FEWER SAVED THAN SUPPOSED.

One of the Alaskan's Boats Still Missing.

PORTLAND, May 22.—Work is to be begun on the new theater at once. Col. Wood, the theatrical architect, arrived in the city this morning.

The O. R. & N. Co. has not yet fully decided as to what boat to put on the Ilwaco route. The inspectors say a stern wheeler will not be allowed on account of the rough water at the lower end of the route.

C. F. Mayhew, aged 68 years, has been missing two days and his family fear suicide.

SOME MORE SURVIVORS.

Louis O'Brien arrived in the city this morning in charge of the survivors of the Alaskan, who landed with Edward Warde in the life boat, No. 3, on Cape Perpetua Wednesday morning.

Owing to various telegraphic dispatches which have been received here concerning the alleged landing of a second boat at Cape Perpetua, the public had been led into believing that a greater number of the Alaskan people were saved than in reality reached the shore.

Mr. O'Brien said: "I left Florence yesterday morning with a party of ten men and reached Yaquina at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The dispatch received in Portland was calculated to mislead many who read it, as it was thought ours was another crowd than the one it was. There has been but one boat saved and the supposition is, of course, that all others have perished."

"I am a messenger sent out by the O. R. & N. Co., and I found the men at Florence in sad condition. The people there were very kind though in assisting me to make them comfortable. They had lost their shoes and clothing, but I soon got them re-outfitted in good clothes."

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The county court met yesterday morning. In the matter of C. O. Robbins' estate petition presented and allowed.

The road from Olney to Greenville was discussed. Wm. Chance, N. D. Raymond and J. F. Bender were appointed commissioners.

The court appointed W. H. Kennedy, Emil Adler and J. W. Babbidge commissioners to determine matter of bridge for railroad across Young's bay. Adjourned sine die.

A LUCKY TRIAL.

The Good Fortune Which Followed

It affords me great pleasure to send to you this voluntary statement of my experience in testing the merits of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. For the past five years I have been troubled with an exceedingly sluggish liver, including loss of appetite and distress after eating, pains in the back and kidneys, and boils around my neck and face. I tried many liver remedies, only getting temporary relief. I was recommended to try a bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla as a test, and while taking the first bottle I became convinced of its merits, for I could feel that it was working a change in me. I took five bottles, and during that time my troubles left me. Everything is working full and regular, in fact it has cleansed, purified and braced me up generally. You are at liberty to use this as you see fit, or can refer whom you please.
