

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1889.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

MAYOR PAGE made a few remarks at the close of last Tuesday evening's council meeting that deserve comment.

He, in substance, said that while a spirit of enterprise and improvement was commendable, yet a due regard to the state of the city's finances would suggest the continued practice of economy.

This is so; experience shows that nothing is easier than for a young and ambitious city to go into debt, and nothing more irksome than that same debt when saddled on to a municipality.

At the last council meeting before last Tuesday's, provision was made for the raising of a moderate sum for the expenses of the current year.

The purposes for which the $5,000 is proposed to be devoted are good and necessary. The city needs western outlet; and the condition of the city cemetery is not conducive to civic pride; it is a part of wise and prudent economy to cause such improvement to be made.

But there are other proposed expenditures of doubtful value. Economy is simply good management; sometimes it is good, true economy to save twenty-five cents; other times it is economy equally good and true to spend five thousand dollars.

Presuming that the $3,000 to be paid Mr. Trullinger for a strip 800 feet westward from his office is all that will have to be paid entirely for a much needed extension of First street westward, the money is well invested.

It will, however, probably, be ultimately found that with the Astoria and South Coast Railway Co. and the Astoria Street Railway Co., both having rights of way across the 60 foot strip bought by the council last Tuesday night, that that strip will partake more of the nature of a curving causeway for those two lines, and not enough of a straight and unobstructed thoroughfare to fill the requirements of two and four wheeled vehicles.

Because of this the council will doubtless have to soon begin the cutting of Second street westward, for it is on that line that the city must ultimately depend for westward connection for all sorts of traffic that doesn't move on iron or steel rails.

The Main Street House affords good accommodations at $1 per day. Regular boarders, Single Rooms, $5.50 per week. Two persons occupying one room, $5 per week. Day board, per week, $1.

And Free Lunch at the Telephone Saloon, 5 cents.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc. can be bought at the lowest prices, at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident hotel, Astoria.

Go to Jeff's for Oysters. Don't buy any clothing, but go at once to the Paris Tailor first. He keeps the finest selections at the cheapest prices, and turns out the best work in Astoria.

Rooms. A few rooms to let, with board, at Mrs. E. C. Holden's boarding house, corner Main and Fourth streets.

C. R. F. Union Notice. The regular monthly meeting of the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective Union will be held at Ross' Opera House, Saturday, August 3rd, 1889, at 7:30 P. M.

At this meeting the annual election of officers will take place, and all members in good standing are requested to attend. A. SEAFELDT, President. A. SUTTON, Secretary.

A MODERN HERO. The death of engineer Jack Miller, Big Jack, as he was familiarly called, resulting from injuries received from the train wreck at this city, Sunday night, is a case where a brave engineer gave his life to save his train load of passengers. After he saw the open switch he could have leaped from the train and saved himself by allowing the train to dash full speed into the open switch, but he set the air brakes, reversed the engine and checked the speed sufficient to prevent injury to a single passenger, but met death himself, after one day of torture from his frightful scalding beneath the wrecked engine.—Albany Herald, July 30.

It is said that there is but one cry from the Americans who are in Paris—extortion! They are bled at every step; bled mercilessly. Strawberries are $2.50 a plate, and you cannot get a ride in a cab unless you buy the coachman a new suit of clothes and another horse. Hotel bills are stupendous; everything is just five times as much as in ordinary times, and the result is American visitors are not spending a cent more than they are absolutely obliged to.

Their Business Booming. Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at J. W. Conn's Drug Store as his giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases are quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

Heals Cooked to Order. Private rooms for ladies and families; at Central Restaurant, next to Foard & Stokes.

AN ASTONISHING CHANGE. "My dear madam, I never saw you looking so well, and you were so poorly, too."

Up to a month ago Mrs. Bolden, an elderly lady, living at 610 Mason street, San Francisco, was falling in health and flesh so rapidly as to seriously alarm her relatives. She now writes: "I have taken but one bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, but it is astonishing. I am regaining my lost flesh and have not felt as well in years."

SCROFULA Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings on the glands of the neck; causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" and fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption, and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula or impure blood, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.
