All his friends knew this, and an anecdote is told of Loyd Brezee's attempt in which a performance had been given that season, and the show people wanted a good notice. I got the tickets and the $10, and then I proceeded to get drunk. I walked up and down Chestnut street in front of the Times office and gave everyman I met a show ticket. Presently Hutchins came along and I yelled at him 'I am the dramatic editor of this paper,' I said, 'and I'll be — if all the boys don't go to the show.' Hutchins wanted three tickets, but I told him I didn't have but three left and I intended to use them myself. Once again I got fired, but he took me back again next day."

Hetrick, who was well acquainted with both, came along in his usual condition.
Walking up to the governor he said:
"Governor, I wouldn't take $9.90 for the bill I am going to get from General Rossi.
Just watch me work him." Then going over to where General Rossi was sitting he said: "General, you haven't got a saw buck about your clothes, have you?"
Without further ceremony General Rossi handed him a $10 bill. "The general

Athwart vast continents traversed by mighty iron thoroughfares, many-armed like the fabled Briarcus, myriads set fourth daily to encounter the vicissitudes of travel, change of climate, unaccustomed food, and an atmosphere, possibly missmatic yet with a calm confidence that their health will be preserved. When this confidence is based upon the possession of the supreme medicinal defense. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, it is indeed well founded, otherwise not. Brackish water, bad food, the wearying and other had effects of railroad jolting, sea sickness and nervousness aggravated by a journey and its attendant discomforts, are shorn of their pernicious influence by this sterling alterative pacifier and compensating medicine, invaluable for dyspepsia, feeblaness, nervousness, constipation, malarial disorders, rheumatism and kidney complaints. fabled Briarous, myriads set fourth daily to Every mother is cautioned against giving her child landanum or paregoric; it creates an unnatural eraving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Acker's Baby Soother is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A grocer at Lexington, Ky., had a picture of the prettiest girl in town painted on the cover of his delivery wagon, and her brother shot it off with a shot gun. The grocer dropped to the hint.

Its concentrated curative power makes Ayer's Sarsaparilla the best blood purifier.

Salt Lake has lost 9 per cent of its saltness in the last five years.

This powder never varies, A marvel of surity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multi-tude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Billiousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colle, Diarrheas, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colds. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest Aperient and Tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.
