Constipation

Demands prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They are an admirable Liver and After-dinner pill, and every where endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. J. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leitchville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an for constipation and indigestion, and are never without them in the house."—Moses Grenier, Lowell, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Pills, for liver troubles and indigestion, during many years, and have always found them prompt and efficient in their action."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 90 Middle St., Hartford, Conn.

"Having been troubled with constiveness, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say that they have served me better than any other medicine. I arrive at this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel T. Jones, Oak St., Boston, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 90 Middle St., Hartford, Conn.

NORWEGIAN BREAD.

Potatoes and Rye Mixed Together and Baked in Thin Cakes.

Bread-making was another industry which we had a good opportunity of seeing while we changed horses at one of the stations.

Contrary to our expectations, we found white bread everywhere, but the chief ingredient of which is rye. It is always sour; the good housewife intends it to be so. They always have "flat bread," made of potatoes and rye. It was this kind of bread that the two women whom we happened in upon were making. They were in a little underground room, unlighted except from the door. The walls were of stone and the floor was of earth. They were seated on either side of a long table, upon which were huge mounds of dough. The one nearest the door cut off a piece of this, and moulded it and rolled it out to a certain degree of thinness, then the other one took it, and with the greatest care rolled it still more.

At her right hand was the fire-place, and upon the coals was a red piece of iron forming a huge griddle more than half a yard across. The bread matched this very nearly in size when it was ready to be baked, and it was spread out and turned upon the griddle with great dexterity, and as soon as it was baked it was added to the great heap on the floor.

The woman said she would continue to bake bread for thirty days, and upon the coals was a red piece of iron forming a huge griddle more than half a yard across. The bread matched this very nearly in size when it was ready to be baked, and it was spread out and turned upon the griddle with great dexterity, and as soon as it was baked it was added to the great heap on the floor.

Wanted to Save the Tobacco.

Just below Natchez and at about 10 o'clock in the forenoon there was a wild shout of "man overboard," and the engineer at once got the signal to stop. Those of us sitting aft saw a black man struggling in the water a few feet astern, and as we rose up to throw him a life-preserver a second woolly head appeared beside him. Some one had jumped in to rescue him, and he did his work well. The first one was a poor swimmer and badly frightened, but the second had a powerful stroke and was evidently at home in the water. He seized and held the unfortunate up until they drifted down and a rope was thrown them. "By George!" exclaimed the colonel as they were pulled in, "but that fellow deserves a medal!" We rushed down to interview him, and as he leaned up against a pile of freight, wet, but not a bit exhausted, the colonel said: "My man, that was a brave act. Did you see him fall overboard?" "Why I did, I chased him over!" was the reply. "How?" "He dun stole my terbacker an' I was arter him. Dat's what I saved him far—didn't want to lose all dat plug."

Without loss of time when the intestinal canal is blocked up by reason of constipation, chronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this ailment is prone to become lasting and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the precise remedy to remove the obstructions effectually, but without creating or weakening the blood-stained bowels, a consequence always to be apprehended from the use of violent laxatives, which are among the most pernicious of the cheap nostrums swallowed by the credulous and misinformed. The flat of experience, and of the medical fraternity, sanction the claims of this standard aperient. Not only as a source of relief and permanent regularity to the bowels, liver and stomach, but as a means of removing and preventing kidney and bladder troubles, and fever and ague, it is without a peer.

Mrs. Montgomery of Middletown, Penn., whose chickens were troubled with vermin, was advised to burn brimstone in her henhouse, and the insects would disappear. She tried it, and the result exceeded her expectations, but the promptness of the firemen saved her dwelling.

Guarantee Acker's Blood Elixir for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other preparations for blood diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilis, poisoning, Ulcers, Eruptions and Pimples. It purifies the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A Russian naval officer has invented a method of searching the sea or coast by night, which does not reveal the position of the ship. A mortar fires a buoyant shell containing a compound which ignites on reaching the water and lights up the surrounding area.

A peculiar disease resembling malarial fever, is prevalent among horses in the vicinity of Indianapolis.

It is beyond question that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral heads the list of remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs.

Cannot go hand in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Spooning at the Gate—Paterfamilias—Clara, I see that the front gate is down this morning. Clara (slyly)—Yes, papa, you know love levels all things.

That taint of scrofula in your blood can be wholly eradicated by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Eastern men have bought the biggest brewery in Montana.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of Soothing Syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

James W. Davis, who was found dead in his field at Surry, Maine, stricken by lightning, the other day, was the originator of the famous Davis backboard, whose reputation is world-wide.

And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. A sample bottle is given you free and the Remedy guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

In clearing an old swamp at Pleasant Valley, Ind., recently, what appeared to be a stone book was uncovered. Close inspection showed it to be a family Bible, bearing the date 1773, plainly lettered. It is now solid limestone.

Blaine likes to poke fun at the printed accounts of the state of his health. When a friend asked him how he was feeling recently, he said: "Let me see; what newspaper did I read last?"

DYSPEPSIA.

It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspeptics of active mental power and a bilious temperament are subject to Sick Headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper.

Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain, The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time

Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—Wm. M. Kassar, Fort Valley, Ga.
