Constipation

Demands prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They are an admirable Liver and After-dinner pill, and everywhere endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. I. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an for constipation and indigestion, and are never without them in the house."—Moses Grenier, Lowell, Mass.

Effective Remedy

"I have used Ayer's Pills, for liver troubles and indigestion, during many years, and have always found them prompt and efficient in their action."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 50 Middle St., Hartford, Conn.

"Having been troubled with constiveness, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say that they have served me better than any other medicine. I arrive at this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel T. Jones, Oak St., Boston, Mass.

A DANCE FOR LIFE.

How Joe Dank Made Lynchers Change Their Minds.

David Herrie of Brunswick says there is no such man as Joe Dank out of the Glynn county jail.

There is a rumor current here among Joe's schisms that Joe had become involved in a dispute over a game of pool somewhere between Brunswick and Jasp, and whipped out his revolver and brought down his man; that afterward he had been captured and jailed.

Joe is not far away, as he was seen near Jasp's room by a Savannah officer, who surprised the fugitive over a game of cards, the officer being in quest of another man. Joe bolted out of the door and disappeared as suddenly as if the earth had swallowed him up.

In this connection an anecdote of Joe Dank's experience in Liberty county was told to be the best "all-around" dancer in Georgia by those who have seen him cut the pigeon-wing and dance the "No. 6." Thereby hangs the tale.

Joe was in a game with some tar-pentine lands in Liberty, and it was a rough crowd. As Joe, with his usual shrewdness with the cards, had transferred the most of the week's earnings to his own pocket, the game broke up in a row, and Joe was charged with "trumping in a cold deck," "making the bag" and other devices known to professional gamblers. He is little, but wiry, quick on the trigger, and when the gang began to crowd him he whipped out his revolver and shot the foremost man down.

In the excitement making his escape for the time being, but the woods were seared and he was run to cover. As the odds were against him he surrendered. As the story runs the vigilantes, who were provided with a rope, formed a noose, and encircling it about Joe's neck were about to swing him off, when he made a request to be allowed to dance before they hanged him. A request so simple was readily granted, and Joe never danced as he did on that occasion.

The vigilantes, who were of his own race, caught the infection of the music of Joe's feet, and one of the lynchers sang out: "Gib us de nambury six." Nobody could dance that step like Joe, and to shouts of "Les hab dat agin!" Joe again addressed himself to keeping up the interest in the dancing until the lynching was forgotten, and for an hour he showed his executioners more steps than they had ever seen before. His captors relented, and Joe was released and became a hero.—Savannah News.

A DIT TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The State Surveyor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Senator Mitchell was the most disgusted man in Washington today when he discovered that the United States land office had made this season. Six years ago a bill was put through providing for making the allotments and a survey of the reservation. Everything has been delayed and although the delegation pushed things hard very little was done. To-day, senator Mitchell was shown a letter of over seventy-five type-written pages, which the commissioner of the general land office will send to surveyor general Douglas W. Taylor, of Oregon, pointing out over 800 mistakes in the surveys of the Umatilla agency, for which Taylor is responsible. It was first intended to reject the entire survey, but it is believed that correction can be made in a shorter time.

The commissioner also addressed a letter to secretary Noble, in which he requested the surveyor general of gross negligence and glaring incompetency. He recommends his immediate removal. He says the plots of the Umatilla lands are ridiculously erroneous, and contains 400 mistakes aside from errors in surveys. He includes in the letter a half dozen telegrams sent to Taylor, urging him to send in the reports of the examinations of surveys, and shows that in the discharge of his entire duties he has been negligent and extremely slow. None of the Oregon delegation knew of the trouble until to-day, and Senator Mitchell says he was amazed at the state of affairs found to exist, when shown commissioner Groff's letter.

Taylor is a Democrat, and was appointed in July, 1886, but his removal had never been asked by the Oregon delegation, who believed him to be in every way competent.

NO HOUSEHOLD SHOULD BE WITHOUT

The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a diseased liver. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy liver than any other agency on earth. SEE THAT YOU GET THE GENUINE Price $1.

An Interesting Question.

Some ninety years ago a French ship containing treasures to the amount of $1,000,000 was sunk by Lord Nelson at the battle of the Nile in the Bay of Aboukir. A company has been formed with a concession from the Egyptian government to recover the treasure for the benefit of the share holders, and will shortly commence operations with every prospect of success. What will be the title of the company if they recover it? The open sea, of course, including its bottom, is not capable of being used as a private property, but says the Law Times, we presume that the concessionaires have satisfied themselves that the Bay of Aboukir comes within the rule of "navigable waters included in bays and between headlands and arms of the sea belonging to the sovereign of the adjoining territory, as being necessary to the safety of the nation, and to the undisturbed use of the neighboring shores." The right to search, therefore, is probably well derived, and we think it also reasonably clear that any claim of the present French government as representing the original owners of the treasure, or the English government as representing the rights of those entitled to the treasure as a prize of war, would be barred in international law by lapse of time.

You Who Lead Sedentary Lives,

Will find great relief from constipation, headache and nervousness, by taking Simmons Liver Regulator. It is a simple, harmless, vegetable compound, sure to relieve you. ## WHAT NOT TO BUY.

Where Lovely Woman Should Curb Her Faculty.

In this world of frills and frivols there are dark things, and better be left unbought, and here are a few: Either green or red gloves do not permit yourself to be tempted by any smooth-tongued salesman into believing that anybody wears them—they don't.

Basties: they were always had for, and now they are recognized as not only being out of the line of beauty, but in extremely bad style.

Very short skirts for the house; they are awkward and belittle you from a mental as well as physical standpoint. Keep a pretty tea gown with a bit of a train.

Yellow storm coats; choose instead very dark blue ones.

Umbrellas with handles that look as if the silver of the family had been put into the pot and boiled down for this purpose; they are worse than a green postage stamp as to giving the look-on on caught as to your good taste.

Colored letter paper; it died in the same year as hoopskirts.

Rhinestone jewelry: It should never be worn in the daytime, and people will think you are trying to pass it off for diamonds if you try to wear it at night.

Earrings: A beautiful ear looks better without them, and an ugly one should not have attention drawn to it by them. Each and every one of these is as much to be abhorred as the oft-quoted scarlet woman, but this season, if the scarlet woman isn't very prevalent it will be because the dye has given out and she cannot paint her frock red.

She talks about beautiful tons, and you know, as a man, that red was never offensive to anybody except a bull, and in view of this, you will have to bear it; and you will, like the noble hearted American citizen that you are, bear it, and even squeeze it if—the woman is fetching enough.
