

Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustre and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be Abundant and Glossy, but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."—R. T. Schmitt, Dickson, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill.

A PLANTERS EXPERIENCE.
"My plantation is in a malarial district where fever and ague prevail. I employ 150 hands; frequently half of them were sick. I was nearly discouraged when I began the use of

Tutt's Pills
The result was marvellous. My men became strong and hearty, and I have had no further trouble. With these pills, I would not fear to live in any swamp."—E. RIVAL, Bayou Sara, La.

Fisherman Taffe and Gov. Pennoyer.

I. H. Taffe, the Celilo fisherman, does some queer things. Not long ago, when governor Pennoyer got after him with a sharp stick for fishing during the close season, he sent him a telegram, telling him to make all the trouble for the state while in office, "which will not be long, you bet." His last break is the appended notice, which appeared in the advertising columns of the Oregonian:

THE CELILO FISHERY FOR RENT FOR ONE YEAR.

I will rent on favorable terms to responsible parties the Celilo fishery for one year, or until the expiration of Pennoyer's term in office. The present governor has been bounding the since his election, which, I believe, was his chief motive in seeking the office. I will give him a rest, since he won't me.

I. H. TAFFE.

Governor Pennoyer saw the notice as soon as the Oregonian reached the executive department at Salem yesterday. When he read it he laughed heartily and said:

"I did not give Mr. Taffe trouble when he fished in season, but when he caught salmon in defiance of law. I felt it my duty to go after him."

President Reed, of the fish commission, has returned from Celilo, where he investigated the governor's charge that Taffe was shipping salmon.

"Upon my arrival at Celilo I found a box of fish at Taffe's fishery ready for shipment, but I did not arrest Mr. Taffe, and will not unless there exists a law prohibiting the shipping of salmon in close season, or the catching of salmon in Washington territory in September. So far as I could discover, Mr. Taffe is not fishing on the Oregon side, as there is not enough water to do so. He is buying salmon from Indians, who catch them in Washington territory, and take them to Oregon. These Indians use lines, nets and spears, and catch from 100 to 1000 pounds a day."—Oregonian, 19.

Headaches, biliousness, and liver troubles are promptly cured by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Equally safe for young or old.

One day three boys came home with a big white rabbit which some neighbor had given them, and their father, fearing damage to his books if the animal was let loose in the house, told them to dig a burrow in the back yard and put their pet in it. They did so. Next morning they came racing to their father's room. "Papa! papa! Come out in the yard. We've found out how rabbits grow!" "What on earth do you mean, children?" "Why you know we planted bunny last night. Well, there's a whole lot of little rabbits there now—ten of 'em, all in one hill!"

There Are no Happy Days.

For those who continue to rise unrefreshed after nights of unrest. Nervousness, insomnia, indigestion—these constitute a triple alliance that perpetually wars against man's comfort, and robs both brain and body of tranquility. Combat the trio for a time with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and it will give ground and eventually fly the field. The basis of reform is the rectification of digestion, for the brain and nerve trouble is simply a reflex of the disturbance of that all important function. A winged angel before each meal of the national stomachic leavens facile digestion, and a repetition of the pleasant dose before retiring promotes nerve and muscle invigorating sleep. Associated with indigestion we usually find biliousness and constipation. But together or independent of each other, these maladies are subjected by the Bitters, which also remedies kidney trouble, rheumatism, neuralgia and malaria.

Education in Alaska.
H. N. K. Dawson, commissioner of education, has filed with the secretary of the interior his annual report for the year ended June 30, 1889. In regard to education in Alaska the commissioner states that there are thirteen teachers employed there, and in addition several mission schools, and an industrial boarding school is maintained. The commissioner suggests that supervision of industrial training and education in mission schools be placed under the immediate control of the government. He also recommends that native teachers be employed in public schools, and that only teachers who speak the native language be employed. In this way, he thinks, the natives will more rapidly acquire the English language, and methods of civilized life.
