Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustre and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."—R. T. Schmitt, Dixon, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill.

LEGENDS ON ENVELOPES.

A Texan's Private Marks—The British Clerk.

A gentleman who is in business in this city, has a correspondent in a Texas town, who, whenever he transmits money in any form by mail, covers the envelope with an astounding array of hieroglyphics evidently intended to scare off thieves.

He showed me one of these queerly decorated envelopes. Along the top of the reverse side was written "Decoy letter No. 10—1 km. P. O. J." Across the flap of the envelope were drawn rough pen lines, and sideways from the center the words, "Private marks." Below these signs was the inscription, "Witness—O. K. at 24," with a formidable flourish beneath it. "My Texas friend always ornaments his envelopes in this fashion," said my informant, "and he appears to believe that postal pilferers will not dare to touch a letter so embellished. It is a queer notion to get into a business man's head."

Talking of marking envelopes, I had a little experience with a British mail clerk in London last year which bears on the subject.

I usually mailed my letters to the Dispatch at the postoffice at Claring Cross. It was always necessary to have them weighed, and the same man, a florid individual of whose features I can only recall a singular bulbous eye, performed the service for me. In order to insure the letter's reaching the hands of the proper authority in the Dispatch office with the least possible delay I was wont to write along the top of the envelope, "News. Important." Every time I handed one of these missives to the meaty-eyed clerk in the Claring Cross postoffice I noticed he looked hard at the legend. "News. Important," and a smile of scorn would curl his upper lip.

One morning I gave a letter to this clerk to be weighed, and business being a little slack he took time to say, "Hi suppose you think that writing 'News, Important,' on that letter'll make his 'arry hit through."

"No," said I, "I know of nothing that would make you hurry, unless it were dynamite."

Ever afterward when I went into the Claring Cross office I noticed that the prominent eye of the factious clerk watched me warily. I think he suspected me of being an inviolable.

Serfdom cannot resist the purifying powers of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Sold by druggists.

Says it Anyhow—How did you ever come to marry Mrs. Barrett? Grinnard Barrett (frankly)—I married her for her money. She said she'd be worth a million on her wedding day—estimated me at that figure, you know. Says it Anyhow—Why, she deceived you shamefully! Grinnard Barrett—Well, I was deceived that's a fact; but, Great Scott! man, just think how she got left!—The Epoch.

Do not endanger your health by using quinine, when malarial fevers can be more effectively treated with Ayer's Ague Cure. Warranted.

An exchange remarks that "mothers have trained our presidents and statesmen." True. They were fortunate in having mothers. The only man who ever made a success in life without the training influence of a mother was Adams, and he felt the need of one before his career closed. Wilming. N. C., Star.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE
Denote an impure state of the blood and are looked upon by many with suspicion. Ayer's Blood Elixir will remove all impurities and leave the complexion smooth and clear. There is nothing that will so thoroughly build up the constitution, purify and strengthen the whole system. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

In Matagorda county, Texas, are a number of negroes who are natives of Africa. They were pirated and brought there from Guinea during the brief period of the republic.

ARE YOU SKEPTICAL?
If so we will convince you that Ayer's English Remedy for the lungs is superior to all other preparations, and is a positive cure for all Throat and Lung troubles, Croup, Whooping Cough and Colds. We guarantee the preparation and will give you a sample bottle free.

Ninety-three per cent. of the convicts of Alabama are negroes.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.
It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Ayer's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

TRAPPING MOSQUITOES.

They Cannot Get Their Bills Out While You Hold Your Breath.

Three or four men were sitting on the piazza of a seaside cottage smoking. It was evening. The stars were as thick in the sky as freckles on a red-headed girl's face. The waves came in on the beach with a swish-swish swoosh just as they have done ever since the second day of the creation.

More piercing than the song of the waves were the notes, and more multitudinous than the stars of heaven the number of the mosquitoes that haunted the piazza, and every one of them was "looking for blood." The men ceased smoking for fun. They now puffed their pipes and cigars to keep the mosquitoes away.

"Something funny about mosquitoes," said one rather absentmindedly.

"Yes, rather," was the drawing reply. "Funny how much blood it takes to fill one of them up."

"No, but honest, now; do you know that if a mosquito'd get his bill down into your hand he can't pull it out while you hold your breath?"

"Don't believe it."

"It is true, however, for I have tried it."

"Bet you the cigars a mosquito can take his bill out at any time he wants to do it, and we will try it right here. Is it so?"

"It is, and I'll let them try." A lamp was lighted, the cigars put out and all waited. In less than a minute a mosquito had placed himself on Tom's hand and begun operations.

"Now," said Tom, and placed the forefinger of his other hand down close to the mosquito. It did not budge. He placed his nail against the abdomen of the insect and whirled it around. Still it remained fixed.

"You can do it every time," said Tom, as he killed the mosquito and drew a long breath.

It is a fact. Go and try it.—Boston Globe.

Self-defense Against a Dangerous Fea.
Forewarned is forearmed in the case of those who incur the risk of an attack from that dangerous foe, malaria, unprovided with a means of defense. But in this case, aided, sustained and reinforced with the great fortifying safeguard, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, miasma, prolific breeder of evils, manifested in the shape of bilious remittent and chills and fever, ague, dumb ague, and the centenary of the Isthmus and Central American coast, is nullified and rendered harmless. Our western pioneer settlers and miners, dwellers in tropic lowlands, and visitants of and dwellers in malarious localities in this country and many quarters of globe have for many years been acquainted with the fact and are constantly provided with this unrivalled defensive medicine and remedy. All disorder of the stomach, liver, and bowels, rheumatic and kidney complaints and rheumatism are conquered by it.

The Moscow bell weighs 400,000 pounds, beats the world and is worth $1,000,000.

Leprosy in the West Indies is said to be on the increase in all of the islands.

CAUTION TO MOTHERS.
Every mother is cautioned against giving her child laudanum or paregoric; it creates an unnatural craving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Aker's Baby Soother is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their ailments. It is harmless and contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The Firth of Forth bridge in Scotland will use 50,000 tons of the finest steel, and one of its cantilevers, if placed on end, would be nearly as high as the Eiffel tower. The latter contains 7,500 tons of iron.

DYSPEPSIA.

Is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diseased arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. A dozen dyspeptics to two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia is an active mental power, and a vigorous temperament are subject to Sick Headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous, abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully facetious; others have great irritability of temper. Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain,
The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Alleviate Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time

Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may say who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—*Wm.
