Ask For Ayer's

Sarsaparilla, and be sure you get it, when you want the best blood-purifier. With its forty years of unexampled success in the cure of Blood Diseases, you can make no mistake in preferring Ayer's Sarsaparilla to any other. The fore-runner of modern blood medicines, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is still the most popular, being in greater demand than all others combined.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is selling faster than ever before. I never hesitate to recommend it."—George W. Whitman, Druggist, Albany, Ind.

"I am safe in saying that my sales of Ayer's Sarsaparilla far exceed those of any other, and it gives thorough satisfaction."—L. H. Bush, Des Moines, Iowa.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills are the best selling medicines in my store. I can recommend them conscientiously."—C. Birkhaus, Pharmacist, Roseland, Ill.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"I have sold your medicines for the last seventeen years, and always keep them in stock, as they are staples. There is nothing so good for the youthful blood as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—R. L. Parker, Fox Lake, Wis.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla gives the best satisfaction of any medicine I have in stock. I recommend it, or, as the Doctors say, 'I prescribe it over the counter.' It never fails to meet the cases for which I recommend it, even where the doctors' prescriptions have been of no avail."—C. F. Calhoun, Monmouth, Kansas.

IT WAS A HARD EARNED FEE.

How a Georgia Lawyer Obtained His Reward.
"The hardest earned fee I ever made," remarked a lawyer in the city court room a few days ago, "was in a justice's court in Atlanta. That was just after I came here, over ten years ago. The case was before Judge Butt, when his office was on Mitchell Street, near the corner of Whitehall. Surely a lawyer never worked harder for a $10 fee than I did in that case."

It was during the recess for dinner and quite a number of lawyers had gathered about one of the open windows to enjoy the breeze and to smoke their cigars. The conversation took a retrospective, reminiscent turn.

"My client," continued the lawyer, his eyes twinkling at the recollection, "was Gabe Turner, an old darkey. He was charged with assault and battery. Gabe was a big deacon in some church—I've forgotten the name—and was much worked up over the matter. It was really a trivial case, and I was inclined to believe with Gabe that it was all a presentation and done at the instigation of another deacon in Gabe's church."

"Well, the day came for the trial, and the courtroom was crowded. About half of the congregation had come to swear for Gabe, and the other half for the other man. Two-thirds of the witnesses were women, and they just would go back to the beginning—you know what that means in a negro church quarrel—and tell the whole story."

"It was a rare old case. 'Finally we agreed to submit the case without any more evidence and without argument. 'Old Gabe was acquitted. 'Next day, as he had promised, Gabe came to see me. The old darkey was able to pay, and I knew him to be prompt in meeting his debts. I felt a vague misgiving, though, as soon as I saw his face. He came to the point at once.

"Well boss," said Gabe, 'I come to pay you for my case.' 'That sounded all right, but Gabe looked skittish. I noticed that, I suppose, because I needed the money so. I just had to have it. 'An' if we kin agree, old Gabe went on, I've got the money right here.

"Agree," said I 'didn't we make an agreement to begin with?' 'Dat's so,' admitted Gabe, 'but I was countin' on a speech in dat case. Dem niggers ought certainly to be 'sposed. De speech was de big part. 'Ee I wasn't going to give up that $10 if there was any way out of it. 'The charge is dismissed against you, Gabe, said I, 'and the other negro paid all the costs. What good could it do to make a speech?' 'I wouldn't done no good. De speech was de big part wid me 'cause I wanted to hear dem niggers 'sposed.

"Gabe," said I, finally 'will you stick to your contract or will you not?' 'I'll stick to it,' said Gabe, 'ef you'll make de speech.' 'I had to have $10, and there was only one way to get it. I shut the doors and windows and set Gabe in one corner of the room. Then I took off my coat and made the speech of my life. I understood, of course, that Gabe didn't care anything about the law. All he wanted was to hear the other crowd 'sposed.'

"I spoke accordingly. I called the other deacon a flop-eared hound, a chicken-thief, and the Lord only knows what not. The witnesses on the other side were villains of the deepest dye. They were spots on the earth and imps of perdition. 'I spoke for ten minutes, I suppose. Old Gabe leaned back and his black face was radiant. At the flopped round part Old Gabe's hands came together in a hallelujah pat, and a happiness came over him too deep for words."

"Glory," said Gabe, 'dat's right!' 'I wound up with an eulogy on the godliness and honesty of my client, Gabriel.' 'Well, gentlemen, I got the $10. Gabe moved to Gwinnett county after that and twice since then he has needed a lawyer. Both times he came to Atlanta after me. I can charge what I please and Gabe pays it cheerfully.'—Atlanta Constitution.

GUARD AGAINST THE STRIKE.

And always have a bottle of Ayer's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. A sample bottle is given you free and the Remedy guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A three-masted schooner with a capacity for 550,000 feet of lumber is soon to be built here. She will cost $32,000, the shares for which have all been taken. Capt. Weatherwax, the captain of the schooners Alcaldie and Big River and San Francisco parties being the owners. Boat builder McDonald is already at work on the plans.—Aberdeen Herald, 8.

Ladies! Ayer's Hair Vigor is a superior and economical hair dressing. It has become an indispensable article for the toilet.

Ex-president Cleveland is said to have invented a new fly for trout fishing, which causes him more alight than any other event of his life except his election to the presidency.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla never before equaled its present daily record of marvelous cures.

Twenty Million Acres Unsurveyed.

"The same routine business," replied state surveyor-general D. W. Taylor in response to an inquiry for news by a reporter who walked up three flights of stairs in the United States post office building in quest of the ever evasive item yesterday afternoon. "There is more land being surveyed all the time, though here we only record the work and make official reports. Just at present most of the work is being done in the Nehalem valley back of Saddle mountain. That section is opening up rapidly. The surveys are let by contract. A short time ago we made an estimate that there are still twenty million acres of unsurveyed land in the state of Oregon.—Oregonian, 11.

A Good Nurse

Should not hesitate to wait upon those ill with such diseases as Small-pox, Cholera or Scarlet Fever. There is little to be feared by persons waiting on the sick if they will use Darby's Eucalyptic Fluid freely. In sick-rooms it should be exposed on a plate or saucer, and the patient sponged off with the Fluid diluted. For safety, cleanliness and comfort in the sick-room the Fluid is indispensable.

A CHILD KILLED.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Ayer's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The consumption of beer in this country has increased enormously in the last ten years. There has been a resultant falling-off in whisky-drinking.

HAPPINESS AND CONTENTMENT

Cannot be had in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Ayer's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A new evangelical society has been formed in Cleveland that does business in a wagon, from which addresses are made urging people to go to church.

By order of the Common Council.
Attest: T. S. JEWETT,
Auditor and Police Judge.
Astoria, August 8th, 1889.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
No Home should be Without It.

It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Howel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colic. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest and most effective Tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons' Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."
L. M. HAYES, M. D., Washington, Ark.
