Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hooper, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy.

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pain in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

FRESH FASHION FANCIES.

Will It Be Long Skirts or Short Skirts?

What is Talked of for Fall Feminine Wear.

Are the skirts going to be long or short? Roderick's question, and how shall it be answered? The most contradictory reports come from the seat of fashion; sometimes comes the edict that they must be shorter than ever, and then again we are told that short trains with front lengths to correspond are worn even in the street. But from this, heaven forbid us; the recollection of those dirt-accumulating, street-sweeping appendages is too recent to be pleasant, and we don't want them again, no matter what imperious Madam Fashion has to say about it. Yes, my good madam, your edicts are generally absolute, but don't proscribe such an one as this, for your humble votaries will rebel, you may depend upon it.

To draw my own conclusions on this interesting subject, the length of the skirt, I should say that it is generally very greatly influenced by the size and beauty of the wearer's feet, as I remember that the first to introduce the fashion of short skirts was one of the "haut ton," who could boast of a pair of the very prettiest feet that ever were seen.

Certainly short skirts do favor a pretty foot, whereas they bring an ugly foot into undesired prominence. I recall to mind a stern and rigid Boston lady of culture, who always insisted on wearing her skirts up to the ankle, exhibiting two feet that did full justice to a pair of No. 6's. However, the length of skirt popular just now, that which just escapes the ground, is a length favorable to both small and large feet, for a foot always looks smaller when it comes from beneath a long dress, an effect which you are probably noticed in a hand when it comes from beneath a full of lace. So all are satisfied to have the skirt-length stay just as it is.

What a pleasure it was to see the flannel-lined, broad-toed shoe superceded this summer by the dainty tie! Those broad-toed shoes are well enough for long walks, constitutional, as we call them, but for the placid meandering that a woman generally contemplates herself with, the tie is just as comfortable, and a great deal prettier. Since that exquisite foreign exotic, five o'clock tea, has grafted itself upon our republican soil, and established itself as a charming form of entertainment the ultra touch of highest fashion, the value of pretty shoes and stockings as a means of charm, is being more and more appreciated and understood, and some of these charms are reaching in beauty, costing as high as $20 a pair.

The daintiest stockings come in silks, and are very ornamental. Green, in all shades, is popular, and green and black stripes especially so. Some of the finest designs have letters embroidered on them in shaded silks; for instance, an L in blue silk on a black stocking; this of course would be chosen by a lady whose name begins with L. The little pointed patterns are very pretty, as are also the diamond-shaped designs executed in contrasted colors. Although the black stocking is still the only wear for the street, stockings the shade of the dress are preferred for indoors.

The slippers are of many kinds; there are the elegantly finished patent leather ties, with half high heels that are always popular, and those of oiled calf in various shades of tan and brown, with embroidered toes, and low shoes, with immense silver or paste buckles; these are all to wear with white or very light dresses.

The satin slippers are in every shade, and can be had to order to match any dress. Those in red are especially attractive; picture to yourself a black lace tie-gown, relieved by red ribbons, and a pair of scarlet silk stockings emerging from scarlet high-heeled shoes, braided in black. Pretty, don't you think so?

If the food is not properly digested it becomes corrupt, and poisons the system it was intended to nourish. This is indigestion.

"My wife has suffered for many years with indigestion. After trying everything else recommended, she tried Simons' Liver Regulator. In three days after taking it according to directions she was in perfect health; she does not suffer at all and can eat anything she wants without any W. C. SIMONS, Bainbridge, Ga.

There were burned last year 182 churches in this country, and all but twelve took fire from their own furnaces.

To cure any scrofulous disease or humor, try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It cleanses the blood.

NOTHING LIKE IT

Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset, or if they are advanced will prove a potent cure.

No Home should be Without It.

It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colds, Diarrhea, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colic. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest Aperient and Tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural awakening in the morning. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would like Simons' Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."
L. M. HERRON, M.D., Washington, Ark.

Mark of Genuine: Look for the Trade-Mark on front of Wrapper, and the Seal and Signature of J. H. Zeller & Co., in red, on the side. Take no other.

Price 5c.

How They Made the Paper a Success.

When P. D. Benham and I started the present Astorian we had, after paying for the type, just money enough to get out three issues; but as I had run—excuse me, walked—so many papers without any money at all I felt greatly encouraged. It was some time before we began to put money in the bank—indeed, our business in that direction has never enjoyed a rush. There were times when it was a strain to pay the printers, but they didn't seem to feel it. They took the money as emotionlessly as if we had found it in the road. For a long time advertisers were slow in recognizing our "unrivaled facilities." They were extremely stupid. They didn't come around and dispute any of our assertions. They silently accepted our statements, but continued to neglect their opportunities. We saw them the following circular:

"Gentlemen:—The Astorian never goes all over the world, and it is with difficulty that we have kept it from going to hell.

After this statement had been made, advertisements began to move towards us. Colonel Ben Simons advertised for a stray calf, and John W. Filipot put in an announcement to the effect that he would not be responsible for debts contracted by his wife. We sent for Mrs. Filipot and told her that she had been insured. "But what am I to do?" she asked. "Madam," my partner answered, "put in an advertisement stating that you will not be responsible for debts contracted by your husband."

She did so and our paper became a success.—Opie Reed.
