Ask For Ayer's

Sarsaparilla, and be sure you get the best.

Sarsaparilla
to any other. The four-hundred of medicinal medicines, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is still the most popular, being in greater demand than all others combined.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is selling faster than ever before. I never hesitate to recommend it."—George W. Whitman, Druggist, Albany, Ind.

"I am safe in saying that my sales of Ayer's Sarsaparilla far exceed those of any other, and it gives thorough satisfaction."—L. H. Bush, Des Moines, Iowa.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills are the best selling medicines in my store. I can recommend them conscientiously."—C. Bickhaus, Pharmacist, Roseland, Ill.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"I have sold your medicines for the last seventeen years, and always keep them in stock, as they are staples. There is nothing so good for the youthful blood as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—E. L. Parker, Fox Lake, Wis.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla gives the best satisfaction of any medicine I have in stock. I recommend it, or, as the Doctors say, 'I prescribe it over the counter.' It never fails to meet the cases for which I recommend it, even where the doctors' prescriptions have been of no avail."—C. F. Calhoun, Monmouth, Kansas.

AN OREGON FOREST.

A Professor's Description of One.

Prof. John M. Bloss contributed the following article to the Topeka, Kansas, Daily Capital, of September 27th. He tells of visiting a great forest, where storm and death seemed never to have entered:

"In the summer of 1888, while visiting in Oregon, I was induced to take a deer hunt in the Cascade mountains. Our party left the railroad at Oakland, and drove in carriages far up into the foothills, where leaving our vehicles and mounted on horse back, we began our ascent to the high table lands.

The route lay over a precipitous series of knobs connected by high and narrow ridges. The path which had been cut through the forest twenty-five years ago by miners, had long since been obscured by fallen timber and undergrowth.

The logs, when not too large, we compelled our horses to leap, while we defended our eyes from the overwhelming bushes, and at the same time, managed our camp equipment and Winchester. To the novice this was both an arduous and dangerous task.

"Finally we found ourselves upon a very long and narrow ridge with precipitous sides, and on top just wide enough for a pathway for a single horse. Had it not been for the scattering trees on the sides of the ridge, which, to some extent, obstructed our view of the abyss below, we would have turned back in dismay. But we were assured that this dangerous ride, 800 feet above the canons upon either side, terminated in a grand and beautiful plain beyond where there were deer and bear innumerable, else our hearts had failed us.

"The ridge was finally traversed and we were repaid for all our trials, not with the sight of deer or bear, but with the sight of a forest more grand and beautiful than any I had ever conceived.

"The forest contained about 640 acres. It was situated on a level plateau on the northwest side of a mountain peak which rose from 800 to 1000 feet higher and protected the forest from the western storms.

"In this forest there were but two kinds of trees, Oregon pine and red cedar. When we had reached a central point in the forest we stopped for an hour to drink in its magnificence.

"All the trees appeared to have begun their growth the same year and each to have kept equal pace with the other. They were from four and a half to five feet through at the base, and for the first 200 feet the trunks seem to diminish but little in their diameters, while the last fifty feet they rapidly tapered to pointed cones on the sides of which were to be found the only branches by which the trees were sheltered.

"Investigation showed that each tree occupied a space about 30 feet square, each was perfectly straight and stood as perpendicular as if set by the plummet, nor had a single tree fallen and nothing covered the ground except the decaying needles. Although these trees were hundreds of years old yet each tree seemed in the vigor of youth. The tops although seemingly small made a dense leafy canopy perhaps 50 feet in thickness and almost impenetrable to the sunlight.

"As we sat in mid forest and looked outward the trunks of these lofty trees obstructed our vision and we seemed to be walled in by lofty columns.

"It was 3 o'clock when we entered this forest and the July sun was beaming from a cloudless sky, yet within there was only a somber twilight in which the long whitish gray trunks of cedar and pine stood out in relief as the pillars of some mighty dome.

"An hour spent here amply repaid us for our hours of toil. It was the only forest which I have ever seen where storm and death seem never to have entered."

GUARD AGAINST THE STRIKE.
And always have a bottle of Ayer's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. A sample bottle is given you free and the Remedy guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—A dispatch from El Paso, Tex., says that in Sonora, Mexico, two companies of Mexican soldiers were completely routed, Yaqui Indians having caught them in swimming and slaughtered them all. "The Mexican government has sent for 1000 men against them.

If the food is not properly digested it becomes corrupt, and poisons the system it was intended to nourish. This is indigestion.

"My wife has suffered for many years with indigestion. After trying everything else recommended, she tried Simmons Liver Regulator. In three days after taking it according to directions she was in perfect health; she does not suffer at all and can eat anything she wants without any of her previous symptoms."—W. C. SUBERS, Bainbridge, Ga.

The Russian czar, the German Emperor, and Bismarck dined together in Berlin, last Friday night.

To cure any serious disease or humor, try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It cleanses the blood.

HOW A STATE IS MADE.

How Necessary to Admit Washington.

"Now that the constitution is adopted, how will the fact that Washington is a state be recognized by the general government?" was a question put to Supreme Justice-elect John P. Hoyt by a reporter.

"It is an interesting question, and the mode of procedure is as follows," replied Justice Hoyt. "The returns of the various counties, as soon as they are all in, are canvassed by the county auditor, probate judge and another county officer, and if found to be correct are forwarded to the territorial secretary.

"When all the returns are in, the secretary of the territory, the governor and chief justice, or any two of them, will proceed to canvass the returns, together with a statement of the votes cast for the constitution, and upon the separate articles thereof. Then it shall be forwarded to Washington to the president."

"Will it be forwarded by messenger or by mail?"

"As there is no provision providing for the payment of a messenger, I presume that our constitution will be confided to the care of Uncle Sam's mails under the protection of a registered package. The president will examine the organic law of the state of Washington, and if it is Republican in form and if the provisions of the enabling act have been complied with in the formation, the president will issue a proclamation announcing the result. Thereupon the state of Washington shall be declared admitted into the Union by congress under virtue of the enabling act. It shall stand on an equal footing with the original states from and after the date of the issuance of the proclamation."

"How soon do you think it will be, judge, before the president will issue his proclamation?"

"It is possible it may be issued in a month, but it may take longer."

Unjust Taxation.
It is unjust to tax the stomach with burthen that it cannot bear. Many silly people thus tyrannize that faithful servant until it rebels and sends them to the doctor. Dyspepsia is usually the child of gastronomic folly, but whether this or the natural association of indigestion and melancholy, it is surely and pleasantly remediable with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest and most highly sanctioned gastric tonic in existence. As a result of the tone imparted to the stomach, and the increased activity of its digestive and assimilative action, insured by the persistent use of this benign invigorant, general stagnation is augmented, the nerves strengthened and tranquilized, and a tendency to indigestion and hypochondriacal despondency, biliousness, chills and fever, rheumatism and kidney troubles are conquered by this admirable medicine.

Do you remember that you once believed that if you could accomplish a certain thing you would be a happy man? Do you remember that within a few months after accomplishing it you were as unhappy as ever? Is it not possible that you will be equally restless after accomplishing your next ambition? Should this fact not be taken as evidence that nothing will satisfy you?

Wm. Michael, a boy murderer, only 15 years old, was taken to the penitentiary on a 7 1/2 years' sentence from Union Co., last Friday.

A CHILD KILLED.
Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of Soothing Syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Ayer's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A ship goes down when it strikes the rocks; a business concern when it doesn't.

HAPPINESS AND CONTENTMENT
Cannot go hand in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Ayer's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

There were 3,782,244 hogs slaughtered in Chicago in 1888. If the good work goes on at this rate the time will soon arrive when there will be no difficulty in getting a seat in a car.

People of sedentary habits, who are subject to constipation, can regulate their bowels by the use of Ayer's Pills.

A Baby Burned.
A child, Minn., Sept. 25, 1888. Our baby—1 1/2 years old—burned her hand on a hot stove and we put St. Jacobs Oil on it. It took the pain all out, at once, after putting it on 2 or 3 times it was all cured up.
