Thos. Coleman of Skipanon came over on the Electric yesterday and repots that he found a bottle between the Cairnsmore and the lighthouse containing a slip of paper which he left here. It is water soaked, and on it is written: "Sunday, July 14th, '89. Died for want of breath: please bury me; good bye, forever." Most folks do die for want of breath. The thousand dollars that Astoria telegraphed to Seattle was only a drop in the bucket, regarding As-toria's contribution to the fire losses of her less fortunate sister cities Did you ever think up the large con-tribution that Astoria has made to the reserve fund that goes to pay insur-ance losses on this coast? For over twelve years this city has yearly paid sums averaging $125,000 a year, or nearly $1,500,000. This million and a half of dollars represents almost so much profit to the insurance com-panies. It has helped pay many a loss, and in that sense Astoria's contribution to the losses by fire all around us is a considerable sum.

Fruit Tree Swindlers.

Fruit tree swindlers are again infesting this country. The scheme now in hand is to furnish the farmer with so many dollars' worth of trees say $500—free of charge. The farmer is to plant and take proper care of these trees and to deliver to the agent one half their profits for ten or twelve years. But if the farm is sold during at the price agreed upon; and as evidence of good faith the farmer gives his bond to this effect for the amount So far there is no fraud, but in a short time a man comes along, admires the appearance of the farm and tries to buy it. The price is finally agreed upon, and the farmer is to furnish a clear title to the land. Of course the bond has been recorded, and to secure the sale is promptly paid. And after R. E. Jackson and wife, who have the fruit tree agent has been dis pensed with, the farmer turns to his supposed purchaser, but, alas! the bird has flown, and he goes home a sadder if not a wiser man.

How Some Papers Get "News,"

Yesterday morning the Examiner furnished a characteristic example of how news is dished up by a certain class of self-styled "enterprising newspapers. On Friday the Alla pub lished a short article about Mr. Ken-taro Kaneko, the gentleman com-missioned by the Japanese governcountries, and stated that Mr. Kaneke would arrive on the steamer Peking, which was due in this port on Saturday. The Examiner took this article and "faked" from it an alleged inter-view with Mr. Kaneko. As a matter be a big one, too."

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life
It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed les than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a larger bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now stong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds.
