The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

Cough Medicine

to every one afflicted.—Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrilton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me an incurable case. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Mrs. E. Colburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

Military Courtesy.

It seems hardly creditable to us, who believe everything to be fair in war, that such half savages as the Maoris, of New Zealand, should observe courtesies toward their enemies which puts us to the blush. While they were at war with the English they invariably sent a notice when they were going to make an attack, as if they were coming on a friendly visit, and desired things to be ready for them. They thought it very strange that the English did not give them similar notice.

Sometimes two villages would get up a war with each other, and after fighting like tigers all day they would come out of their little forts toward evening and talk over the day's sport in the most friendly way. The next morning they would begin again, to keep it up during the daytime and meet in the evening as before, in a sort of social reunion.

An old missionary tells how, in one of these little wars, the occupants of a fort sent word to their assailants that they were short of provisions, and the attacking party immediately sent in a fresh supply. One Sunday he held divine service on a spot between two hostile forts, and the warriors from each fort came out to attend, and Monday morning they went to fighting again as lively as ever.

ARE YOU SKEPTICAL?

If so we will convince you that Ayer's English Remedy for the Lungs is superior to all other preparations, and is a positive cure for all Throat and Lung troubles, Croup, Whooping Cough and Colds. We guarantee the preparation and will give you a sample bottle free.

Seattle and Tacoma.

When Seattle went up in smoke, and down in ashes Tacoma rushed to her assistance in a way that incited universal praise. The spirit of rivalry and jealousy between the two places appeared to be forgotten, and it was thought that sisterly affection would ever afterward exist between them. This kind and loving feeling lasted for at least two weeks and now the same old spirit of jealousy stands out like knobs on a ballet girls ankles. Seattle has evidently forgotten the acts of Tacoma when her cry of distress penetrated the heavens. It reminds us of an old man who, taken violently sick, sent for a neighbor to whom he hadn't spoken in years, and when he came into the presence of the sick man the latter said: "Neighbor, I am about to die, and I desire to die at peace with all mankind. We have long been enemies; let us forget and forgive before I die. But, in case I get well we will still be enemies, as I consider you the dearest meanest man I ever knew."—Sumner Herald.

Be Merciful to Yourself

And heed the appeals for assistance put forth by your liver, when the organ is out of order. Among these are distress in the right side and through the right shoulder blade, yellowness of the skin and eyeballs, furred tongue, sour breath, sick headache, and, above all, irregularity of the bowels. The more you extend to the afflicted organ is wisely shown by a prompt course of medication with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, most genial of alteratives, and the hepatic gland early reciprocates the deserved attention by resuming its secretory functions actively and regularly. Among the accompanying good results are renewed digestion, freedom from headaches, and a resumption of activity of the bowels. All bilious symptoms disappear, and appetite and sleep improve. Beneficial are the effects of the Bitters in malarial disease, kidney disorders, rheumatic ailments and nervousness.

Shipwrecked, but Safe—Jack Tar—We ain't so very far from land, Jim. There's been a yacht along here lately. Jim—How do you know? Jack Tar—See all them champagne corks.

PEOPLE EVERYWHERE

Confirm our statement when we say that Ayer's English Remedy is in every way superior to any and all other preparations for the Throat and Lungs. In Whooping Cough and Croup it is magic and relieves at once. We offer you a sample bottle free. Remember, this Remedy is sold on a positive guarantee, by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE

Denote an impure state of the blood and are looked upon by many with suspicion. Ayer's Blood Elixir will remove all impurities and leave the complexion smooth and clear. There is nothing that will so thoroughly build up the constitution, purify and strengthen the whole system. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Barber (to sleepy man)—Bay rum, sir? Sleepy man—No; Jamaica.

Sleeplessness.

Narcotics and sedatives murder sleep; the unnatural stupor is soon followed by ill effects. Simmons' Liver Regulator removes the cause of restlessness and sleeplessness by regulating the bowels, by establishing good digestion and by quieting the nerves.

"I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and loss of sleep. As soon as I feel the least nervous I take a dose of Simmons' Liver Regulator, and sleep all night."

Likes A Party Paper.

"Theoretically, I suppose we should most admire an entirely non-partisan and politically independent press," said Col. Bob Ingersoll some days ago, as we were talking of newspapers.

"We ought to receive our news of public men and their official actions," he continued, "in cold, hard, unbiased facts and form our opinion of them. But we don't. We like the partisan papers. We want our side to get the little the best of it. If our party has made a foolish move or countenanced an action that we don't approve of personally we like to read of it rather toned down and smoothed over, or even championed as right, outside of our political family. We like to see the other fellows' weak side shown up. It is human nature. Of course it isn't right, but it's the way with men of partisan politics."

Giovanni Morosini was recently asked by a Saratoga clergyman if Jay Gould "keeps the Sabbath?" "Of course he does," answered Morosini. "He keeps anything he lays his hands on."—Chicago Tribune.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Ayer's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A Portland hunter says that while camping out at Craig mountain, I. T., he was attacked in the night by owls and he killed seven with a club.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla will cure your catarrh, and remove that sickening odor of the breath.

Cheated Himself—Gasket—Yes! sir, I'm a self-made man. Smothered Voice—Then you cheated yourself.

For bilious fevers and malarial disorders, use Ayer's Ague Cure. Its success is guaranteed if taken according to directions.

The fly-wheel is the anarchist of mechanics. It is always engaged in revolutions.

CAUTION TO MOTHERS.

Every mother is cautioned against giving her child laudanum or paregoric; it creates an unnatural craving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Ayer's Baby Soother is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.
