"I have used Aver's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results." — Benjamin M. Johnson, M. "My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel." — Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill.

AT THE WATER'S EDGE.

When a Man Gets on His Bathing Suit He Must Wade In.

When a man gets on his bathing suit and walks down the sands until his feet touch the water, he jumps back with an exclamation as long as his arm. Salt water at a temperature of 59 or 60 gives you the cold cut direct. If you hadn't got already to tre and pliancy that adds greatly to its harm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, orturning gray, then you draw a long breath and dry, orturning gray, wade out until the water reaches Ayer's Hair Vigor your knee pans. Then you gasp "by gosh!" some more, and you'd give $10 if you hadn't made a fool of yourself. You wait five minutes and break in to your waist, and now all the chills in your body are driven to healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

You are twisted and tried—you gasp and gurgle—you swallow and spit out and it is a long two minutes before you dare feel of yourself to see if you are all there. The water begins to warm up, you feel buoyant and exultant, and for the next twenty minutes you thoroughly enjoy the situation.

And beed the appeals for assistance put forth by your liver, when the organ is out of order. Among these are distress in the right side and through the right shoulder blade, yellowness of the skin and eyeballs, farred tongue, sour breath, sick headache, and, above all, irregularity of the bowels. The mercy you extend to the afflicted organ is wisely shown by a prompt course of medication with Hostotters Stomach Bitters, most genial of alteratives, and the hepatic gland early reciprocates the deserved attention by resuming its secretive functions actively and regularly. Among the accompanying good results are renewed digestion, freedom from headaches, and a resumption of activity of the bowels. All billious symptoms disappear, and appetite and sleep improve. Beneheent are the effects of the Bitters in malarial disease, kidney disorders, rheumatic ailments and nervousness.

A Member of the Lime Kiln Club Objects to the Term.

At a recent meeting of the Lime Kiln club says the Detroit Free Press, judge Asphalt Green arose to a question of privilege. Time after time he had listened to communications in which the colored race was referred to as "coons," and none of the members had been moved to object. He could hardly pick up a newspaper without seeing the same reference, and more than once he had heard the expression used on the street and in shops. He didn't want to be cap-tious, he said, but such things pained him. He hoped the club, as a club, would take some decided action to express its deep displeasure.

"Brudder Green, would you object to being called a fox?" queried the

"I reckon not, sah." "Well, dar am no great difference between de fox an' de coon—not 'nuff to kick about. It's jist a habit sartin white men hev got into, dat's all. Dey would call you a fox or 'possum or woodchuck jist as quick, but dey dun doan' think quick 'nuff. I'll spoke to 'em about it an' hev 'em call you a hoss or a mule, if dat will re-you a hoss or a mule, if dat will re-lieve your mind."

"But, sah, do you uphold sich con-duct?" protested the judge.

"No, Brudder Green, but I ar' keepin' quiet fur fear of results. De white man has got a mighty long head on him, an' if he was prevented from calling' you a 'coon' he'd hunt up somethin' a good deal wuss befo' he was a day older. Sot down, Jedge; act down an' rest yer backache. You sot down an' rest yer backache. You hasn't bin feelin' well fur de las' week, an' perhaps dis change in de wedder has affected yer mind."

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easly taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

An Old Chestnut Revived.

An old preacher, after service one Sunday, announced his reading for the following Sunday. During the week some mischievous boys obtained his Bible and pasted two of the leaves together, right where he was to read. Sunday morning coming the aged divine opened his book and read as follows: "And Noah took unto himself a wife who was" and here he turned the leaf-"forty cubits broad, one hundred and forty cubits long." With a look of astonishment he wiped his glasses, reread and verified the passage and then said: "My friends, although I have read the Bible many times, this is the first time I have ever seen this passage, but I take it as another evidence of the fact that man is most fearfully and wonderfully made."N.
