Cough-medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy.

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

The Particular Mr. Johnson.

"Is there a Mr. Johnson in the car?" called the conductor, as he entered a coach on the Lehigh valley train and held up a telegram to view.
"There is," replied three men in chorus, as they rose up.
"But this dispatch is for John Johnson."
"That's me!" replied two of the men, while the third looked relieved and sat down.
"Which of you is married?" continued the conductor.
"I am!" both answered.
"Well, I think this dispatch relates to the birth of twins at home and is congratulatory."
"That lets me out, thank Heaven!" exclaimed one Johnson, as he sat down to wipe his brow, while the other flushed red and white for a moment and then received the dispatch.
Every family should be provided with a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is a specific for colds and coughs.
Fashionable society is something too formal for an institution, too irregular for an organization, too vital for a machine, too heartless for a fraternity, too lawless for a school, too much lying for a bureau and too many passions for a pageant. There are the competitions, matches, risks, calculations of a perilous game, the interchanges of an impudenter, immaterial commerce, musical voices from inharmonious breasts, spiteful courtesies, magnificent meannesses. There are songs of peace, flying arrows of malice and revenge, bonds and fragments of friendships, charming veils over hidden horrors, laughter rippling over dark depths of silent agony. One has only to reflect a moment how considerable a section of the lives of many men and more women these activities occupy, what capacities they include, what forces they engage, the interplay between life and life, the issues and destiny of character, the august responsibility, to comprehend that society, even in this limited sense, is a study for the wisest minds.

No fictitious, certificates, but solid facts, testify the marvelous cures by Ayer's Sassaaparilla.

Joaquin Miller sketches the prevalent demagogue very closely in a recent letter to an exchange. He says: "You can hear him howling against monopoly, trusts, and railroads. He raves and roars against monopolists! He is with the people and for the people forever. He uses the names of Lincoln and Gladstone as if there were still a third great name on the list which his raucous forbids him to mention. I have only time to say here, my fellow toilers in the front line of toil, my fellow founders of states, beware of this arrant impostor."

Exactly What is Sought After.
A safe, reliable, harmless, not repulsive remedy that can be taken without changing the regular diet or disorganizing the system; a vegetable compound assisting nature to get rid of impurities in a gradual manner as nature intended. Such is Simmons Liver Regulator, and a trial proves this to the most skeptical. Complete satisfaction is guaranteed, and certainly it is a satisfaction to find the head clear, the bowels regular, the blood purified and the breath sweet.

In Cashmere 30,000 shawls are made yearly. It takes three men a year to weave a pair. It takes ten goats to furnish the material for one and a half yards square.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.
It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not grip. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The author of "Listen to the Mocking Bird" has made $100,000 by that one effort.

DYSPEPSIA.

It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia is a general term applied to those cases where the stomach and bowels are subject to sick headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have constipation, while the thin and nervous are troubled with gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper.

Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain,
The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct
Adultery of the Stomach,
Expel foul gases,
Alleviate Irritation,
Assist Digestion,
and, at the same time
Start the Liver to working,
when all other troubles
soon disappear.

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—W. M. KEENE, Fort Valley, Ga.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Prince of Wales is a sick man. It is stated on the best of authority that he has been warned by his physicians that he has Bright's disease incurably fastened upon him. CAUTION TO MOTHERS.
Every mother is cautioned against giving her child laudanum or paregoric; it creates an unnatural craving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Acker's Baby Soother is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Estimates at the United States legation placed the number of Americans who have visited the Paris exhibition at 50,000.

PURPLES ON THE FACE
Denote an impure state of the blood and are looked upon by many with suspicion. Acker's Blood Elixir will remove all impurities and leave the complexion smooth and clear. There is nothing that will so thoroughly build up the constitution, purify and strengthen the whole system. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Suffering in Labrador.

QUEBEC, Oct. 20.—Captain Lemay, who has just arrived from Labrador, tells stories of incredible suffering among the fishermen. He says one family in Natashquan lived on the carcass of a dog for three days, when the youngest child, then the mother, and then the oldest daughter, succumbed to their intense sufferings, leaving the starving husband and eldest son without strength and means to secure decent burial for their dead until succored by the neighbors.

From Hopedale it is reported that a father and mother subsisted on the body of their six-months-old infant for days, only then to follow the child by death from starvation.

"Mamma, what's hereditary?" asked Bobby, laboriously tripping over the syllables of the long word. "Why, it is—it is anything you get from your father or me," replied the mother, a little puzzled for a definition suited to his years. Silence of two minutes. "Then, ma," he asked, "is spunkin' hereditary?"

ARE YOU SKEPTICAL?
If so we will convince you that Acker's English Remedy for the Lungs is superior to all other preparations, and is a positive cure for all Throat and Lung troubles, Croup, Whooping Cough and Colds. We guarantee the preparation and will give you a sample bottle free. J. W. Conn, Druggist.
