Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustre and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be Abundant and Glossy, but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."—R. T. Schmittou, Dickson, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill.

A PLANTERS EXPERIENCE.

"My plantation is in a malarial district where fever and ague prevail. I employ 150 hands; frequently half of them were sick. I was nearly discouraged when I began the use of

Tutt's Pills
The result was marvellous. My men became strong and hearty, and I have had no further trouble. With these pills, I would not fear to live in any swamp."—E. RIVAL, Bayou Sara, La.

THE GALLANT RESCUES.

Hurrah for the gallant Rescues,
Our firemen brave and true,
They put on a spurt, and won the first squirt
And showed what Astoria could do.
They met all the teams at Tacoma
And beat them before their eyes.
Though Rainey the chief, did try to play
For to cheat the brave boys of their prize.

But the big hearted boys of Astoria
In confidence did not lag,
They stuck to their ground, and Rainey
Soon found
That at last he run into a "snag."
They showed that the boys of Astoria
Had plenty of grit and sand.
And in case of a bustle, they knew how to hustle
And hold the best tramps in their hand.

They showed the chief fool of Tacoma,
The champion "beat" of the west,
That the boys they were stickers, and thoroughbred kickers.
If once they were put to the test
They shut up the great J. D. Rainey,
And forced him to take a back seat.
He looked kind of puzzled, to find himself muzzled;
And see his pet schemes getting beat.

Again let us cheer for the "Rescues"
Astoria's pride and boast.
They showed they were plucky, and "happy go lucky."
The pride of the northwest coast.
Another three cheers for the trainer
That coached them to win the feat.
The fact they're unfurled to the whole of the world
That Astorians cannot be beat.

And again we must cheer for the ladies,
Who acted loyal and true.
With the bravest of hearts, they well
done their parts
And stuck to the boys in blue.
They cheered our heroes in action
While the boys were winning renown.
Long may they live, their blessings to give
To the boys of Astoria town.

JOSEPH CORCORAN.

The Speech of a Benefactor.

Among the patrons of a certain American university is a Mr. M—, who, beside being a generous broad minded, although very illiterate merchant, is in high esteem in that seat of learning on account of the considerable financial aid he has from time to time furnished. At the Alumni dinner once, he was called upon for a speech, but declined. The guests would not be put off in that summary manner, and applauded until Mr. M— was forced to get on his feet. With much confusion the orator began by saying: "My friends, you know I was not a college man. Even now I don't know whether the refreshment class comes previously before the sycamore class or previously after, but—" The noise of mingled laughter and applause which followed drowned the conclusion of the sentence, and Mr. M— sat down, looking confused, but smiling, with the vague consciousness that he had made a "hit," although he was not exactly aware of its precise nature.—Boston Advertiser.

Headaches, biliousness, and liver troubles are promptly cured by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Equally safe for young or old.

The gypsy knows no God and cannot comprehend or believe the teachings of revealed religion.

A CHILD KILLED.
Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The St. Louis Republic prints a map showing a 500 mile circle drawn around a region having St. Louis for its center, and claims that it incloses a population numbering 23,714,098 and a railroad mileage of 77,571 miles.

Story of The President.

"We want a new postmaster at Wash.," said the applicant. "For what reason?" demanded the president. "The incumbent is a Democrat," was the reply. That can hardly be considered sufficient cause for a change, continued the president. "Well, sir," retorted the applicant, "when we were beating about the woods looking for votes, if I remember correctly, Mr. Cleveland out of office was that he was a Democrat." The president was puzzled for an instant, but he returned to the charge. "That may be," he remarked, "but if I remember correctly, Mr. Cleveland was permitted to serve out his term, and I guess that is about the privilege we shall have to grant your postmaster."—Indianapolis dispatch to N. Y. Evening Post.

WE CAN AND DO Guarantee Ayer's Blood Elixir for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other preparations for blood diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilitic poisoning, Ulcers, Eruptions and Pimples. It purifies the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution. J. W. Conn, Druggist.
