

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889.

A BAREFACED LIE.

It is an absolute fact that the "pan-per laborer" which we hear so much about in England, can buy more for his day's work than the "well paid" American laborer with what he receives for his day's work.—State Democrat, 7.

The above is a sample of slush from the Democratic paper at Salem, Gov. Pennoyer's official organ and the presumed exponent of the Democratic party of the state.

It is so palpable a lie and demonstrates ignorance on the part of the Democrat so completely that it requires no more than publication to evince its falsity.

Intelligent Democrats will doubtless repudiate so absolute an endorsement of free trade, and will feel like squelching the indiscreet editor who champions free trade so openly and foolishly.

The following, in connection with the extract at the head of this article, furnishes good reading; bearing in mind the wages the same class of workmen receive in this country.

This is from the sworn statement of inspector Nathaniel McKay, sent to make an impartial report on this very matter:

I visited London docks at 6:30 one morning to hear the roll-call for laborers. A thousand men were clamoring for employment. I asked one laborer what he got. He said 4 1/2d. per hour.
These are what we call 'longshoremen.' A carpenter at work on a building near by said he was getting 9d. per hour, and his assistant was paid 5 1/2d.
The carpenter told me he paid 15s. per week for rent. His assistant said that he paid 4s. 6d. for one room and "privileges." This carpenter added that his wife worked when she could, and got 2s. a day. I waited until 8 o'clock to see the workmen on this building eat their breakfast. Four of them had banded together, made some tea in a big kettle, and brought out bread and butter only. "That's all for breakfast, sir," said one. He explained that they usually had meat for dinner as late in the week as Wednesday, because they always had enough left over after their Sunday meal to last till that time. From Wednesday until the next Sunday they went without meat, except, perhaps, bacon. The carpenter said:
"I get up at 4 o'clock in the morning, and work from 6 until 5:30. When I am out of work for three days at once there is not a farthing in the house, and we must live on what my wife earns." The foreman of the gang had half a loaf of bread with a hole in it about two inches square. In that hole he had placed some butter.
That was the way he carried it to his work. He made some tea; most of the other workmen, however, had a herring a piece besides the bread and tea. One fellow, luckier than the rest, had a piece of meat pie for dinner.

Comparison is invited between the Democrat's statement and inspector McKay's statement.

How would American workmen like to work for such free trade wages and live on such free trade food?

ADVICE FROM BELOW STAIRS.

"Bridget, I would give all my wealth for half of your health."
"Sure, ma'am, you need only give 5s. for that's the price of six bottles of J. V. S., as the boys call it. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla will make you as strong as me, ma'am."

Mrs. J. Barron, of 142 Seventh street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla with immense benefit.
It is perfectly splendid to build up nervous, run-down and worn out women." Mrs. Fred Loy, of 327 Ellis street, Mrs. G. Werner of 235, Berry street, and hundreds of others relate the same experience with the pure vegetable juices of this California compound.

Their Business Booming.
Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at J. W.
Cona's Drug Store as his giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured.
You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

DYSPEPSIA.

It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach.
The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspeptics of active mental power and a bilious temperament are subject to Sick Headaches; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper.
Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain.

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach,
Expel foul gases,
Allay Irritation,
Assist Digestion,
and, at the same time

Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—Wm. M. Kansas, Fort Valley, Ga.
