Constipation

Demands prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They are an admirable Liver and After-dinner pill, and everywhere endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. I. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an

Effective Remedy

for constipation and indigestion, and are never without them in the house."—Moses Grenier, Lowell, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for liver troubles and indigestion, during many years, and have always found them prompt and efficient in their action."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 50 Middle st., Hartford, Conn.

"Having been troubled with constiveness, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say that they have served me better than any other medicine. I arrive at this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel T. Jones, Oak st., Boston, Mass.

ADVICE TO A YOUNG MAN.

Be Patient, and Let Some Less Sensible Fellow Have All the Worry.

Oh, my son! be patient; be patient; be patient. We can get along without brilliant women and great men. They are not easy to live with; they don't mix with the brood very much; they have to have single perches for themselves away up out of reach of the rest of us, so that we don't see much of them, and they don't do the world very much good, after all. It's just as well that they do keep away from us, I suppose. When they come down and mix up with us we are apt to find them out. Then good by greatness. We don't need rushing people so very much. Here and there one or two of them are good things; we can't get along without a rush line, of course; but, after all, a full-back whose quiet eyes are on every part of the field at once without making any fuss about it, and who at every point in the game is always just exactly where he is wanted at exactly the right time, and is never any where else, no matter how much yelling and "rattling" and whooping and screeching is going on in the front, the nervy fellow who is never rattled, and has all his nerve and breath and vim and strength saved up for the one important moment when it shall be necessary to send the ball away clear over the heads of the panting, yelling, scuffling crowd, after all, he is the fellow to whom our eyes turn anxiously and hopefully when the crisis is reached. Be patient; the fretful, hurrying, eager, restless world needs our praises of thanksgiving to the patient people in it. To the patient man and woman who find strength in "quietness and confidence;" who can be patient with our faults, our follies and our fancies; who can be quiet when even the softest word would have a sting; and the softest answer would stir up bitterness; who can wait for storms to blow over and for wrongs to right themselves; who can endure slight and injury until the wounded heart has forgotten the hurt that has made the scar. Be patient, my boy; be patient. Nobody else has time for it: all the rest of us are in such a hurry we can't stop and have no time to wait. Do be patient for the whole crowd. And you'll wear all the rest of us out.—Burdette in Brooklyn Eagle.

HE KEPT A SUMMER RESORT.

I was tramping along a Jersey highway in search of a farm house where they took summer boarders, when an old farmer came along in his two-horse wagon and asked me to ride, writes a correspondent of the New York Sun. As soon as he discovered what my errand was he exclaimed:

"Land o' goshen, but you've just hit the right man! I'll take you in myself. Got one of the resortest resorts on the hull coast. You shall live on the fat of the land and gain a pound a day."

"What do you ask for board?"

"Well, that's according. Want much sweet?"

"No."

"Care about a carpet on your room?"

"No."

"Eat with the family?"

"Yes."

"Very big eater?"

"No."

"Willing to live on meat and taters and sich like?"

"Yes."

"Any objections to working in the garden an hour or two before breakfast to get your appetite up?"

"Not the slightest."

"Help load hay or stack wheat on a pinch?"

"Yes."

"Purty good at chopping wood?"

"That's my best hold."

"Kin ye milk?"

"I can."

"And when night comes you won't object to playing on that guitar and singing?"

"No."

"Willing to pay for your washing, I suppose?"

"Oh! yes."

"And for extra trouble if you git sick?"

"Yes. How much will you charge me a week for board?"

"Cash in advance?"

"Yes."

"Agree to stay all summer?"

"Yes."

"Well, stranger, I'll have to ask the old woman. I've thought of every thing I could, but she's a great thinker, and will probably think of lots of other things, such as only changing the sheets once a week, washing yourself at the eistern, being satisfied with lusk pillars, and so on. Come and see me to-morrow and we'll talk it all over, and if I don't beat any hotel on the shore you can have my hat. You'll know my place by the sign on the gate: 'Old-fashioned Home.' Don't fail to close with me to-morrow, as we may be crowded this season."

CHILDREN CRY FOR PITCHER'S CASTORIA.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

She Added the Salt, as Usual—He—I wash my hands of you forever.

She—And let me suggest, George, that you also change your cuffs.—Burlington Free Press.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE

Denote an impure state of the blood and are looked upon by many with suspicion. Acker's Blood Elixir will remove all impurities and leave the complexion smooth and clear. There is nothing that will so thoroughly build up the constitution, purify and strengthen the whole system. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Luck seeks success, fails and regrets it.

Pluck fails, but tries again and gets it.—Philadelphia Press.

Lawrence—Give me your sympathy.

Penelope, I have the headache. Penelope—Poor fellow! You have an aching void, haven't you?

NOTHING LIKE IT

It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colds. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest Aperient and Tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons' Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."
L. M. HINSON, M.D., Washington, Ark.
