The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Leadlight, Morrilton, Ark.

Cough Medicine

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joul Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Mrs. E. Coltrin, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"The children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throats, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 127 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

A Laborer in the Vineyard.

"Yes," said the evangelist, after biting a large chew from a plug of black tobacco and expectorating with marvelous accuracy in the eye of a sleeping dog. "I've been a getting there with both feet lately. The last town I stopped at I raked in twenty converts in one night, and you bet that's big work. I get right down to 'em and let 'em know that if they don't wait up to the mourner's bench and get religion they'll be everlastingly in the soup, and I generally fetch 'em. Of course, there's always a lot of chumps you can't do anything with, but they don't count for nothing. I used to be a heavy weight slugger, and I've had a book printed describing the scraps I've been into. When the services is over I sell books to the chaps what's been saved, and make a little stuff that way, but there ain't no money in this preaching business. A feller's got to do it out of pure love for his fellow-men, just like I do it. I want to save as many as I can and give the devil the grand razzle-dazzle, and all the reward I ask is to have a front seat in heaven when I turn up my toes. Well, I'll have to leave you. I'm going around to see a backslider what was converted a week ago, and when I read the riot act to him you bet I'll smoke him back into the fold. So long." The noble and self-sacrificing man then moved off on his grand mission humming a simple hymn the burden of which was to the effect that while the bedbug has no wings at all he gets as there just the same. Truly, the world can never be plunged into utter darkness while such good men throw themselves earnestly into the work of salvation.—Lincoln, Neb., State Journal.

Ladies! Ayer's Hair Vigor is a superior and economical hair dressing. It has become an indispensable article for the toilet.

Beware of The Empire Gown.

The reign of stumpy skirts and no bustles in the feminine world is upon us, and I must say there are signs that it will be rather trying for some of us, those in whom modesty is unduly developed. At a Long Branch hotel the other day I saw a young woman, properly chaperoned by her mamma, float into the dining-room in an exquisite Empire gown of some thin white stuff. She was pleasant to look at and I kept my eyes that way a good deal, perhaps, so I saw her when she started out; I did, indeed. She happened to get between me and the light, and it was made clear that she—well, that she was a biper. I had not doubted it, so perhaps I was unreasonably startled by the demonstration, but I had not had such a dose of anatomical information since Mrs. Potter opened in Cleopatra. I suppose the first wrens of First Empire gowns went in for that kind of thing, but with this young lady I'm sure it was an oversight, and I tell this tale as a warning to other young ladies. Unless you are doing that kind of thing on purpose, it isn't the sort of thing you want to do at all.—Graphic.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A young Australian, named Charles L. Watrous, employed during the past three months as a common laborer in St. Paul, has received news of the death of his father, J. B. Watrous, known to fame as the Australian bonanza king, by which he succeeds to the inheritance of $3,000,000.

A CHILD KILLED.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of Soothing Syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

HAPPINESS AND CONTENTMENT

Cannot go hand in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by J. W. Conn, Druggist.
