A child was born Yesterday at Winlock, Wash., under most re-markable circumstances. The moth-er, Mrs. G. W. Dent, was on the Northern Pacific train, on her way to Northern Pacific train, on her way to this city to meet her husband. As the train stopped at Winlock, the mother went into the ladies toilet, where half an hour later she was found by the conductor, in a weak and helpless condition. The conductor summoned Dr. D. M. La Moree, of Chehalis, who was on the train, and Mrs. Dent was removed to a sleeping car, where it removed to a sleeping car, where it was learned that she had just given birth to a child. Just as the left Winlock the people at the station discovered a newly born infant lying discovered a newly oorn intant lying beside the track. It was picked up and taken to a house near by where a physician was summoned, and the infant, though considerably bruised by the fall, is now doing well. On the arrival of the train in this city Dr. La Moree had the mother removed to her residence. She is now resting easy. The father of the child has easy. The lather of the child has telegraphed for the tiny miss and she will be sent to this city to-day, if it is deemed advisable by the physicians. Naturally the incident created quite a sensation in the usually quiet town of Winlock. The child is a girl, and has a good healthy constitution make her way in the world into which she was so unceremoniously ushered. -Oregonian, 10.

A Fatal Widow.

"Ye a widder?" asked a long, lank, leathery woman of a distinguished looking lady dressed in full mourning on a railroad train out in Kansas.
"I am," was the reply, given coldly

"I am," was the reply, given coldly and haughtily.
"I reckoned so," said the woman calmly, "and I know how to sympathize with you, specially if he was taken sudden like. I've laid away four good husbands of my own and all taken suddent. One of 'em was blowed up in a mine; another got killed in a sawmill; Bill Johnson got kicked to death by a mule and Sam Higgins fell off the ruft of the house. My fifth man is out in the smoking car, and I'm skeered every minnit for fear he'll tumble out o' the winder and break his neck. luck seems to be so ag'in me. That's a right good piece o' crape in your veil. I'd like some like it if I ever have to get any more, and—oh, going to change your seat, eh? It is sunny on this side. Guess I'll move over too and set with you until my man man gits back if he ever does git back!"—Time.

PEOPLE EVERYWHERE Confirm our statement when we say that Acker's English Remedy is in every way superior to any and all other preparations for the Throat and Lungs. In Whooping Cough and Croup it is magic and relieves at once. We offer you a sample bottle free. Remember, this Remedy is sold on a postive guarantee, by J. W. Conn, Druggist,

Mrs. Peter Epparson, of Sequim, Clallam county, Wash, met with a painful accident last Sunday. While crossing over some old logs, a small sapling became loosened and struck the lady under the left cheek, completely tearing the whole side of her face away, leaving the bare bones ex-posed. She was twenty-four hours without medical aid, and is not ex-

A DUTY TO YOURSELF. It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for th same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W Conn, Druggist.

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Judge Day decides that the electrical execution law is constitutional, and remands Kemmeler to the custody of the warden of Auburn prison. The judge in his opinion which is lengthy says: "Before a statute can rightly be abrogated, there should be judicial knowledge that the punishment therein provided is cruel and unusual. There is no such knowledge, and Kemmeler's contention fails."
