Constipation

Demand prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They are an admirable Liver and After-dinner pill, and everywhere endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. I. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an for constipation and indigestion, and are never without them in the house."—Moses Grenier, Lowell, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Pills, for liver troubles and indigestion, during many years, and have always found them prompt and efficient in their action."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 30 Middle St., Hartford, Conn.

"Having been troubled with constiveness, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say that they have served me better than any other medicine. I arrive at this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel T. Jones, Oak St., Boston, Mass.

BRISTOL BAY NEWS.

The "Wildwood" is Reported Aground.

The bark Sonoma arrived in port yesterday morning, says the S. F. Chronicle of August 30th, eighteen days from Bristol bay, with 20,000 cases of salmon consigned to D. L. Beck & Co. The Sonoma reported that she left the barks Wildwood, Electra and the Will W. Case at Bristol bay. The former was to sail the day after the Sonoma, and the two last named were to follow on August 20th. The Sonoma docked at Mission street wharf 1, where she commenced discharging her cargo immediately. A Chronicle reporter went on board the bark, and from what he learned, it is more than probable that the Wildwood did not follow the Sonoma on the next day. She stuck on a sandbank in the New Chigak river on the day previous to the sailing of the Sonoma, and she had not got off when the latter vessel left. The Wildwood was loaded with 28,000 cases of salmon, and it is thought that it will be necessary to lighten all of this stuff before she can get off; so her arrival here will be a matter of conjecture until the Case or the Electra gets into port.

While the Sonoma was lying in the New Chigak river, one of the sailors named Oswald Smith fell overboard, and although every attempt was made to save him, he was drowned before the eyes of his companions. This occurred on July 13th, and the body was recovered on the 26th and buried ashore. Smith was about 37 years old, and was a native of Denmark. His shipmates claim that he was quite wealthy, having at least $5,000 in the banks of this city. As far as is known, he had no relations on this coast.

Dan Ferguson, a fisherman, who has been for many years on Bristol bay and the New Chigak river, who lost the sight of one of his eyes some years ago, went totally blind while the Sonoma was at the bay. A small collection was made for the unfortunate sailor, and he was sent to San Francisco on the Jennie Stella to receive medical attendance. After his departure another collection was taken up, and $700 was raised for him, the contributors being the Arctic Packing company, the Scandinavian Canning company, and the New Chigak company.

Sleeplessness.

Narcotics and sedatives murder sleep; the natural slumber is soon followed by ill effects. Simmons' Liver Regulator removes the cause of restlessness and sleeplessness by regulating the bowels, by establishing good digestion and by quieting the nerves.

"I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and loss of sleep. As soon as I feel the least nervous I take a dose of Simmons' Liver Regulator, and sleep all night."—Mrs. R. BRYANT, Griswoldville, Ga.

In Ningura county, New York, farms sold at $100 per acre fifteen years ago. They can now be bought at from $40 to $60, and almost every one in the county is for sale.

Stage Robber Arrested.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—A telegram from Marquette, Mich., states that the Gogebic stage robber was arrested yesterday morning at Republic, Mich. The robber's name is Raymond Holzhey and he was captured by city marshal Glade at Republic and will be taken to Bessemer to answer for the killing of A. Fleischbein, of Belden, Ill., at Gogebic on Monday last. When searched at the jail three revolvers, three gold watches, four pocket books and various other articles were found on his person. He confessed being the perpetrator of the robbery of the Milwaukee & Northern train at Ellis Junction last May and at Lake Gogebic last Monday. Among the effects found on him was the pocket book of Fleischbein. He is now giving a detailed statement of his various crimes.

Catarrh Cured.

A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren St., New York City, will receive the recipe free of charge.

"I can't understand all this fuss about using electricity for execution," remarked Judge Lynch of Kansas reflectively. "In our section we have used the telegraph poles for years."—Life.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE

Denote an impure state of the blood and are looked upon by many with suspicion. Ayer's Blood Elixir will remove all impurities and leave the complexion smooth and clear. There is nothing that will so thoroughly build up the constitution, purify and strengthen the whole system. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

"The World's Fair," So say half a score of exchanges. But the man who is unfortunate will tell you the world's foul. However, it is all one, for Shakespeare says, "Fair is foul, and foul is fair."

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Ayer's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The latest society spoken of in Oklahoma is the "Pay Nothing." It is said to be alarmingly prosperous. The password is, "Lend me a dollar;" the response, "Broke."

CAUTION TO MOTHERS.

Every mother is cautioned against giving her child laudanum or paregoric; it creates an unnatural craving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Ayer's Baby Sooter is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A Rare Entertainment.—Gus—What did you think of our amateur theatricals, Miss Mamie? Rather a rare entertainment, was it not? Miss Mamie—Well—er—yes; it wasn't very well done, to be sure.
