 PORTLAND, Sept. 14.—The cylinder head of the steamer Michigan blew out this morning, which will delay the sailing of the vessel twenty-four hours.
 THE TURK CASE.
 Jas. Turk, who was indicted by the grand jury a few days ago, is evading the sheriff, who cannot find him. Captain Stevenson, of the ship Lord Canby, came up from Astoria last night and this morning counsel for Balfour, Guthrie & Co., consignees of the Lord Canby, appeared before Judge Stearns and asked that the case against Turk be tried before the 20th, as the ship has her cargo and that date is the time fixed for sailing, which she cannot do without her master Stevenson and the first mate, who are under bonds to appear as witnesses against James Turk. The witnesses manifest no desire to evade testifying against the defendant, but they allege that in the event that they are precluded from sailing on the 20th, the postponement might be the means of incurring considerable loss to the owners of the vessel, if District attorney McGinn will not allow the vessel to depart within a reasonable time, unless Turk is apprehended before the 20th instant. The district attorney wishes to enforce the law.
 PERSONAL.
 Samuel Elmore and wife and C. W. Falton return to Astoria to-night.
 SLIPPERY JOE.
 Joe Holladay came up from Astoria last night in charge of the officers. During the trip Holladay did not sleep a wink, and upon the arrival of the steamer here he asked the officers for permission to go to his own house to get some rest, saying, "It is pretty hard on a man seventy years of age to be deprived of his sleep. You need have no uneasiness about me for I'll surely be in court half past nine."
 Lonsbury and Joe Knott accompanied Holladay to his home. Knott kept his eye on the front door till Lonsbury returned for his man a few minutes before the session of Judge Stearns' court. They found the house deserted by Holladay after making a thorough search for him upon the premises. The theory is that he must have sealed the high fence in the rear of his house, and so escaped.
 BAR ROUND AT RANDON.
 The Dolphin is reported bar round at Randon in company with two other schooners with but eight feet of water on the bar, while the Dolphin draws nine feet.
 ALASKA SALMON.
 Following is a report of Alaska salmon to arrive on the last steamer at San Francisco: Alaska Commercial Co. 50,000 cases; Aleutian island (W. Barker) 43,000; Kodiak 23,000; Geo. W. Hume 23,000; Alaska Improvement Co., 20,500; Arctic Packing Co., 34,000; Afoqnak 22,000; Royal 12,500; Alitak Packing Co., 12,500; Larsen & Rolf 7,000; Bristol Bay Alaska Commercial Co., 28,000; Arctic Packing Co., 24,000; Scandinavian 19,000; Bradford 28,000; Pacific Whaling Co., Copper River 16,000; three other canneries 9,000 cases; total 371,000 cases.
 THEY FEEL INTERESTED.
 Portlanders eagerly inquire about Astoria real estate, the Astoria hose team's prospects at Tacoma, and Astoria's railroad, particularly the latter.
 THE NEW BAR TUG.
 The O. R. & N. tug Wallowa will be inspected Monday and will go down to Astoria next Tuesday.
 THE STORM OVER.
 NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The storm has at last blown over and the sun is shining once more, but a feeling of uneasiness as to the safety of vessels still remains keen, as there are several steamers and sailing vessels overdue from which no news is yet received. Telegraphic communication between here and a number of ports is cut off making it impossible to learn anything. Communication with Sandy Hook is all right again. A score of storm delayed vessels passed up towards quarantine; all show evidence of having passed through a severe storm.
 A SHIPWRECKED CREW.
 FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 14.—The steamer Saxon arrived from Philadelphia this morning. She had on board the captain and seamen of the shipwrecked schooner William O. Snow of Taunton, which put into the Delaware breakwater during the storm, but was sunk by a collision. The crew were lashed in the rigging for forty-eight hours before being rescued.
 ANOTHER SHIPWRECKED CREW.
 NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—A pilot boat this morning brought here the captain and crew of eleven, of the German bark Urna, which sank in the recent storm.
 AND STILL ANOTHER.
 BOSTON, Sept. 14.—The bark Caterina, from Pensacola was abandoned in a sinking condition on September 11. Captain Mortin and five of her crew were drowned. The remaining seven were rescued and landed at Boston by the steamer Dana.
 TO PERPETUATE HIS MEMORY.
 FORT LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 14.—A statue of General Grant was unveiled here to-day. The ceremonies were quite impressive and were witnessed by thousands of visitors and excursionists from Missouri and Nebraska.
 A SENSATIONAL STORY.
 NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Evening Sun prints a sensational story of an attempt to rob the estate of the late Christopher Meyer of $7,000,000 by means of forgery and charges the Henry S. Ives with the crime. The Sun's head lines are as follows: "Ives as a Forger." "Details of His Bold Scheme to Rob Christopher Meyer's Estate of $7,000,000 Booty." "Ives Traced the Dead Man's Initials,"

Stayner Touched Them Up." "Perjury but an Incident." "The Master Thief Calmly Told Woodruff the Details He Was to Swear To."
 U. S. ATTORNEY FOR ALASKA.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The president left Deer park this morning. Before leaving he appointed Charles S. Johnson of Nebraska, United States attorney for Alaska.
 INFANTRY PRACTICE MARCH.
 VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Sept. 14.—Six companies of infantry under the command of Colonel Anderson left here at 9 A. M. by The Dalles boat enroute to Cayuse station, on their practice march.
 WORK WILL BE RESUMED.
 LONDON, Sept. 14.—The master lightermen have conceded the terms demanded by their men and the last obstacle to the full resumption of work is removed. The men will resume work on Monday.

 Boils and pimples and other affections arising from impure blood may appear at this season, when the blood is heated. Hood's Sarsaparilla removes the cause of these troubles by purifying, vitalizing, and enriching the blood, and at the same time it gives strength to the whole system.
 Notice to Mariners.
 Notice is hereby given that the 2nd class whistling buoy, painted red and lettered "Gray's Harbor" in white, has been replaced in its former position 1 1/2 miles outside of the bar, off entrance to Gray's Harbor, W. T.
 Pilots and masters of vessels are requested to notify me, or the light house inspector at San Francisco, should they see the whistling buoy that lately went adrift from the above position.

 Essie Tittell Dramatic Co.
 To-morrow evening Astorians are to be treated to something in the way of a dramatic event by the first appearance of Miss Essie Tittell and her superb dramatic company. The Los Angeles Tribune says:
 In addition to the praises due Miss Essie Tittell as an artiste, it may also be added that she is a lady of rare grace and beauty, both in form and feature. The audience anticipated a rare treat and in this they were not disappointed, for never within the history of the Grand opera house has a performance of such rare excellence been presented behind the footlights or has so gifted an actress trod its boards. It was acting and every shrug of the shoulder, every toss of the head, every elevation of the eyebrows speaks volumes. The dialogue of the piece is framed in elegant language. Reserved seats now on sale at the New York Novelty Store.
 Why do you pay rent when you can borrow money to build your house? If you need money in any line of business, you can borrow it at the low rate of six per cent. per annum of the American Building & Loan Association, now established in Astoria. Loans made on good real estate security, or on shares of the members. Agents can be found at the Occident hotel for a few more days.
