The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that sound health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and am greatly benefited."—Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.

"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health."—Miss Thirza L. Crear, Palmyra, Md.

"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved."—Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.

"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and nervousness resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies."—F. A. Pinkham, South Molunox, Me.

"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect."—Rev. S. J. Graham, United Brethren Church, Buckhannon, W. Va.

"I suffered from

Nervous Prostration,

with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 80 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Lucy Moffitt, Killingly, Conn.

Mrs. Ann H. Farnsworth, a lady 79 years old, So. Woodstock, Vt., writes: "After several weeks' suffering from nervous prostration, I procured a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken half of it my usual health returned."

JOHNSTOWN'S DREADFUL SCENES

The Unfortunate Victims of the Flood.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 2.—Johnstown is the most complete wreck that the imagination can portray. Probably 1,500 houses have been swept away from the face of the earth as completely as if they had never been erected. Main street from end to end is piled 15 to 20 feet high with debris and in some instances it is piled as high as the roofs of the houses. This great mass of wreckage fills the street from curb to curb and frequently has crushed the fronts of buildings in and filled the space with reminders of the terrible calamity.

From the wooden mill above the island to the bridge, a distance of probably two miles, a strip of territory nearly half a mile in width has been swept clean, not a stick of timber or one brick on top of another being left to tell the story. All day long men, women and children were plodding about the desolate wastes, trying in vain to locate the boundaries of their former homes. Nothing but a wide expanse of mud, ornamented here and there with heaps of drift wood, was remaining, however, for their contemplation.

These losses, however, are as nothing compared to the frightful sacrifice of precious human lives to be seen on every hand. During all this solemn Sunday Johnstown is being drenched with tears of stricken mortals, and the air is filled with sobs and sighs that come from breaking hearts. There are scenes noted here every hour and every minute that affect all beholders profoundly.

An utterly wretched woman named Mrs. Fenn stood by a muddy pool of water, trying to find some trace of a once happy home. She was half crazed with grief, and her eyes were red and swollen. As the writer stepped to her side she raised her pale and haggard face and remarked, "They are all gone. Oh, God be merciful to them. My husband and my seven dear little children have been swept down with the flood, and I am left alone. We were driven by the raging flood into the garret, but the inch it kept rising until our heads were crushed against the roof. It was death to remain, so I raised the window and placed my darlings on some driftwood, trusting to the great Creator. As I liberated the 'last one, my sweet little boy, he looked at me and said: 'Mamma, you, always told me that the Lord would care for me; will he look after me now? I saw him drift away, with his loving face turned toward me, and with a prayer on my lips for his deliverance he passed from my sight forever. The next moment the roof crashed in and I floated outside, to be rescued fifteen hours later near the roof of a house in Moravia. If I could only find one of my darlings I could bow to the will of God, but they are all gone. I have lost everything on earth now but my life.'"

A handsome woman walked through the depot where a dozen or more bodies were awaiting burial. Passing from one to another, she finally lifted a paper covering from the face of a woman, young and with traces of beauty, showing through the stains of muddy water. With a cry of anguish she reeled backward to be caught by a man who chanced to be passing. In a moment or so she had calmed herself sufficiently to take one more look at the features of her dead. She stood gazing at the unfortunate as if struck dumb. The dead woman was a sister of the mourner. The body was placed in a coffin a few minutes later and sent away to its narrow home.

These incidents are fair examples of scenes similar to every town in this stricken city. The loss of life is simply dreadful. The most conservative people declare that the number will reach 5,000.

An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure. Pfunder's Oregon Blood Purifier expels all impurities of the blood and should be used in all diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Take it.

A Change of Weapon.

Last winter I climbed Lookout mountain in company with a veteran of the late war, write's C. C. Teale to the Editor's Drawer of Harper's Magazine for June. It was his first visit since the day of the memorable assault, and as we climbed he fought the battle over again for my benefit. As the conflict waxed hotter he grew excited, and on our arrival at the hotel near the summit was at fever heat. We then passed on through the narrow defile which leads to the pinnacle, where we were confronted by a diminutive specimen of the genus "cracker," with these words: "If you gentlemen wish to go to the top you must pay 25 cents." This was too much for the pent-up feelings of my war-like companion, who, tragically waving his strong right arm, shouted, "I won't pay it. Twenty-five years ago I came up here with a sword in my hand." But the modern Leonidas, moving not otherwise than to show a deputy sheriff's badge, quietly remarked: "Well, sah, you must come up with a quarter to-day." The money was paid.

A man at Port Huron, Michigan, who has sold the city seventeen acres of land to be added to the cemetery, has inserted in the deed the curious provision that no liquors shall be sold on the premises.

Brooklyn's memorial arch is to be a memorial to the soldiers and sailors who perished in the Rebellion war. It is planned to have one that will cost at least $250,000.

It is beyond question that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral heads the list of remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs.

Under the influence of the success of an enterprise started by John Wannamaker, the state of Pennsylvania has just provided for the establishment of popular savings banks.

WE CAN AND DO

Guarantee Ayer's Blood Elixir for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other preparations for blood diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilitic poisoning, Ulcers, Eruptions and Pimples. It purifies the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The twin cities of the northwest are thinking it would be a graceful fellow to erect a monument to Longfellow at the falls of Minnehaha.

HAPPINESS AND CONTENTMENT

Cannot go hand in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Ayer's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The Washington Post declares, as with authority, that justice Miller has no thought or intention of retiring in December next, or at any other time yet designated.

An excellent remedy for headache from constipation and gastric derangement, as in fact it is for most of the troubles arising with the digestive organs, is Simmons' Liver Regulator. It is what the name indicates—a regulator of that most important organ, the liver. It is a vegetable preparation and a very valuable family medicine for the various ailments arising from derangement of the stomach or bowels. As a headache remedy few things equal it.

Sam Yip Jah, one of the Chinamen charged at Milwaukee with assaulting little children, was found guilty. The penalty is thirty-five years imprisonment.

Kansas City papers are groaning over "the insufferable nuisance" of the salvation army, and demand that it be suppressed.

DYSPEPSIA.

It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia is a general ailment, and a bilious temperament is subject to sick headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper. Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain,
The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time

Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—Wm. M. Kessir, Fort Valley, Ga.
