Constipation

Demands prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They are an admirable Liver and After-dinner pill, and everywhere endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. I. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an for constipation and indigestion, and are never without them in the house."—Moses Grenier, Lowell, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Pills, for liver troubles and indigestion, during many years, and have always found them prompt and efficient in their action."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 30 Middle St., Hartford, Conn.

"Having been troubled with costiveness, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say that they have served me better than any other medicine. I arrive at this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel T. Jones, Oak St., Boston, Mass.

A POLITICAL SECRET.

The Conspiracy Against Lincoln

ROSECRANS WOULD NOT BE A CANDIDATE.

James R. Gilmore, the author, better known as "Edmund Kirke," once an editorial writer on the New York Tribune, has made public his connection with what was called by Thurlow Weed the conspiracy to supersede Abraham Lincoln in 1864.

Gilmore says that the movement embraced very many of the best and most influential members of the Republican party, and to all human appearances would have succeeded in defeating the second nomination and election of Lincoln had its plans not been thwarted by the very man who had been selected as its presidential candidate. His patriotism was stronger than his ambition, and he refused to be lured from what he deemed his post of duty even by the glittering prize of the presidency. This man was General Rosecrans, now register of the treasury, and for two terms representative to congress from California.

Gilmore tells of an interview between himself and Horace Greeley, in which the latter said that should the country survive Lincoln's term, it would, if he were re-elected, of a certainty go to destruction. The only hope of its salvation lay in defeating the re-election of Mr. Lincoln, and to do that some suitable candidate should at once be found, and during the succeeding eighteen months be written up by the whole loyal press that he might be sure to carry the country. These views of his, he said, were shared by most of the leading men of the Republican party, and they, as well as he, were of the opinion that General Rosecrans would be the most available candidate. He seemed to be the coming man, and though some might object that he was a Roman Catholic, Greeley considered that an advantage, inasmuch as it would command the solid Irish vote.

Rosecrans was an able man and an ardent patriot, who would be sure to prosecute the war energetically. The only question in Mr. Greeley's mind was "Is he sound on the gospel?" That is, would he refuse to listen to any peace that did not provide for the absolute extinction of slavery? Mr. Greeley and his friends desired an answer to that question.

Gilmore went down to Tennessee to get Rosecrans's answer and tender him the nomination, but this was Rosecrans's reply: "The good opinion of these gentlemen is exceeding gratifying to me; but, my good friend, it cannot be; my place is here. The country gave me my education, so it has the right to my military service, and it demanded me for precisely this emergency, so this and not the presidency is my post of duty, and I cannot, without violating my conscience, leave it; but let me tell you—and I wish you would tell your friends who are moving in this matter that you are mistaken about Mr. Lincoln. He is in the right place. I am in a position to know, and if you live you will see that I am right about it." This is a piece of the inner history of that campaign not heretofore revealed.

You Who Lead Sedentary Lives,
Will find great relief from constipation, headache and nervousness, by taking Simmons' Liver Regulator. It is a simple, harmless, vegetable compound, sure to relieve you. Persons of sedentary habits often suffer with kidney affections. If they would maintain the strength of the digestive organs and improve the quality of the blood by taking the Regulator it would restore the kidneys to health and vigor.

He who wisely uses his wealth need not leave it for his tombstone.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.
It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

NO HOUSEHOLD SHOULD BE WITHOUT

The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a diseased Liver. Simmons' Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any other agency on earth. SEE THAT YOU GET THE GENUINE. Price $1.

The discovery of the white fungus which lays out the chinch bugs, has proved a great thing for Kansas.

Unsuspected causes for malaria exist everywhere. A sunken lot partly filled with water in the vicinity of your abode, a new location upon land filled in, but formerly overflowed or marshy, and causes far more occult than these produce the atmospheric miasmas which constitute the germs that, if inhaled, ripen into fever and ague maladies. A person taken unawares with a malarial complaint should, as soon as it declares itself, seek aid from the safe, non-dissipating, cordial medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has for over a third of a century, and in every quarter of the globe, relieved the malaria-stricken, and neutralized miasma in air and water. The Bitters imparts activity to the stomach, bowels and liver, revivifies incipient rheumatism, and remedies inaction of kidneys and bladder. Appetite and sleep are improved, and the infirmities of age mitigated by its use.

You can never be tired of life; you are only tired of yourself.

Ayer's Pills are an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the stomach, liver, and bowels. This medicine should be kept in every family.

Prevent rather than repent.

Salt-rheum is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Write J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, for evidence.

There are over sixty cases of diphtheria at Carbondale, Penn. Undertakers have refused to handle bodies.

GUARD AGAINST THE STRIKE.
And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. A sample bottle is given you free and the Remedy guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

A home for divorced wives has been established by the government in Salt Lake City at a cost of $70,000.

HAPPINESS AND CONTENTMENT
Cannot go hand in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Estimates For Defense.

Gen. Miles has made an extensive report to the war department, in which he gives due attention to the necessity of adequate defenses on this coast.

Regarding the estimates for such proposed defenses general Miles submits the following land estimates made by major John I. Rodgers, formerly in command at Ft. Stevens, but now at the Presidio, San Francisco:

San Francisco harbor..... $15,633,000
Columbia river..... 1,555,000
San Diego..... 512,000
Puget Sound..... 11,626,000
Sitka..... 742,000

Total..... $39,068,000
This report says of the Columbia river: "The Columbia river is the great waterway of the northwest territory; it will admit over the bar vessels of twenty feet draught, of the class of English belted cruisers armed with two 3.2-inch and ten 6-inch rifles, high-power guns. Portland, on the Willamette river, is of great wealth and importance to internal traffic; it is a center of railway communications overland and along the coast. The Columbia river has been regarded as one of the most vulnerable points on the Pacific coast in a war with England." Appended is the armament proposed by major Rodgers:

Twelve 10-inch B. L. Rifles and carriages..... $ 432,000
Seven 8-inch B. L. Rifles and carriages..... 122,000
Thirty-two 12-inch B. L. mortars and carriages..... 238,000
Twelve disappearing and non-disappearing mountings..... 480,000
Seven simple barbettes batteries..... 105,000
Two 16-gun motor batteries..... 128,000

Total cost..... $1,555,000
