"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyron, (of Fernandina, Fla.,) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. "Last fall and winter I was troubled"

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became nimost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomch and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pair disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Pierce eluded the officers and among the hills. After publishing a Pierce remained concealed by Mrs. B, to the town of Joseph, where she delivered him to the proper authorities for extradition to Idaho. We presume that Mrs. B. has been paid the amount of the reward placed on Pierce's head; she certainly leserves it together with a medal for her exceptional courage and tact in apprehending a desperado whose proper sphere of exertion is within the castle walls of the penitentiary. We commend her to the detective craft, and if we are ever a fugitive from justice we would prefer to encounter that "hired man," alone, than to combat the relentless will of the woman who gave him such an impressive object lesson in cool bravery, and furnished to the world another dem onstration of the fact, that the will of

The Fruit of Violence.

In no case is the folly of violence in medication more conspicuously shown by its fruit, than in the effect upon the intestines of excessive purgation. The stomach and bowels are first painfully griped, then the latter is copiously, suddenly and repeatedly evacuated. This is far beyond the necessities of the case, most unnatural, excessively debilitating. The organs are incapacitated from resuming their function with normal moderation. An astringent is resorted to which reduces them to their former condition of inaction. To this monstrous and harmful absurdity. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the happy alternative, it relates gently, naturally, sufficiently, it diverts bile from the blood into its proper channel, it insures healthful digestio and complete assimilation. It is a complete defense against malaria, conquers rheumatism, neuralgia, pervousness, kidney and bladder troubled. The Fruit of Violence. eumatism, neuralgia, pervousness. Kidney d bladder trouble.
