

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1889.

There were no fire alarms in October.

Griffin & Reed retain the Occoquia route.

Wingate & Stone call attention to "snaps."

Ford & Stokes have the agency for Tillamook butter.

The boat of the Astoria is no longer heard in the morning.

Even the Occoquia gets mixed up in its date lines occasionally.

The Western Amateur band will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

H. B. Parker is building a fine warehouse on his commodious dock.

Have you seen that music box at the New York Novelty store? finest in Oregon.

The lines of the O. R. & N. Co. now constitute the Pacific division of the Union Pacific railroad.

The marriage of Gene Anderson and Miss Florence Morgan was a genuine love match. The old folks and the relatives opposed it, but when they found opposition was making eyes in vain made a merry wedding of it.

John Johnson, of the Salvation army, sometimes known as "Babe," is missing, and it is feared that he is either inventing in seclusion some new variety of Salvation army music, or else is tuning his harp in other choirs among other scenes and scenes.

Larry Sullivan and Joe Baker were arrested yesterday morning charged with assaulting a sailor. The sailor says that the two beat him because he refused to sign articles on an outgoing ship. The two defendants will have a hearing before Justice May at ten o'clock this morning.

Shortly after the arrival of the Telephone yesterday, a waiter named Oppenheimer, while going about on the iron part of the gang plank, cutting a deep gash in his head, and being rendered unconscious. He was promptly carried to, and yesterday evening was able to resume his duties.

Marye has been arrested again in Portland. The area whom he brought down here says "we made Marye refund every dollar we advanced him; besides that we compelled him to pay every cent of our expenses. If he hadn't we'd have beaten the life out of him. I think the arrest in Astoria was a put up a job between himself and the woman. They struck the wrong crowd this time, though."

A resident on Gray's River named Abraham Mustiamana, met with a dreadful accident while out hunting on his place near Gray's river last Thursday. His gun was accidentally discharged, the shot striking him in the abdomen, tearing the intestines. He was brought over here and taken to St. Mary's hospital yesterday afternoon. Last evening he was coughing up pieces of his entrails, and the surgeon in attendance didn't think that he could live more than twenty-four hours.

How is it that these parties of distinguished visitors always strike us on the 1st of the month? It is a most extraordinary coincidence. Astorians would like to go along, and entertain, etc., but those of the male persuasion who are not walking around keeping Frank Surprenant out of a job are busy, collecting money to pay the chaps that come collecting for wood, coal, flour, gas, coal oil rent, clothes, and other odds. We must have this visiting schedule changed, so that the statesmen, et al., will get here about the 15th. Then we'll do the honors in great shape.

Considerable indignation was expressed yesterday by about 25 passengers who were refused passage on the T. J. Potter to Portland. To pleadings of business, and of matters requiring immediate presence the answer was "no room." One gentleman who wanted to go up to Portland to see his sick mother was also refused even a station on the deck. To those who had return tickets, and who were left here by reason of the recent change in steamers, the situation had every appearance of injustice. As a matter of fact there was plenty of room on board the boat for all on board and all who wished to go.

Chas. Juhl, a young man aged 25, formerly employed by Bergman & Co., now ranching on Gray's River, came over to the city yesterday, and meeting Jas. Marr on the street, said "give me that $25.00 you owe me for boxes." Shortly afterward he walked freely into Christensen & Gor's back office, and said "I am stabbed; when I asked Marr for the money he pulled out a long knife and stabbed me." Investigation showed an ugly cut in the forehead, and in the right of the vessel. Marr was arrested and will be given investigation in Justice May's court to-day on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. Juhl had his wound dressed in time to last evening it had developed no serious symptoms.

There is a definite change all around in steamer time. The T. J. Potter will leave here on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 7 P. M. for Portland. She leaves Portland on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 11:30 P. M. for here. The Telephone will leave Portland on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for here at 4 A. M. She will leave here for Portland on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 6 A. M. She will run on the Washington side. The R. H. Thompson will leave Portland for here on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 6 A. M. She will leave here on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 6 A. M. She will run on the Oregon side. The Telephone will discontinue her Sunday trips.

The fire alarm sounded at 8:20 last evening and a bright light at the Main street wharf showed that the government steamer Geo. H. Mendell was on fire. The stern line was cast off and her bow swung around toward the dock. The fire blazed fiercely in the after part of the housing, but after a stream of water was got on to it was quickly extinguished. At the time the fire originated the mate and a deck hand were aboard. The fire broke out in the after part of the engine room on the starboard. The fire broke out in the after part of the engine room on the starboard side. There were only two lights in the vessel at the time, one in the fore-castle, the other in the galley. How it started is a mystery. So hot was the blaze that brass fittings and oil cups fused and ran in a mass. Capt. Brown thinks that the damage will be about $1,000. The accident will lay the boat up a mouth, for repairs, and just at present it will be hard to replace her in the work of bringing material to the jetty.

The change in steamer time is the principal topic. We Astorians have to do so much of our travel and transportation by water that any radical change in the river system attracts universal attention. The Astorian believes that the passenger rate is too low, and the freight rates too high. It would be better for Astoria if the fare to Portland were $5. If it were $5, people wouldn't run up to Portland twice a week to buy a spool of thread or a pair of socks, or stuff enough to make an apron, and people who had real business would go any how. This may be mawkish, and slow and all that, but it is so all the same, and every business man in Astoria knows it. The ridiculously low fares to Portland takes $25,000 a month to Portland that could be spent to just as good advantage and saved 25-30 for the money with Astoria merchants. Then, on the other hand, the freight rates are too high. The thing should be reversed: as it is Astoria business men are heavily handicapped.

THE SENATORIAL COMMITTEE.

A Visit To The Mouth of The Columbia.

The business before the senate and house of representatives is so vast, and piles up with such rapidity that long before the first days of each congressional session are over there is enough to take up all the time of the session, besides the accumulations sent in from preceding sessions.

Some clever men, some years ago, originated the custom of having, during the recess of congress, the several committees meet and clear up their work. To do this has required in several instances that the committee should have intimate knowledge of the subject under discussion that could be obtained only by personal visit.

So we have congressional committees on labor, inland commerce, defenses, internal improvement, arbitration, etc. Two such committees visited Astoria this season. A third came down on the T. J. Potter yesterday afternoon. This was composed of senators comprising a committee on the bonded indebtedness of Pacific railroads. There are no completed Pacific railroads in Astoria's corporate limits, but like their preceding brethren, the gentlemen were brought here where they were met and received by the chamber of commerce of this city, and transferred to the Geo. H. Mendell.

The rolling wreaths of heavy mist hung low over the lower bay, and the party was denied the magnificent panorama of natural beauty that has delighted the eyes of so many visitors. Arriving at Ft. Stevens, Messrs. Hegardt and Stogmann with their usual promptitude had everything ready and the party were enabled to see just what was and is done, and note the transcendent value and importance of this great work.

The experience of a railroad ride into and over the surging billows, almost out of sight of land, was a novel one and enjoyed by the visitors.

Among those who came down were senators Frye of Maine, Turpin of Indiana, Dawes of Massachusetts, Platt of New York, and Davis of Minnesota, John M. Thurston, general solicitor of the Union Pacific railroad, Chas. B. Reade, deputy sergeant-at-arms, of the senate, J. H. Briggs of Maine, and several ladies. There were also Gen. Jno. G. Gibbs, Ex-Gov. Moody, Donald McLeary, Hon. Geo. H. Williams, F. K. Arnold, Cleveland Rockwell, Maj. T. H. Handbury. They were met here by Mayor Pango, C. W. Fulton, C. J. French, J. H. D. Gray, M. C. Crosby, W. W. Parker, E. C. Holden, B. Van Dusen, F. J. Taylor, J. Q. A. Bowley, J. O. Handthorn and others.

The visit was manifestly a satisfactory one, and will doubtless redound to the material benefit of the great work in the success of which we are all mutually interested. The boat returned with all on board about five o'clock, and after a half hour's rest here proceeded to Portland. From there the visitors go to the Sound, and thence homeward.

CHILDREN ENJOY.

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

Farewell Party Last Evening.

One of the pleasantest parties ever given in Astoria took place last evening at the Casino, in honor of the departure of Miss Ella Bryce, who leaves for San Francisco in a few days. The music by the Western Amateur orchestra was all that could be desired, and right well did the guests enjoy themselves. The following were present: A. N. Allen and wife, A. G. Allen and wife, R. Ball and wife, George Nolan and wife, F. L. Dunbar and wife, W. T. Clutter and wife, A. L. Fulton and wife, F. W. Newell and wife, G. C. Sutton and wife, H. G. Van Dusen and wife, J. A. Fulton and wife, O. F. Heilborn and wife, H. F. Prael and wife, P. A. Stokes and wife, Misses Daisy Goodell, Alice Stockton, Minnie Sherman, Rosetta Sherman, Ella Brecker, May Holson, Georgia Badollet, Myra Stevens, Nellie Levings, Katie Thrall, Aggie Stockton, Lottie Levings, Gussie Gray, Josey Dooly, Grace Carruthers, Clara Rucker, Katie Grant, Maggie Davidson, Dora Badollet, Nora Nickerson, of San Francisco, and Mrs. Badollet. Messrs. C. E. Bain, A. W. Dolson, R. Dunbar, D. Davis, A. L. Fox, E. Z. Ferguson, Geo. Goodell, J. P. Hayes, R. E. Eganah, W. M. Moore, J. P. Hughes, Rogers, W. A. Stine, W. A. Sherman, H. Sherman, Grant, Will. John and Thad Truninger, H. D. Thing, W. E. Warren, F. P. Young, John Bryce and F. Curran.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, and by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her. Addition, she bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to Dr. J. C. Rogers, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery Free at J. W. Conn's Drug-store.

Ladies' Ladies' $300 Fine Shoes; also Flexible Hand turned French Kids, at P. J. GOODMAN'S.

ADVISE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures colic, cholera, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices, at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident hotel, Astoria.

Meals Cooked to Order.

Private rooms for ladies and families; at Central Restaurant, next to Ford & Stokes.

Weinhard's Beer.

And Free Lunch at the Telephone Saloon, 6 cents.

Telephone-Logging House.

Best Beds in town. Rooms per night 50 and 25 cts. per week $1.50. New and clean. Private entrance.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Capt. Johnson has returned from Alaska.

C. W. Fulton returned from Portland yesterday.

Rev. Dr. Garner and wife have returned from their eastern trip.

Rev. F. O. Weeks, brother of P. W. Weeks, is in the city, from B. C., and will preach at the Baptist church Sunday.

L. Samuels, of the West Shore is in the city. Astorians may expect something from his facile pen in the next issue of his popular magazine.

Capt. Scott of the Telephone is back from his two weeks vacation on the Sound, and now takes his trick at the wheel with his accustomed regularity.

An Awful Sore Limb

Entirely gone. Fresh cases of disease leg eliminated. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies in two months.

Cured by Cuticura

For three years I was almost crippled with an awful sore leg from my knee down to my ankle; the skin was entirely gone, and the flesh was one mass of disease. Some physicians pronounced it incurable. It had diminished about one third the size of the leg, and I was in a hopeless condition. After trying all kinds of remedies and spending hundreds of dollars, from which I got no relief whatever, I was persuaded to try your Cuticura Soap. I have bought about a dozen boxes of Cuticura Soap, and after three days I noticed a decided change for the better, and at the end of two months I was completely cured. My flesh was purified, and the bone (which had been exposed for over a year) got sound. The flesh began to grow, and to-day, and for nearly two years past, my leg is as well as it ever was, and in every respect, and not a sign of the disease to be seen.

Skin Disease 17 Years.

I have been troubled with a skin and scalp disease for seventeen years. My head and face were one mass of disease. Some physicians pronounced it incurable. It had diminished about one third the size of the leg, and I was in a hopeless condition.
