Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terrebonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy."

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults. —Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

His Prize Money All Gone.

New York, Oct. 14.—John L. Sullivan has spent the $20,000 that he won in his fight with Kilrain, and is now dependent on his friends for support.

When the stake money was received by John L. he began the princely entertainment of his friends. The champion established himself at the Vanderbilt house with eleven retainers, all of whose expenses he paid, and nothing was too good for them. Sullivan was arrested by Governor Lowry's minions, and accompanied by a chosen few returned to his old battle ground. He paid all the expenses of the trip. He returned to the Vanderbilt and enjoyed the same high living. He soon afterwards went to Boston with $2,000, all that remained of his small fortune. As soon as he reached Boston he went to Crescent Beach, and now owes a great deal of money to the hotel keepers, wine men, clothiers and his sporting friends.

People of sedentary habits, who are subject to constipation, can regulate their bowels by the use of Ayer's Pills.

A Boom For Albany.

At Albany, the Santiam canal, city water works, Magnolia flouring mills and other property sold Saturday by John Crawford to Col. Hogg, was yesterday sold to a syndicate for $300,000. This syndicate has purchased about 250 acres of land adjoining Albany, and nearly 7,000 acres at Yaquina bay. They have also purchased about $50,000 worth of business property there.

It is announced that, together with the Oregon Pacific company, they propose to do for Albany what the Northern Pacific has done for Tacoma. They will begin by erecting a big hotel there, and a $50,000 brick building for the company's offices, and establish their machine and car shops there. They will also establish gas works and several other important enterprises.

To cure any scrofulous disease or humor, try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It cleanses the blood.

The Indian At The Polls.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The Indian, as a political factor, is likely, in the near future, to attract public attention. By recent acts of congress, every Indian over 21 years of age, who receives an allotment of land in severalty becomes a voter. The successful termination of the negotiations with the Sioux Indians next year will throw into the state 4,973 voters. The other nations now being negotiated with, will soon make many more. At the interior department it is thought that upwards of 20,000 Indians will be entitled to vote at the next presidential election.

HAPPINESS AND CONTENTMENT

Cannot go hand in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The Wounded Man Died.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 14.—Henry Julius, the man who was shot by Ed Patterson at a dance here Saturday evening, died this morning. The bullet entered on the left side, near the heart, and pierced the left lung. Patterson gave himself up to the sheriff of Cowlitz county this morning. He claims that the shooting was done in self-defense.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easy taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Used by the United States Government. Endorsed by the heads of the Great Universities and Public Food Analysts, as the Strongest, Purest and most Healthful. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Ammonia, Lime or Alum. Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts, Vanilla, Lemon, Orange, Rose, etc., do not contain Poisonous Oils or Chemicals.

Nothing like it. Its peculiar efficacy is due to its skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset or if they are advanced will prove a potent cure.

No Home should be Without It.

It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Hemorrhoids. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Howel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colds. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest Aperient and Tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons' Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."
—M. M. HAYDEN, M.D., Washington, Ark.

Not at All Improbable.

An enthusiastic citizen of Astoria says that the recent visit of Messrs. Hoag, Hogg and other officials of the Oregon Pacific railroad to Astoria was for the purpose of spying out the land with a view of securing terminal facilities for their line, when it has made connections and become a transcontinental road. He is certain that the company will, in the not far distant future extend their road from Albany by way of Forest Grove and the Nehalem valley to deep water at Astoria.—Oregonian, 15.

WE CAN AND DO

Guarantee Acker's Blood Elixir for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other preparations for blood diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilitic poisoning, Ulcers, Eruptions and Pimples. It purifies the whole system and through it builds up the constitution. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Home Made Butter Scarc.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—During the last six months 277,000 pounds of butter have come from the east over lines of the Southern Pacific railroad alone.

Very Unbecoming.

Lovely tints in the wrong place are ref of the face. A more colored complexion and the peculiar endowment of our pig-tailed brethren who "hit the pipe" is unbecoming. It suggests bile going astray, and the inference is correct. Fair complexions, the ribs and shoulder blades, constipation, dyspepsia, furrowed tongue, and sick headaches supplement this indication of the biliousness. For liver complaint and its multifarious symptoms, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an infallible specific. It relaxes the bowels sufficiently, but without griping or violence. To the secretion of bile it gives a due impulse, but banishes an excess of that sallow colored principle from the blood. Sick headaches, sourness of the breath, and far upon the tongue disappear when it is used. It renews digestion, fortifies the system against malaria, counteracts a rheumatic tendency, and remedies inaction of the kidneys.

Typhoid Fever at Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 14.—It is estimated that there are 800 cases of typhoid fever here. The red cross society are doing everything possible for the relief of the sick.

GUARD AGAINST THE STRIKE.

And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. A sample bottle is given you free and the Remedy guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The Wichita Times says that it costs 6 cents a pound to make sorghum sugar in Kansas.

A CHILD KILLED.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Preparation

MILLIONS OF SALMON.

Artificial Propagation the Salvation.

"Artificial propagation is the only salvation of the salmon packing industry on the Columbia river," said an Astoria canner to an Oregonian reporter yesterday. "Excessive fishing has diminished the number of salmon in the river, and if something effective is not done one of Oregon's greatest industries will go by the board."

"Ten years ago, when artificial propagation was inaugurated, it had a good effect. Then operations were suspended for a number of years, during which time the river was well fished. Artificial propagation was resumed at the Clackamas hatchery three years ago, and in 1891 we will begin to derive benefit from it."

"There is no reason why the Columbia river canneries should not be supplied with fish at 25 cents apiece. A sufficient number of hatcheries would serve the purpose. Oregon and Washington should have three hatcheries apiece, capable of turning out 6,000,000 young fry into the river annually, which would stock the Columbia river with more fish than it has ever been known to have—enough to supply the whole world with canned salmon at prices that would bring it within the means of all. We have now one small hatchery that turns between 4,000,000 and 6,000,000 fry into the river annually. This is good work so far as it goes, but it does not go far enough."

"More depends on the Columbia river than people generally know. At the rate at which the Alaskan waters are being fished it will be only a few years before they will be fished out. I think general abandonment of the field will follow unless artificial propagation is taken up. It will naturally be several years before there will be any results. Then the world will have to fall back again on the Columbia river for the bulk of its salmon supply, and if we propagate we will be able to meet the demand."

"There is another problem that canners are trying to solve and that is how to get raw material, at prices below the world which have been prevalent on the river for several seasons. The inquiry is for cheap fish—fish that can be had at from $1.25 to $1.35 per dozen cans. The packs of Alaska, Puget sound and of other inlets along the coast command these prices while the Columbia fish brings the gilt edge figure of $1.60. We recognize that we must sell for lower figures in order to hold our own against the world, and to do this we must get raw fish at correspondingly low prices. Whether we can do this or not, is the question."

"In Alaska the raw salmon costs the canners all the way from 50 cents to $1 a case, while the Columbia packers have to pay $3.75. That is a large difference in the face of competition. It is only the known superiority of the Columbia salmon that has enabled it to hold its own in the market. It is a very serious question whether the people can be found who will pay gilt-edge prices for our pack."

"A reasonable price per fish would be 90 cents to $1, as compared with $1 to $1.25 now, which would reduce the cost per case for raw material from $3.75 to $2.70 to $3. The lower prices would have a tendency to diminish the number of fishermen, and as there is just so much money to be distributed every year, it would be more advantageous to the fishermen to divide it among a few men than among a great many. One-half of the fishermen come from California and stay only so long as money is to be made, leaving the home fishermen to get blood out of a turnip during the remainder of the season. Lower prices would keep these fellows out of the field and give the local fishermen all away."

"A fisherman's wages does not amount to a great deal, to be sure. This year the pack was 350,000 cases, which, at three fish per case, which is the average, makes the total catch of fish about 1,050,000. At $1.25 per fish we have $1,312,500 to be divided among 3,000 fishermen, which gives them $437.50 apiece for their season's work, and as they do not do much during the rest of the year, it amounts practically to a year's wages. That is the general average; the individual wages is much less. Divided among the 3,000 boats on the river, 1,050,000 fish are 683 fish to each boat, which, at $1.25 a fish would bring $728.75 to each boat. It takes two men to run a boat, and the share of each is $364.37. The gilt net men do not fare so well as the men who use the seine nets. There is a story current on the river that one seine net man caught and sold between $20,000 and $30,000 worth of salmon this year."

"It is too early yet to speak of the outlook for the next year. About 10,000 cases of this year's pack are still held on the river. There is no movement, and quotations are nominally $1.60 per dozen."—Oregonian, 15.

If the food is not properly digested it becomes corrupt, and poisons the system it was intended to nourish. This is indigestion.

"My wife has suffered for many years with indigestion. After trying everything else recommended, she tried Simmons' Liver Regulator. In three days after taking it according to directions she was in perfect health; she does not suffer at all and can eat anything she wants without any of her previous symptoms."
—W. C. SUBERS, Bainbridge, Ga.
