WHAT IT REMINDED JOGGLES OF

A Darkey Who Knew What His Value Was.

Joggles hasn't been around for some time, but he showed up yesterday afternoon, and says Joggles, says he, "I've been down there by the engine house along with Jimmy Hare looking at them boys walking on that tight rope and falling in the water, and it reminded me of a little suckumstance that happened about thirty year ago at a place called Canton, on the Mississippi, 'bout twenty miles above Hannibal, Mo. There wuz a minister a baptizin' a lot of niggers out a little ways from shore. Nigger wuz niggers them days, it bein' befo de wah, and a likely young darkey wuz worth $1,000 or $1,200. "Well, there wuz a lot of 'em; the old parson stud 'bout up to his middle and dipped 'em as they come along, they wading out, baptized 'n happy Presently 'long come a big buck nig ger, 'an the minister, being weakly like, the darkey dropped out of his hands. Just then along come the Harry Johnson, on her way from St. Louis to Keokuk; you remember how them old side-wheelers used to make waves. A big wave come along and sucked the darkey into deep water. He come to the surface and struck out, and after considerable puffin' and blowin' and pantin', he got to shore.

"Ez he passed me he looked over towards the parson and says to himself, kind of, 'Some one will lose a fifteen hundred dollar nigger yet wif dis yere damn foolishness.'"

THE LADIES DELIGHTED.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, un-der all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Some Remarks From His Honor,

A newly elected justice of the peace not a thousand miles from Milford, says the Milford, (Ill.,) Herald, de-livered the following charge to the jury the other day: "Gentlemen of the jury Charging a jury is a new busi-ness to me, as this is my first case. You have heard all evidence in the case, as well as myself; you have also heard what the learned counsel have said. If you believe what the counsel for the plaintiff has told you, your verdict will be for the plaintiff; but if, on the other hand, you believe what the defendent's counsel has told you, then you will give a verdict for the defendant. But if you are like me and don't believe what either of them said, then I'll be d—d if I know what you will do. Constable take charge of the jury.'

A WOMAN'S WAY.

A Startling Business Proposition. When Mrs. Fowler, of 327 Ellis street, stopped in at a leading city druggist's to ask what effect Joy's Vegetable Sarsaps rills, would have in dyspepsis and sick headaches, she was assured it would relieve both. She was so incredulous that the druggist gave her a bottle, not to be paid for unless it cured. The following is the convincing conclusion:

SAN FRANCISCO, Feby. 8, 1888. DEAR SIR: Notwithstanding my misgivings, Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla did all that you promised. I had tried so many prescriptions that I had come to believe nothing would relieve my dyspepsia and sick headaches, but I have not had a return of either since. You have my permission to make this public, for a remedy that will cure dyspepsia and prevent sick headsches should be generally musim. Fowler,

A Man's Varying Signatures.

A prominent business man in this city, called upon to sign a hundred letters every day, will tell you that his signature never varies from the standard fixed by himself in the morning, and yet I know that that man will write for an hour with the enjoyment of a writing master; interrupted by some person who irritates him, he will write for an hour with the heavy poking stick movement of a news-paper man: interrupted again by a man who brings him good news, and his pen will slip over the paper with a light, unshaded line. Sometimes the whole signature is signed without raising the pen, again the same is written with great care at each initial. Taking the hundred letters, no man could swear that they were signed by the same man.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.
