

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1889.

MANY years ago, while Mr. Quincy was on a visit to Washington, Justice Story entertained him with an account of the social life of himself, and his associates on the supreme bench. "We usually dine together," he said, "at six o'clock, very quietly and simply. We have wine only when it rains." And after pausing a little on this statement, he added, with judicial gravity: "But sometimes the chief justice will say before we rise from the table, 'Mr. Story, look out of the window and see whether it is raining,' and when I report that the weather appears to be fair, he will say, 'So much the better. Our jurisdiction is so vast that according to the doctrine of chances, if the weather is fair here it must be raining in some other part of the country; therefore we will have a little wine to-day.'"

In no branch of the national administration has better work been done in recent years than in the navy department. The beginnings of a real navy, adapted to modern conditions, have apparently at last been made. The results attained on the recent trial of the new cruiser Baltimore furnish a gratifying indication of the possibilities within the reach of American naval administrators and American ship builders. The Baltimore made an average speed per hour of 19.6 knots and a maximum speed of 20.2 knots for one hour, the maximum speed being made in the third hour, or after the boilers and engines had been for two hours driven under forced draft. The exact computations as to horse power, etc., have not yet been finished, but it is asserted that the average horse power developed was as much, if not more, than 10,000. This is 1,000 horse power in excess of the contract requirements, which only called for 9,000 horse power. The speed attained by the Baltimore has been exceeded by only two among the world's cruisers, viz., the Piemonte of the Italian navy, which has a record of 22.3 knots, and the Reina Regente of the Spanish navy, which has a record of 20.6 knots per hour.

HE TOOK THE WRONG MEDICINE.

Robert Stewart, of Potaluma, recently had a queer experience. He writes: "Carbuncles and boils afflicted my face and neck for weeks. Finally I procured a bottle of one of the leading sarsaparillas. To my surprise it made matters worse. This may be some loss faith in sarsaparillas, but seeing a statement that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla dried up boils and face eruptions instead of forcing more out as the potash sarsaparillas do, I bought a bottle. The effect was astonishing. The carbuncles and boils began to dry up, and in two weeks my face was well and smooth as ever. My brother also took a bottle with the same benefit. ROBERT STEWART, Potaluma, Cal."

[Explanatory Note—The mineral iodide of potash, which is the basis of nearly all other sarsaparillas, attacks the blood directly, hence forces impurities through the skin, creating more boils and pimples. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla acts oppositely. Its vegetable alteratives stimulate the various excretory organs and thus eliminate all impurities through the natural channels, hence dries up pimples and skin eruptions at once. The above testimonial is a case in point.]

A More Complete Survey. Captain W. Young, United States engineer, has gone to Astoria to make arrangements for a more complete survey of Coos bay bar. The party now engaged in making a survey of the mouth of the Columbia will probably be through with that job in about ten days, and most likely will then be sent to Coos bay.—Oregonian, 28.

A Sound Legal Opinion. E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Texas says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxon, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died had it not been for Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malaria Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50 cents and $1. at Jno C. Dement's.

Meals Cooked to Order. Private rooms for ladies and families at Central Restaurant, next to Foard & Stokes.

The Collision Between The Steamers "Albatross" and "Bonita."

PORTLAND, Sept. 28.—This morning the party of visiting newspaper men from the interior and Washington territory invited to attend a banquet tendered the journalistic fraternity at the exposition building to-night left here for Oswego to inspect the iron mines, works, etc. The names of all the members of the press who went on the excursion could not be obtained but the following were among the number: Marion Egbert, of the Walla Walla Statesman; S. M. Toran, of the Eugene Register; Charles Messer, of the Oregon Mist; St. Helens: W. A. Wheeler, of the Vindicator, East Portland; Irving McQuay, of the Press, Athens; F. W. Chausse, of the Cottage Grove Leader; E. C. Pentland, of the West Side, Independence; Jno. O. Sparks, same, Frank W. Beach, Examiner, Lake County; J. B. Bowen, Democrat, Baker City; A. B. McMillan, Wasco Sun; C. C. Daugherty, Dallas Observer; E. H. Flagg, Democrat, Hillsboro; J. M. Cummins, Herald, Wallula; Homer H. Hallock, East Oregonian; F. J. Parker, Walla Walla Statesman; J. C. Cronin, North Pacific Newspaper Union; Frank C. Angle, Journal, Shelton, W. T.

A NOVEL EXHIBITION. There is to be a novel exhibition at one of the suburban resorts during the exposition which will doubtless create great interest. It is to be a cowboy tournament under the auspices of the North Western Cattle Co., and the contestants will come from Montana, Washington, Idaho, California and Oregon. The competitions will be intensely interesting as some valuable prizes and trophies will be awarded. Some of the leading cattle men of this section are interesting themselves so that the most interesting and exciting tournament can be expected. The contests will be for all round horse and cattle handling.

THE JURY CINCHED CLINTON. Yesterday afternoon at a late hour, R. Clinton alias Perry, charged with forging the name of L. Zimmerman to an order authorizing the Oregon Times to insert an advertisement for him was given to the jury. Clinton did not deny that he forged the name, but in his defense stated that none could have been injured by his offense as he would have received no commission from the Times in the event that Zimmerman refused to pay for the ad. The jury were out all night but at 9:30 o'clock this morning they returned a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment, recommending Clinton to the mercy of the court.

A REMOVED PRIZE FIGHT. It is rumored in sporting circles that a prize fight to the finish with six-ounce gloves, is to take place in this city to-night. One of the contestants is from Buffalo and the other claims to be an Oregon boy. The former weighs 148 pounds when stripped, and the latter 125 pounds. Considerable betting has been done on the result. The odds are in favor of the Buffalo boy as he is the heavier. Local sportsmen got up the match and attended to the training. The fight will, it is said, take place between midnight and one o'clock to-morrow morning.

THE RECENT COLLISION. It is not yet known whether the O. R. & N. Co. will ask for an investigation of the collision between the U. S. fish commission steamer Albatross and the steamer Bonita, which occurred yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. It is claimed that the Albatross was anchored out of her proper position, and was directly in the channel. There was a heavy fog hanging over the river at the time and the Bonita, while running directly by, was on her course when she struck the ship. The Albatross's officers say they had their bell ringing all the time, but the crew of the Bonita, and others as well, deny that such was the case. They allege that as soon as the collision occurred the bell began to ring violently, but that a tarp was hoisted before. The vessel has no right to stop for the night in the open channel, but may be stopped at anchoring grounds north of the bridge.

GUNNING CHINESE. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Sun says concerning the growth of the Chinese colony in this city: The Chinese colony is growing. Hundreds of Chinamen have arrived at New York from Hong Kong this year. The police in the Chinese quarters say many houses for their accommodation have recently been taken, and new faces are often seen in them. It has been ascertained that they are coming here by a circuitous route to evade the exclusion act.

The Post, which is rated as the most conservative paper in New York city, sounds the following alarm: The Chinese have secured foothold in New York. If it becomes firmer, if the increase in Chinese population continues at the ratio of fifteen per cent as it has in the past year, despite the restriction act, what will be the effect on property values? That is a question that ought to trouble landlords. Should the Chinamen greatly increase, and should they pursue, with regard to other property, tactics similar to those adopted in the boycott case, the landlords would be entirely at their mercy. In fact, they are at their mercy now so far as Mott street is concerned. They might drive the Chinese out by concerted effort, but in order to secure Caucasian tenants in the vacant places, they would be obliged to renovate thoroughly, even should they not be compelled to tear down and rebuild the entire district.

VALUABLE PROPERTY SUEVED FOR. SAN DIEGO, Sept. 28.—A man named

Dooley proved up under the homestead law several years ago on 160 acres of land, now partially occupied by the Santa Fe depot and esplanade by the foot of D street. He left town and was absent several years. He has now returned and brings action to recover the property, which with the improvement is worth $500,000.

RAILROAD INTERESTS. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Mail and Express in a railroad article says: It is quite possible that all may be peace and harmony at the Northern Pacific meeting, but it will not be of a lion and lamb character. If Villard can secure his own way he will make a radical change in the board to assured his absolute control of the road.

THE NEW DISCOVERY. You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed to give time, or money refunded. Trial Bottles Free at J. W. Conn's Drugstore.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices, at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident hotel, Astoria.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS. Taylor, J. Sept. 28. State vs. Lorenzo Furio; on trial. State vs. Edward Murphy; on motion continued for term by consent. State vs. Wm. Dixon; verdict for defendant.

Dyspepsia

Makes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and, by thus overcoming the local symptoms, cures the Headache, Sick Headache, and refreshes the tired mind. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, and I did not get well of myself. After eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, parting, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my head refreshed and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PARKER, Watertown, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by druggists, 21c per bottle. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar
