Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustre and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be Abundant and Glossy, but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."—R. T. Schmitt, Dickinson, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill.

SOCIETY ITEMS.

Mrs. John Snaggendosh, nee Miss Pussie Spottle, has sold enough of her wedding presents to purchase a pleasure skiff for Ilwaco next summer.

Club life is on the increase, and Messrs. Chromo & Co. can hardly furnish fast enough their illuminated mottoes "God Bless Our Home," which are on sale at the various private card rooms, and go off among the members like hot cakes.

Among the blue bloods little is talked of besides the bull given by Mrs. Pewter Poringger, for bringing out her daughter, Miss Marie Kate Sallie Emille. All agree that the coming out dress was a poem in dry goods, and a perfect success. Sleeveless and out décolleté front and back, the fair debutante came out a great deal.

Miss Falletta Mandolin, a cousin-in-law of the well-known street violinist, has returned from Washington, where she was constantly taken for Mrs. Harrison, and at Monday's grand banjo musicale wore a bewitching costume of green alpaca and diamonds—the ten of diamonds on her corsage and the jack and ace as epaulettes.

Mrs. Shoddington Browbeat, nee Phulkins, who made a new year's gift of one thousand dollars ($1000) to the Penitent Females' Refuge, is receiving the congratulations of her five hundred (500) friends on having secured the faithful services of Olga Olafsen during spring cleaning at 20 cents an hour, when almost every lady is obliged to pay 25, at least, for ordinary help.

Gamaliel Weatherstraw, Esq., president of the Death-or-Divorce Clique, was last night presented with an elegant punchbowl filled to the brim, as a token of the esteem and sympathy of his brother officers with reference to the pending suit brought by Mrs. Weatherstraw. Though taken entirely by surprise, the gentleman drew from his pocket some type-written pages and made a ringing and witty speech, in which he said no body liked diptheria and divorce any better after they had struck his own family; and that the lady he had been reported walking with, was only his wife's niece who was too timid to go home after dark. He was vigorously applauded.

A Country of Small Things.
Japan, says Mr. Frank G. Carpenter, is a country of the little. "The men here are from five feet to five feet five inches high, and the women are smaller. Notwithstanding the fact that they raise themselves three inches off the ground on their wooden sandals, I am continually looking down at them, and a fair sized American girl towers above them like an Amazon. Japanese trees are dwarfed and, in fact, all nature seems to be made on the six by nine plan. The chickens are nearly all bantams, and the cats, with their bobtails, look like kittens compared with our American tomcats, and the horses are ponies. The houses of the common people are but one story, and the rooms like children's play houses. The country, though as big as several states, is full of picturesque scenery, but it is the pretty rather than the grand, and you have beautiful bits rather than sublime landscapes. It is the same with everything. If I ask for a cup of tea at a little wayside tea house, it is handed to me in a little piece of a shell-like china, no bigger than an egg-cup, and the little Japanese beauty goes down on her knees when she brings it."

It is reported that Louis Kosuth, the famous Hungarian patriot, who has resided at Turin for many years, is in a precarious condition of health, and his death is momentarily expected.

Do not wait until to-morrow, when you feel sick, but take immediately a dose of Plunder's Oregon Blood Purifier and prevent a serious attack of sickness. It is the best liver regulator and blood cleanser in existence. Try it.

The Mexicans prove that they do not deserve the nickname of "Greasers," by refusing to eat American pork.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

Idaho is developing into the great lead district of the country.

For dyspepsia or stomach derangements, no other remedy can be found so pleasant, prompt, and effective as Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

White ink is the last craze. It is used usually upon grayish paper.

Leading medical authorities endorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood medicine.

Gas wells are being struck along the Rocky Mountain slope.

Peaks is the purest and best Soap ever made.

A Silver Wagon Road.

"You may talk about nickel-plated railroads," said vice-president L. T. Stanley, of Walnut street, "but what do you think of a solid silver wagon road? The Horseshoe mine, in Colorado, has one, although when it was built they didn't think it would pan out that way. They had to have a road from their mine; a distance of three miles, over which heavy loads were to be drawn. They took the rock that had been taken from the shafts they were sinking, and which lay around in the way, and macadamized the road all the way through. The wagons passing over the road ground the rock down. One day they had a heavy rain storm, and when things got dry again after the rain, the wind blew the dust off the road and all through the road bed, every which way, they could see big streaks of silver. Well, maybe they didn't collar on to the rest of that loose rock that lay around those shafts! They sent away a lot of it to be assayed, and when the report came back they found that their road bed was worth $200 a ton. It was a little expensive to drive over, but they had to have the road and I suppose they've got it yet, if their mines have held out."

Louis Beer drank something stronger than beer, wrote a letter telling his wife to take his property and go to school, and then drowned himself in E. W. Jones' reservoir at Los Angeles last Saturday. He was a Swiss, 50 years old.

To Dislodge the Enemy.
When it takes the form of disease of the kidneys or bladder, is a task well nigh impossible of accomplishment. Renal and vesical maladies are more obstinate than any others. Counteract, therefore, the earliest indications of inactivity of the many organs with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which possesses, among other excellent qualities, those of an efficient diuretic. The degree of stimulation apparent from its use reaches, but never goes beyond, the bounds of safety. It invigorates always, never irritates. Bright's disease, diabetes, catarrh of the bladder, are diseases successfully combated in their incipency with this benign medical stimulant and tonic. Besides reinforcing and regulating the kidneys and bladder, the Bitters is a specific for liver and ague, constipation and dyspepsia.

Bradstreet estimates that the increase in population which will be shown by the census of 1890 will be thirty per cent. This will, in round numbers, give the country at that time a population of sixty-five millions.

Before the wedding day a girl generally overrates the man she is to marry, but she more than makes up for her misjudgment afterward.—Somerville Journal.

Opinion of a Leading Editor.
Almost all the diseases that afflict us from infancy to old age have their origin in a disordered liver. A real liver medicine is the most important in the whole range of pharmacy. We believe Simmons' Liver Regulator to be the best among them all. We pin our faith upon the Regulator, and if we could persuade every reader who is in ill health to buy it, we would willingly vouch for the benefit each would receive.—Ed. CINCINNATI GAZETTE.

More than one hundred thousand Italians have landed at the port of New York during the last eighteen months.

This country received 221,000 Germans in 1881 and 99,000 in 1888.

NOTHING LIKE IT!
Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset, or if they are advanced will prove a potent cure.

No Home should be Without It.
It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headaches, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colds. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest aperient and tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would so effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."
L. M. HIGGINS, M. D., Washington, Ark.

CASH. GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES. ONE PRICE. SPRING, 1889.

Yes, gentle spring again is here: The grass is green that once was sere; The merry robin "rips" with glee; The merry urchin grins to see The costliest dude that calmly gives Buff chest-protectors on his shoes.

If these shivering and brainless tips Would wear one of my Patent Chest-Shield Shirts, They would not shake so when upon the street, And wear buff chest-protectors on their feet. They would wear one of my Fur Felt Hats over their brains, And wear my Spring Overcoats and laugh while it rains.

To hear some of the merchants call the fishermen fine fellows, When they wear Oil Clothing instead of Umbrellas, To shake them by the hands, call everyone boss, And tell them they sell everything less than first cost.

But wait until the salmon all sleep in their cans, Then the fishermen's money is the same as another man's. Is it a wonder that a dude laughs to hear the story How the merchants now days have to work for vain glory? It is enough to make them all laugh, and others too; But it simply reminds me of a story I'll relate now to you, Of a fisherman whose pole was made of a peacock's feather, And whose line was made of the finest of leather; And who baited his hook with a nibble of cheese, And sat on a town lot and bobbed for fleas. MORAL.

While in this world we all have to fish, or either cut bait, Anxious we need anything whatever, it is cheaper to buy it.
