THE AMERICAN CONGRESS. Washington, Oct. 1.—The department of state has informed delegates to the international American congress that they will be expected to report for organization at the department of state at noon on October 2nd. They will be received by secretary Blaine, who will deliver an address of welcome. They will organize by the election of a president, vice president and secretaries, and then proceed to the White House, where they will be formally presented to the presi-dent. It is understood that secretary Blaine intends to give them a dinner the same evening. The delegates are also officially informed that the resi-dence 1,801 I street has been secured for the use of the congress, and that subsequent meetings will be held there.
