

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1889. AN INFRACTION OF LAW.

THE ASTORIAN notices in three prominent state exchanges, the advertisement of the Louisiana lottery.

Section 1883 Oregon statutes: "If any person shall advertise any lottery ticket or share in such ticket, or any writing, token, or other device as is mentioned in section 1890 (659) for sale, either by himself or another, or shall in any way invite or entice, or attempt to invite or entice another to purchase or receive the same, or shall set up or exhibit any sign, symbol, or emblematic or other representation of a lottery, where such ticket, share, thereof, writing, token, or other device can be purchased or obtained, such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one month nor more than six months, or by fine not less than twenty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars."

The law doesn't prevent people from buying the tickets: nearly a thousand dollars a month is spent in Astoria alone for tickets in the Louisiana lottery, but it does forbid newspapers advertising the lottery and our contemporaries should observe it.

THE ASTORIAN usually has enough to do to mind its own business without minding how its esteemed contemporaries manage their affairs, but this thing is getting a little tiresome. The advt. pays big, it is the best paying advertisement going, and the entire state press should observe the law, and those violating it should be punished, or else the law should be repealed. That's business.

WHILE the most of our exchanges in commenting on the killing of Terry by Nagle say, "it served him right," some of the comment is to the effect that Nagle murdered Terry, and should be tried for murder.

Nagle will undoubtedly be tried, but will just as undoubtedly be acquitted. Terry forfeited his life when he made those threats against Justice Field, and the moment he advanced to assault the representative of the majesty of the law, his existence was doaded. It wasn't Field, the individual, he struck, but the embodiment and incarnation of justice. This is a point that must not be overlooked. Field had no quarrel with Terry, but as an expounder and mouthpiece of the supreme court announced a righteous decision. For this Terry sought his life and lost his own.

THOSE Democratic editors who are displeased with the course of the present administration in the Behring sea matter, can find relief by taking proper notice of the fact that it is simply carrying out a law which president Cleveland approved on the last day of his term.

LAST Saturday The Dalles Times-Mountaineer celebrated its thirtieth birthday. It is a right good newspaper and ably and justly exemplifies the daily life of the community in which it is published.

THE best editorial (in the writer's judgement) on the recent deplorable killing of David S. Terry, is in the San Francisco Alta of the 15th inst.

BETWEEN the eloquence of the Olympia convention, and the disastrous fires, Washington is burning her way into the Union.

So far as the Behring sea is concerned, Uncle Sam assumes to be keeper of the great seal.

PORTLAND Aug. 19.—Mr. J. A. Carr, the broker, in relation to whom so much has recently been written in connection with the estate of the late Annie Walker, of Tacoma, returned to this city to-day from the Sound, but it is ten days since he arrived from New York. When interviewed he said he had come to a satisfactory settlement with Richard Walker, the heir. He says the estate was worth $30,000 instead of $60,000.

FIRE AT NEWBERG. Fire occurred at Newberg on the Portland & Willamette Valley railroad Saturday night. A hotel and several business houses were destroyed. The origin of the fire, and the losses resulting were not learned yet.

DROPPED DEAD. J. H. Smith the old man who for years has been driving a stage coach from this city to Fulton dropped dead this morning near the Red House while in the act of hitching up his team yesterday. Mr. Smith had several fainting spells and his son hearing of it wanted to do Mr. Smith's work but the old stage driver would not consent, declaring he was well enough to attend to his business. Younger Smith had scarcely left his father before he expired. The cause is supposed to be heart disease.

GOING HOME. Ex-consul General J. W. Putnam, to the Sandwich islands arrived here this morning and is a guest at the Esmond. Mr. Putnam was recently superseded by a Republican. He is now enroute for his home in Ohio where he served ten years in the legislature and acted as governor of the state from 1872 to 1874.

Shore Near the Cliff House.

The American ship Ericsson had a narrow escape from complete wreck Tuesday night. The night was dark outside the Heads and a thick fog hung over the ocean. Captain McCoy of the tug Active was successful in getting a line to her, but in towing her in he lost his reckoning, and the ship struck the shore at a point between the Cliff House and the life-saving station, almost in the same spot where the Bessie Everding was lost last year. The Active made an attempt to steam out to sea, but the ship struck fast. For nearly two hours she pounded on the beach. Word was sent to town, and another tug went to the assistance of the Active. An additional hawser was got on board and the Ericsson was pulled off and towed into port badly leaking. The Ericsson is the second vessel that has escaped from this spot, the James Chester being the other, while the number of those which have met their fate there is legion.—S. F. Bulletin, 15.

A SERIOUS BLUNDER.

A Lady Nearly Prostrated by a Patent Medicine. A lady well-known in the Western Addition has been a great sufferer for years with indigestion and dyspepsia. Struck with the testimonial praising Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, she set for a bottle. The druggist, not having it, talked her into taking another sarsaparilla. As the leading sarsaparilla uses mineral blood purifiers, the effect of the emptying of vessels of potash into a stomach, already distressingly delicate was disastrous, almost prostrating her before the mistake was rectified. She then called upon Mrs. Fowler, of 27 Ellis street, whose name was among those cured by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Mrs. Fowler said it was true that it had cured her. A lady reassured, the vegetable compound was sent for and gotten. The gentle action of its vegetable stimulants upon the liver, kidneys and digestive organs, and its warm stomach tonic, were the very things needed, and she began improving and was her old self within a fortnight. This sounds like fiction, but the names can be given if necessary.—San Francisco Examiner.

Dyspepsia

Makes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and, by thus overcoming the local symptoms, cures the Sick Headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. After eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, painting, and from being more or less shut up in room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it did for me a business amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food digested and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PARKER, Waterbury, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other. Sold by druggists. $1.50 per bottle. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar
