A Satisfied Sucker-

"Why don't you cultivate a little style?" asked a Trout of a Sucker style?" asked a Trout of a Sucker whom he happened to meet. "Why do you insist on living in this mud hole and never visit the clear cold springs? Limber up your body and hire somebody to get a section of a rainbow and sprinkle it over you. I would not live like you for anything. grubbing away all the time for a meal in the mud. Flies form a delicious diet. Just look at that beauty there which has just dropped on the water. Just watch me take him and then envy the life of a Trout.'

Saying this the Trout made a dash for the fly and seized it. But the fly had buried in it a steel hook, and on the hook was a line, and on the line a rod, and an angler held the rod. The Tront soon disappeared from the water, and the next noise he made was when he was sizzling over a fire.

If may be nice enough to be a Trout," philosophized the Sucker, "but I would rather be a poor, de spised Sucker, with no rainbow attachments, in a mad hole than a Trout in a frying pan.'

The Knights of Labor.

St. Louis, Oct. 1.-The general executive board of the Knights of Labor began a session here to-day. General Master Workman Powderly said that the session was a regular one. Referring to the reports that people would bring charges against him, he said that he had come with his trunk full of papers bearing on the great southwestern strike, and stood ready to answer all charges. He said that he was opposed to the appointment of Furlong as chief of the government secret service. The reason is Furlong's persecution of the men engaged in the southwestern strike, who were innocent of all wrong doing. His protest, he said, is made both as an individual and as the spokesman of the Knights of Labor.
