For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Various News Notes From the Metropolis

PORTLAND, Sept. 10.—The fall meeting of the Portland speed association opened to-day at City View park. In spite of the threatening weather the attendance was very large. The races were good and suit the public, but were bad for the talent, as none of the favorites were winners.

The decision of the judges in the first race caused great dissatisfaction to Montana owners and sports. It is rumored that several stables will withdraw their horses from the meeting. Jack Doud, owner of "Sunday" and "Ju Ju" publicly denounced the judges, at the same time withdrawing his horses. The crowd evidently sided with the judges.

The first race was a quarter-mile and repeat. "Cyclone" was a big favorite in the pools, selling at twenty, in a field of six, ten.

First heat—"Sunday" won, "Jim Miller" second, "Cyclone" third. Time, twenty-three and three-quarters. Mutuals, $68.

Second heat—"Jim Miller" won; "White Cloud" second; "Cyclone" third. Time, twenty-four and three-quarters.

Third heat—"Jim Miller" won first and second money, "Sunday" fouling. Time, twenty-four.

The second race was a mile dash: "Frank Brady" first, "Little Phil" second, "Coloma" third. Time 1:34.

Trotting race, 2:30 class; three in five for a purse of six hundred dollars. Seven entries: "Alta," "Alting," "Lady Maud," "Pricemont," "S. S.," "Susie S.," "Kitty Ham."

The first heat—"Alta" first, "Lady Maud" second, "Alting" third. Time, 2:29.

Race postponed until to-morrow at one o'clock.

CHILD KILLED BY A FALL.
Shortly before noon to-day a little four year old daughter of Mr. William Hydeway fell from the top of a landing of the stairway in the International hotel, bounding down to the first floor. She was picked up in an unconscious condition. Dr. Cantorhorne was summoned. It was learned upon examination that she had sustained a fracture of the base of the skull and also at the right side of the skull from the effects of which she died.

DIED OF HIS INJURIES.
W. W. Shoffner the freight conductor who was run over by the freight train at the Southern Pacific east side yard yesterday morning at 11:45 died last evening at 8 o'clock at St. Vincent's hospital.

JIM TURK AND CAPT. STEVENS.

issued the following demand to Mr. Turk which was served by an officer of the justice court.
PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 7th,
To Mr. Jas. Turk, Portland, Oregon:
Sirs:—As attorney for Capt. Thomas Stevenson of the British ship Lord Canning I demand of you the immediate return to said ship of the seamen belonging to it which you have heretofore enticed and persuaded to leave and depart from said vessel without permission of the master, Thos. Stevenson the officer commanding the vessel. Unless you comply herewith by Monday evening Sept. 9, the law will be enforced against you.
(Signed) S. H. GREENE, Attorney.

Messrs. Balfour, Guthrie & Co., charterers of the vessel are under the impression that the board of trade of this city should take up the matter of prosecuting Turk in order to establish a precedent if possible. As it appears that certain actions have been taken which don't please the committee appointed to attend to these matters until this disorder is regulated, and they don't wish to take any decisive legal steps.
The agent of Balfour, Guthrie & Co. says he feels satisfied that the board should take up the matter and that it will in a short time do so. "We do not," said he, "care to undertake a measure which is not properly our province. If we institute the proceedings and win the case thereby establishing the validity of the laws, and its feasibility as well, the expense and and trouble will all be ours, to the board's and everybody else's profit."
