Rich and Poor,

Prince and Peasant, the Millionaire and Day Laborer, by their common use of this remedy, attest the world-wide reputation of Ayer's Pills. Leading physicians recommend these pills for Stomach and Liver Troubles, Constipation, Biliousness, and Sick Headache; also, for Rheumatism, Jaundice, and Neuralgia. They are sugar-coated; contain no calomel; are prompt, but mild, in operation; and, therefore, the very best medicine for Family Use, as well as for Travelers and Tourists.

Rheumatism

"I was unable to do any work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of these pills." Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.

"Ayer's Pills have been in use in my family upwards of twenty years and have completely verified all that is claimed for them. In attacks of piles, from which I suffered many years, they afford greater relief than any other medicine I ever tried."—T. F. Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for a number of years, and have never found anything equal to them for giving me an appetite and imparting energy and strength to the system. I always keep them in the house."—R. D. Jackson, Wilmington, Del.

"Two boxes of Ayer's Pills cured me of severe from which I was long a sufferer."—Emma Keyes, Hubbardston, Mass.

Headache,

"Whenever I am troubled with constipation, or suffer from loss of appetite, Ayer's Pills set me right again."—A. J. Kiser, Jr., Rock House, Va.

"Ayer's Pills are in general der. and among our customers. Our sales of them exceed those of all other pills combined. We have never known them fail to give entire satisfaction."—Wright & Hannelly, San Diego, Texas.

FORGOT HIS BRIDE.

An Anecdote About Thomas A. Edison's Queer Absent-Mindedness.

A correspondent writing for the New York Press says: I doubt if the story of Thomas A. Edison's first marriage has ever been told in print. As everybody knows, Edison is a very absent minded man when once he becomes thoroughly absorbed in a subject. He married his first wife after a very brief courtship.

Shortly after the nuptial knot had been tied Edison began thinking of some intricate mechanical or electrical problem. Without saying a word to his bride or the wedding guests he went into his laboratory and began work. The guests waited in vain for his return. Mrs. Edison knew her husband's eccentricities and accepted the situation philosophically.

She went to the bridal chamber and prepared to wait up for her better half. Finally, becoming very sleepy, she retired. When she awoke in the morning her husband was still absent.

Mr. Edison did not appear all that day or the following night. It was just forty-eight hours after the marriage had been performed that Mrs. Edison, becoming alarmed, decided upon going into her husband's workshop.

When she entered the room she saw the inventor lying on his workbench, sleeping peacefully. Of course she gave a little shriek, woman-like, you know, but the prostrate form with boots on and toes turned heavenward never budged.

Upon closer examination by Mrs. Edison, who had noted the regular breathing of her "hubbie," she discovered that his wedding clothes were covered with oils and chemicals. She then became real angry, and walking over to the bench where her husband lay, shook him roughly.

"Go away from me!" he shouted, not knowing where he was. "Go away from me, I say; can't you see I'm thinking."

"I should say you were Tommy," responded his wife. "Now, don't you think it about time you took off that thinking cap of yours and gave me a little attention?"

"Well, I'll think about it, as you request," responded the inventor. "Now, please let me alone, or I fear I shall be forced to set the new—"

At this juncture Edison suddenly came to, and jumping up exclaimed: "Who am I, where am I and who are you?"

When his wife told him who and where he was, and who she was, and where he was, and who she was, you could have bought him for a cent he felt so cheap.

"I had forgotten all about my marriage," he said.

"Well, I hope, responded his wife, "you won't let this occur again," and I am inclined to believe that he did not.

Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria

Are spread by contagion, by the transfer of living matter. These particles come from the skin, the membranous lining of the mouth, nose and throat, and from the intestines and urinary organs. Disinfect promptly and thoroughly with Darby's Prophylactic Fluid, the great germ destroyer.

Prof. H. T. Lupton, of the Vanderbilt University, Tenn., says: "As a disinfectant and detergent Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is superior to any preparation with which I am acquainted."

The Argentine Republic says that it has enough Italian immigrants. Italy says that enough Italians have emigrated. There is no chance for a disagreement there.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

GUARD AGAINST THE STRIKE.

And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. A sample bottle is given you free and the Remedy guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

An Indian in the Everglades, Fla., it is said, is still holding in slavery negroes that were his when the war broke out.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, operating through the blood, radically cures scrofulous taint.

We regret to learn from the Wilmington, N. C., Star in regard to moonshiners, that "executing the law in some portions of North Carolina is about as dangerous as scouting in time of actual war."

An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure. Plunder's Oregon Blood Purifier expels all impurities of the blood and should be used in all diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Take it.

EATING ON SHIP-BOARD.

How the Big Larders of the Ocean Steamers are Supplied.

A writer of the New York Star gives some interesting facts about the enormous quantity of food consumed in one trip of a steamship. The perishable food only is bought in this country, and such things as melons, oysters, cignars, peaches, tomatoes and other articles that are cheaper and better here than abroad, together with the necessary supply of coal to carry the ship across the Atlantic. When a vessel of the first class is lying at her dock in New York in the spring months, with nearly a thousand people to feed for seven or eight days, she takes in an enormous quantity of provisions, which are put in the ice-house.

Of fresh beef the usual quantity is 12,500 pounds, with 700 pounds of corned beef, 5,230 pounds of mutton, 850 pounds of lamb, 350 pounds of veal and the same quantity of pork, and about 2,000 pounds of fresh fish. These figures may well make the thrifty housewife stare in open-eyed wonder. What could she do with 15 tons of potatoes, put aboard every ten days? The supply of game is also enormous. Think of 200 brace of grouse for a single voyage, with 600 fowls, 300 chickens, 100 ducks, 30 geese and 80 turkeys, besides 30 dampers of vegetables, 220 quarts of ice-cream, 1,000 quarts of milk, and 11,500 eggs.

The groceries for the round trip include 650 pounds of tea, 1,200 pounds of coffee, 1,650 of white sugar, 2,800 of moist sugar, 750 of pulverized sugar, 2,000 of butter, 3,500 of ham and 1,000 of bacon. Rough weather is very expensive to the company, as the record of a recent voyage shows among the broken articles 900 plates, 280 cups, 448 saucers, 1,213 tumblers, 200 wine glasses, 27 decanters and 63 water bottles.

A Multitude of Ailments.

The ailments which afflict the kidneys and bladder are so numerous, that merely to name them would fill a space far outrunning the limits of this article. Suffice it to say, that they are both obstinate and dangerous. To their prevention Hestetter's Stomach Bitters is well adapted. The stimulus which it lends to the action of the kidneys, tends to loosen the secretions, and a tendency in them to lapse, first, into a state of peniculous inactivity, and afterwards into one of positive organic disease, which soon destroys their delicate integument, poisons the blood and causes death. A double purpose is served by this dependent. It promotes activity of the kidneys, and expels impurities from the blood which have no natural channel of outlet, except these organs. Constipation, biliousness, fever and ague, rheumatism and dyspepsia, are also remedied by this medicine of thorough action and wide scope.

A runaway train on the Duluth & Iron railroad had attained the frightful speed of 110 miles an hour before being wrecked.

A CHILD KILLED.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

It is mentioned as a case of luck that the other day after insuring his life for $10,000.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Girl, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

DYSPEPSIA.

That misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia of active mental power and a bilious temperament are subject to Sick Headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper.

Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain.

The underlying cause is in the LIVER.

and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time

Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—Wm. M. Kautz, Fort Valley, Ga.
