DYSPEPSIA. It is misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a distasteful arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspepsias, two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia of the stomach is characterized by those, fleshy and pigmented have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are characterized by too gloomy forebodings. Some dyspepsias are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability. Dyspepsia may take one thing or another. The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will use SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear. "My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—Wm. M. Keenan, Fort Valley, Ga.

A GIRL ROBS A FARMER, And Carries Away the Plunder Concealed in Her Bustle. Last week, says the Wasco Sun, a man and his family traveling in a wagon, camped at Thomas Condon's place at Cold Creek. The weather was stormy, and Tom invited them to sleep in the house. The daughter, aged about seventeen, asked permission to comb her hair and primp up a little, which was, of course, granted. The next day Tom had occasion to use some silver and went into the bedroom after his purse which had been lying on the bureau. He didn't find it at once, but after a careful search discovered it, empty, under the bureau. Mrs. Condon, at the same time, in assisting him, discovered that she had lost a diamond pin, a gold pencil, and various other light articles. Condon very naturally connected the disappearance of the articles with his late visitors, and, mounting his horse, followed them. He made the girl get out of the wagon and began to search her, soon finding the money (about $80) and the pencil in her stocking; the pin he found in the top of her shoe, and several yards of lace and other trappings were found in her bustle. It was a delicate task, and the gentle breezes of Cold Creek could no doubt a tale unfold if they could but talk, of virtue that gets its reward and vice that when Condon got through with it, was of "hideous mien" and without a bustle. After concluding his search of the girl's clothing he examined the contents of the wagon, and was rewarded by finding a whip and a bridle, curry combs and numerous other articles which the old man had pulled from the barn while his buxom daughter was working the house. It is a safe bet that the next fair immigrant who camps at Cold Creek will comb her abundant tresses in the open air, and admire herself, the best she can, in the primitive way, by her reflection in the limpid waters of the creek. Condon is a Democrat, but we think president Harrison could get out of the difficulty of appointing a collector of customs at Portland by giving him the place. He is entitled to it under the civil service rules.

Heart Disease. Read the hospital reports, read the mortuary reports, read the medical publications, read the daily newspapers, and you will find that heart disease is the most common, and the most dangerous, of all diseases. It is the cause of the death of many, and how sudden are the deaths it causes. Then read Dr. Flint's Treatise on Heart Disease, and learn what it is, what causes it, what diseases it gives rise to, what its symptoms are, and how it may be attacked. If you find that you have heart disease, ask your druggist for a bottle of DR. FLINT'S REMEDY. The treatise may be had on application to Mack Drug Co., N. Y.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The hog will eat food half dirt, but he enjoys clean food better and thrives better on a pure article. A DUTY TO YOURSELF. It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for such diseases as all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not grip. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The golden rod, which promises to be adopted as the national flower, is in the height of its season now.
