Long-Standing

Blood Diseases are cured by the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—
"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.
Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.
"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly, and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyson, (of Fernandina, Fla.) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. E. Wiley, 145 Chambers st., New York City.
"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.

THE SEIZURE OF THE SEALER.

A Surprise to Those in Alaskan Waters.

S. F. ALTA.
Dr. H. H. McIntyre, superintendent of the seal fisheries for the Alaska Commercial company, came down on the steamer Dora from Alaska. He has much to say on the sealing business generally. To a reporter yesterday, he said: "The seals are decreasing in number every year, and it is doubtful whether the company can get their legal allowance of 100,000 seals this year. This is due to the hunting of them by outside sealers. Since 1884 these vessels have killed quite 100,000 seals. Fully 55,000 skins have been placed on the market by them."
"No seizures having been made in 1886-1887, has emboldened sealers to enter the Behring sea this year. They thought the president's proclamation meant nothing, but they have now found by the seizure of the schooner Black Diamond, that orders are going to be enforced. I can most positively state that Captain Shepard will seize every sealer he finds hunting seals in the Behring sea. His orders from the department are positive on that point, and I saw them in black and white. He is determined to carry out his instructions to the letter."
"On July 24 four British schooners entered Oonaska to ascertain what course the revenue cutters would pursue. Captain Shepard told them exactly as I have told you. They said they would return to Victoria, but went into the Behring sea. Three American seals put in, and being informed that they would be seized if caught in the Behring sea sealing they departed. One went cod fishing and the others went into the Behring sea. There are about twenty-three British sealers in the Behring sea and perhaps ten American sealers."
"One thing that the British sealers did is certainly a gross breach of the law. They made a rendezvous at Sand Point, Unga island, and met there before entering the Behring sea. There they transferred all their skins to the steamer Wanderer, which was awaiting them, and which returned to Victoria. This was done so that if the sealers were seized no skins would be lost except those taken after entering; but it is clearly against the law. Sand Point is not a port of entry, and vessels are not allowed to discharge except in ports of entry. The nearest ports of entry were Oonaska and Kodiak. Besides this, the sealers are a very low class of men and sell whisky to the natives. This they did at Sand Point, where, of course, there was no one to stop them."
"The seizure of the Black Diamond by the Rush on July 11th is a heavy blow to illicit sealing. Sealers were so confident that no seizures would be made that this is a thunder clap to them. This seizure will surely be followed up by others. Do I think that the British men-of-war will take any action in the matter? No, certainly not. The Champion, Leurus and Swiftsure did not go up to protect sealers. They went up to Juneau, which is many hundred miles away from the Behring sea. As you will see by the dispatches to-day, the Corona reports that they have left Juneau for Port Simpson. Port Simpson is on this side of Juneau, so that they are coming down again."
"As to the seizure of the Black Diamond, it appears that the schooner refused to heave to when ordered to do so by Captain Shepard. The ports of the Rush were lowered and the guns ran out. This scared the Black Diamond into compliance, and she was boarded by Lieutenant Tuttle, who demanded the ship's papers. The captain of the sealer refused to give them up, whereupon the officer took them from the cabin himself. There were 100 sealers on the Black Diamond. She was placed in charge of a non-commissioned officer and sent to Sitka. On the 13th the schooner Triumph was boarded but not seized, as her skins had been captured in the Pacific."
"On our way down from St. Paul's island, on July 25th, we saw the Rush in pursuit of six sealers, so that it is quite probable that further seizures have since been made."

TOLD BY THE TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.

The treasury department has received a letter from the collector of customs at Mobile, Ala., in which he states that three members of the crew of the American schooner Anna had been left on the uninhabited guano island called Arenas Key, forty miles northwest from Sinal, to care for the property of the company. The captain brought back from the island fourteen laborers, and being short of provisions all he could leave the men was a barrel of beef, four barrels of flour and a peck of white peas and beans. In an affidavit accompanying the collector's letter the captain says the superintendent of the company working the island promised to send a vessel at once to bring back the three men, but he had not done so, and unless assistance is at once sent to them they will die of starvation. The island is out of the track of navigation, and, as it is utterly barren and the men were left without a boat, unless assistance is especially sent they will die. The collector says he does not know what the government can do in the matter, but he presents the facts to the department in hope some attempt will be made to save the lives of the three unfortunate men.

NO OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The navy and state departments have received no advice regarding the sealing seizure. Secretary Tracy is undoubtedly worried over the newspaper reports and returns, for he is brusque in his answers of inquiries from reporters. He says no trouble will result. According to his information, the navy is undoubtedly in bad shape in case Great Britain should send any warships there to interfere and release the Black Diamond. The nearest United States vessels are the Trogon and Atanger, both on the California coast. The latter is engaged in coastal survey work. The Trogon is a medium sized, and not considered formidable. In case of trouble, however, the work on the new cruiser Charleston, now being finished at San Francisco, could be hurried. But it is not believed she could be made ready for duty inside of two months. Tracy denies having sent such orders.

THE WESTERN UNION.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—An interview with president Green, of the Western Union, is printed. Green says: "After consultation with our attorneys the Western Union has concluded to go right on doing the government's business, and then test its claim for fair compensation for its work, in the court of claims in Washington, should such a course become necessary. Our lawyers tell us the government cannot force us to take messages at one mill per word."

Among Errors Relating to Health.

One of the most mischievous and most common is the indiscriminate and too frequent use of purgatives. Such medicines, if well chosen, and reasonably resorted to, are certainly useful, but many persons select the worst, fly from one to the other, and employ them when there is no occasion, or their utility has ceased. To establish on a permanent basis a regular condition of the bowels, the best alternative is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is botanical in origin, and a safe sennadecum for those objectionable drugs, calomel and blue pill; it does not grip or drench the bowels like the ordinary cathartics, and it not only reforms irregularity of the habit of body, but remedies the disorder and inactivity of the liver and stomach, which usually accompany that condition. Rheumatism, kidney trouble, malarial complaint and nervousness are removed by the Bitters.
