEAFNESS CURED. Ed. Statesman—Dear Sir—I have been very deaf for over ten years—so I could not hear a watch tick. I called on the Dr. Darrin at the Chumeketo hotel, Salem, Oregon, and have taken his electro magnetic treatments, and I am now so restored that I hear the watch tick and general conversation. Can be referred to at Salem, Or. D. W. EMMETT.

COULD NOT RAISE FROM HIS CHAIR. Dr. Darrin Sir—I am one of the lucky ones cured by you of a pain in my back of four years' standing. At times I could not move or raise from my chair. Can be seen at Seaton, W. T. A. JACKSON.

POLYPUS CURED BY ELECTRICITY. A Card—For more than fifteen years I have been afflicted with abnormal growth—or polypus on the nose. Had tried various remedies, all to no purpose until coming under Dr. Darrin's treatment by electricity. He has cured me and I am supremely happy. I am employed at the National Hotel, Front Street, Portland, and will be glad to answer any questions, personally or by letter. J. MOORE.

A SWEDISH LADY'S EXPERIENCE. Editor Oregonian—One year ago the 6th of October, I came from Pendleton, Oregon, to consult Dr. Darrin for female trouble of ten years' standing, also rheumatism and neuralgia. I was cured with electricity and medicines, by Dr. Darrin, in two months, with home treatments, and now living at the Merchant's Hotel, Portland, and will gladly give my experience with the doctors. Mrs. CHRISTINA MANAGER.

SHE WOULD NOT TAKE $1,000. To the Public—Six months ago I published a card giving in detail the marvelous cure Dr. Darrin performed on me by his new electrical treatment, my trouble being a complication of ailments, such as nervous and general debility, heart disease, dyspepsia, liver complaint, and indigestion, and many other various female troubles in all their complications, which I will gladly describe to any one calling on me, or by letter, at 261 Eighteenth Street, Portland. All the above afflictions are perfectly and permanently cured. I never felt so well in my life. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Darrin. I would not take $1,000 and be placed back where I was before treatment. Mrs. F. E. DEWEY.

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE. Editor Oregonian—I wish to express my sentiments regarding Drs. Darrin. I have been afflicted with liver complaint, dyspepsia and malaria. Through their electric and medical treatment I am cured. Reside at the Metropolitan hotel, First street, Portland. E. McMILLAN.

DOCTORS' TERMS OF TREATMENT. Drs. Darrin can be consulted free at the Occident hotel, Astoria, Oregon, and will under no circumstances take a case they cannot cure or benefit. Consultation free. Charges reasonable. The patients treated free from 9 to 10 a. m. daily. Office hours from 10 to 4 daily, evenings 7 to 8; Sunday, 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases—loss of manhood, blood taint, syphilis, gleet, gonorrhoea, stricture, spermatorrhoea, seminal weakness or loss of desire of sexual power in man or woman, catarrh or deafness are confidentially and successfully treated. A VERY RICH MAN.

But Would You Trade Places With Him?

A correspondent of the East Oregonian has the following interesting description of Mr. W. S. Ladd: Speaking of Ladd, reminds me of passing that gentleman's residence the other evening just as the old man was entering. His carriage halted in the rear of his residence. A body servant, who sits beside the driver, alighted, assisted his charge to the ground and placed a pair of crutches under his arms. Slowly the old cripple dragged himself around to the front steps of his mansion. Every move seemed to cause him pain. His face gave unmistakable signs of suffering. When he finally reached the foot of the steps leading to the front doors, the servant brought him a wooden frame resembling a contrivance sometimes used to teach babies to walk. This was put over his head and the ascent was made by placing the frame on the steps and crawling up while his body was supported by the arms, the frame being raised as each step was reached. When at the top his crutches were again handed to him, the great double doors swung upon their hinges, and the old millionaire disappeared. I stood there in front of that beautiful place and commenced to think and "say to myself, says I." "That man is worth millions of money and I am a poor sot-of-a-work. There's my faithful, hard-working little wife at home, toasting herself over the kitchen stove preparing our frugal dinner; there are three chubby little urchins with her and we are all poor. For their sakes, how I would like to be rich. How I would dress them, how I would feed them, how happy I would make them!" Then I thought in another direction and I says to myself: "Well, Mr. Ladd, you may have your great houses and servants and carriages; you may have your great acres and herds; you may have your notes and mortgages and stocks and bonds; you may have your tons of gold and silver. I'd rather be myself just as I am, sound of mind and body and limb, with six bits in my pockets, than to have all your vast wealth and be compelled to take with it your poor old, paralyzed, worthless legs." This man is at his private desk in the back of his bank—Ladd & Tilton's bank belongs to W. S. Ladd; there is no Tilton connected with it now—from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M.
